Department of Printed Books,1922 Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1927 Science Fiction and the Historical Novel Ian P. MacDonald,Kate Polak,2024-09-16 If you woke to realize that you could rewrite your yesterday without knowing the kind of tomorrow it would grant you would you do it Are the authors of our destiny working with an outline or spit balling confusing plotlines Since the past changes possible futures to what alighting butterfly should we pay the most heed This book explores the liminal space between speculative fiction and the historical novel Staged as a transnational multicultural conversation it takes up a call originally made by Fredric Jameson in Archaeologies of the Future wherein he describes that flashpoint between speculative and historical genres as the symptom of a mutation in our relationship to historical time itself Drawing together postcolonial feminist cultural Indigenous and cognitive approaches Science Fiction and the Historical Novel asks what the past can offer a future oriented world and how the future can be imagined in relation to a past that seeks narratives of inevitability rather than possibility Engaged with the idea of the past as a model for the future authors in this volume probe the extent to which historical scripts delimit possibilities and how authors engaged with the practice of alternative pasts rewrite potentialities in the present A Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Yingjin Zhang,2015-08-13 This wide ranging Companion provides a vital overview of modern Chinese literature in different geopolitical areas from the 1840s to now It reviews major accomplishments of Chinese literary scholarship published in Chinese and English and brings attention to previously neglected important areas Offers the most thorough and concise coverage of modern Chinese literature to date drawing attention to previously neglected areas such as late Qing Sinophone and ethnic minority literature Several chapters explore literature in relation to Sinophone geopolitics regional culture urban culture visual culture print media and new media The introduction and two chapters furnish overviews of the institutional development of modern Chinese literature in Chinese and English scholarship since the mid twentieth century Contributions from leading literary scholars in mainland China and Hong Kong add their voices to international scholarship New Literary Values David Daiches,1970 Literature in Contemporary Media Culture Sarah J. Paulson,Anders Skare Malvik,2016-02-03 How does contemporary literature respond to the digitalized media culture in which it takes part And how do we study literature in order to shed light on these responses Under the subsections Technology Subjectivity and Aesthetics Literature in Contemporary Media Culture sets out to answer these questions The book shows how literature over the last decade has charted the impact of new technologies on human conduct It explores how changes in literary production distribution and consumption can be correlated to changes in social practices more generally And it examines how and if contemporary media culture affects our understanding of literary aesthetics Addressing Scandinavian and Anglo American poetry and fiction produced around the beginning of the present century Literature in Contemporary Media Culture highlights both well known and unfamiliar literary texts It offers cross disciplinary methodological tools and reading strategies for studying literary phenomena such as intermedial aesthetics the autobiographical novel conceptual literature and digital poetry all of which are prevalent across national borders at the outset of the twenty first century This book will be of interest to students and established scholars in the fields of literature film and media studies and visual studies as well as to members of the general reading public Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years ... ,1927 Studies in Contemporary Literature and Culture ,1979 Contemporary Issues in Australian Literature David Callahan,2014-02-25 The contemporary study of Australian literature ranges widely across issues of general cultural studies the politics of identity both ethnic and gendered and the position of Australia within wider postcolonial contexts This volume intervenes in the most significant of issues in these areas from a variety of international perspectives Form and Power in Medieval and Early Modern Literature Daniel G. Donoghue,Daniel Donoghue,Sebastian Sobiecki,Nicholas Watson,2024 New and exciting scholarship on medieval and early modern English culture in all its diversity This book honours James Simpson an enormously influential figure in English literary studies Known for championing once neglected writers such as Gower Hoccleve and Lydgate Simpson has also pioneered the field of Trans Reformation studies dismantling the barrier between the medieval and early modern periods He has written powerfully about the history of freedoms the relationship between literary and intellectual history and about the category of the literary itself in all its urgency Inspired by Simpson s interventions the essays collected here deal with texts and topics from the eighth to the seventeenth centuries Langland s Piers Plowman and Chaucer s Physician s Tale and Troilus and Criseyde rub shoulders with Old English riddles Saint Erkenwald The Digby Lyrics Lydgate s Dietary and Lodge s Robert the Devil Revisionist studies of two much debated genres allegory and romance join forces with chapters on neglected physical features of early books line fillers and catchwords as well as studies of iconoclasm and the histories of enemy love The volume begins with a piece by the honorand himself on recognition in literary texts 3000-3999, Modern languages and literature Princeton University.
