Studia Linguarum:

The Qur'an in Rome Federico Stella, Roberto Tottoli, 2024-03-04 Despite its relevance to the subsequent development of Western Islamic studies the intellectual contribution of early modern Catholicism is still an under researched area The aim of this volume is to fill this gap offering a series of essays dealing with the study of the Qur'an and Arabic language in early modern Catholic Europe Focusing on the circulation of manuscripts translations and printed books the essays highlight how Catholic Orientalism contributed to the birth and spread of Western Islamic studies although sometimes it was still directed towards religious polemics Among the protagonists of this period of Islamic studies the volume will focus on Catholic priests missionaries religious orders Jesuits Franciscans Carmelites Eastern Christians converts and other prominent figures in the Catholic culture of the time Special attention will be given to the work of Ludovico Marracci author of a fundamental edition of the Arabic text and Latin translation of the Qur'an with an introduction notes refutations and religious and linguistic insights The volume is of interest to an audience of specialists and non specialists interested both in Islamic and Qur'anic studies and in the history of modern Catholicism missions and Orientalism

Creolization and Contact Norval Smith, Tonjes Veenstra, 2001 This volume contains revised and extended versions of a selection of the papers presented at The Amsterdam Workshop on Language Contact and Creolization These studies apply the concept of relexification to creoles as well as other contact languages highlight the relevance of strategies of second language learning for theories of pidgin creole genesis critically discuss the notions levelling koine formation and convergence the relation between types of contact situations and processes of crosslinguistic influence as well as the linguistic consequences of the social structure of the plantation system In addition to discussing English French and Dutch related creoles the papers cover a wide range of contact languages spoken throughout Africa Asia and Europe The breadth and coverage makes this an indispensable title for research in the field of contact linguistics

Semitic Languages Edward Lipiński, 2001 The first comparative grammar of the Semitic languages by H Zimmern was published a hundred years ago and the last original work of this kind was issued in Russian in 1972 by B M Grande The present grammar designed to come out in the centenary of the completion of Zimmern's work fills thus a gap Besides it is based on both classical and modern Semitic languages it takes new material of these last decades into account and situates the Semitic languages in the wider context of Afro Asiatic The introduction briefly presents the languages in question The main parts of the work are devoted to phonology morphology and syntax with elaborate charts and diagrams Then follows a discussion of fundamental questions related to lexicographical analysis The study is supplemented by a glossary of linguistic terms used in Semitics by a selective bibliography by a general index and by an index of words and forms The book is the result of twenty five years of research and teaching in comparative Semitic grammar

The Ancient Languages of Europe Roger D. Woodard,2008-04-10 This book derived from the acclaimed Cambridge Encyclopedia of the World s Ancient Languages describes the ancient languages of Europe for the convenience of students and specialists working in that area Each chapter of the work focuses on an individual language or in some instances a set of closely related varieties of a language Providing a full descriptive presentation each of these chapters examines the writing system's phonology morphology syntax and lexicon of that language and places the language within its proper linguistic and historical context The volume brings together an international array of scholars each a leading specialist in ancient language study While designed primarily for scholars and students of linguistics this work will prove invaluable to all whose studies take them into the realm of ancient language

Polemical Encounters Mercedes García-Arenal, Gerard Wiegers, 2018-12-03 This collection takes a new approach to understanding religious plurality in the Iberian Peninsula and its Mediterranean and northern European contexts Focusing on polemics works that attack or refute the beliefs of religious Others this volume aims to challenge the problematic characterization of Iberian Jews Muslims and Christians as homogeneous groups From the high Middle Ages to the end of the seventeenth century Christian efforts to convert groups of Jews and Muslims Muslim efforts to convert Christians and Jews and the defensive efforts of these communities to keep their members within the faiths led to the production of numerous polemics This volume brings together a wide variety of case studies that expose how the current historiographical focus on the three religious communities as allegedly homogeneous groups obscures the diversity within the Christian Jewish and Muslim communities as well as the growing ranks of skeptics and outright unbelievers Featuring contributions from a range of academic disciplines this paradigm shifting book sheds new light on the cultural and intellectual dynamics of the conflicts that marked relations among these religious communities in the Iberian Peninsula and beyond In addition to the editors the contributors are Antoni Biosca i Bas Thomas E Burman Mónica Colominas Aparicio John Dagenais scar de la Cruz Borja Franco Llopis Linda G Jones Daniel J Lasker Davide Scotto Teresa Soto Ryan Szpiech Pieter Sjoerd van Koningsveld and Carsten Wilke "First the Bow is Bent in Study--" M. Michèle Mulchahey, Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, 1998

Fixers Zrinka Stahuljak, 2024-01-26 In this book Zrinka Stahuljak issues a challenge to scholars working in medieval studies to account for the history of translation and to experts in translation studies to read the work of medievalists Focusing on the term fixer she unpacks modern uses of the words interpreter and translator and restores them to their premodern origins as an active agent who performed a wide range of tasks as insider informant local guide broker of knowledge and transmitter of art For Stahuljak the fixer was a multifunctional intermediary not a mere translator or interpreter in the restricted modern sense but an enabler facilitator and mediator the engine driving the exchange of multiple linguistic social cultural and topographic forms of knowledge She proposes a paradigmatic shift for both medieval literary history and for the history of translation to confront and interrogate each other in their core disciplinary practices which promote national political and colonial agendas masked as neutrality Surveying a variety of texts from 1250 to 1500 including crusade treatises and travel writings accounts of pilgrims and spies chronicles and romances in both prose and verse and traversing an impressive range of languages including Latin Middle French German Italian and Spanish Stahuljak asks both medievalists and translation studies scholars to reconsider their assumptions and methods as a way to reconstruct a premodern precolonial inclusive world literature      Accent Matters ,2011-01-01 The accentual systems of the Baltic and Slavic languages continue to intrigue scholars of general and historical linguistics They play an important role in the reconstruction of the linguistic ancestor of Baltic and Slavic but also in the typological study of accentual systems This volume contains contributions related to the accentology of the Baltic and Slavic languages by leading scholars in the field They discuss the accentual systems that are attested in Baltic and Slavic dialects and texts and the historical developments that led to these systems The volume further contains contributions on similar accentual systems and developments in other languages such as Abkhaz and the Mordvinian languages A number of papers also deal with the role of the Balto Slavic accents in the reconstruction of Proto Indo European The volume reflects the progress that has been made in the field of Baltic and Slavic accentuation during the last decades It forms a major source for anyone interested in the latest developments and insights in the study of accentuation      Johann Jakob Wettstein's Principles for New Testament Textual Criticism Silvia Castelli,2020-08-17 In Johann Jakob Wettstein s Principles for New Testament Textual Criticism Silvia Castelli investigates the genesis development and legacy of Wettstein s criteria for evaluating New Testament variant readings Wettstein s guidelines the Animadversiones et cautiones are the first well organized essay on New Testament text critical methodology first published in the Prolegomena to his New Testament in 1730 and republished with some changes in 1752 In his essay Wettstein presents a new text critical method based on the manuscripts evidence and on the critic s judgment Moving away from the authority invested in established printed editions Wettstein s methodology thus effectively promotes and enhances intellectual freedom The second part of this volume offers a critical text and an annotated English translation of Wettstein s text critical principles      Orientalism in Early Modern France Ina Baghdiantz McCabe,2008-07-15 Francis I s ties with the Ottoman Empire marked the birth of court sponsored Orientalism in France Under Louis XIV French society was transformed by cross cultural contacts with the Ottomans India Persia China Siam and the Americas The consumption of silk cotton cloth spices coffee tea china gems flowers and other luxury goods transformed daily life and gave rise to a new discourse about the Orient which in turn shaped ideas about economy and politics specifically absolutism and the monarchy An original account of the ancient regime this book highlights France s use of the exotic and analyzes French discourse about Islam and the Orient      Engaging Catholic Doctrine: Essays in Honor of Matthew Levering Robert Barron,Scott Hahn,James Merrick,2023-06-27 With contributions from some of today s most significant theologians Engaging Catholic Doctrine is an expression of gratitude to Matthew Levering for his generous collegiality and tireless work to chart a sure path for contemporary Catholic doctrine Essayists significantly advance the work of Matthew Levering in the areas of Aquinas as a biblical theologian the doctrine of the Trinity the significance of sacrifice for authentically Christian worship the recovery of virtue in moral theology the theology of Joseph Ratzinger and much more In addition to celebrating and honoring Levering s work this volume offers new contributions in some of the key areas of theological research today Matthew
