Studies In Culture Spirituality And Social Concerns:

The Lasting Significance of Etty Hillesum's Writings Klaas A.D. Smelik, 2025-10-01 The Lasting Significance of Etty Hillesum's Writings contains the proceedings of the third international Etty Hillesum Conference held in Middelburg in September 2018. It brings together the work of 33 experts from all over the world to shed new light on life, works, inspiration, and vision of the Dutch Jewish writer Etty Hillesum, 1914-1943, one of the victims of the Nazi regime. Hillesum's diaries and letters illustrate her heroic struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Holocaust. This volume revives Hillesum research with a comprehensive rereading of her texts but also by introducing new sources about her life. With the current rise of interest in peace studies, Judaism, the Holocaust, inter-religious dialogue, gender studies, and mysticism, this book will be invaluable to students and scholars in a range of disciplines.

Thomas Merton and the Individual Witness David E. Oberon, 2024-09-26 Thomas Merton proclaimed over sixty years ago that we were living in a post-Christian world. Since then, in an increasingly secular society where the influence of the institutional church is under doubt, Thomas Merton's reflections are more salient than ever. David Oberon's discussion and analysis brings this mystic monk and spiritual leader's view of the opportunities presented to Christians by cultural changes to the forefront, focussing on how the individual's witness can take precedence. Oberon situates the reader in the current cultural context and handles Merton's work with care and clarity. He illuminates Thomas Merton's unique view of his own society, which credibly speaks to our present, aiding Christians in navigating a post-Christian, post-truth world.

Thomas Merton Paul R. Dekar, 2012-04-26 Thomas Merton was arguably the twentieth century's most widely published and widely read spiritual writer. This book explores Merton's prophetic writings and experience as they offer guidance for those seeking to experience God, to simplify their lives, to live more humanly, and to shape Christian community in the face of alienation, consumerism, noise, and technology. The book includes parts of three previously unpublished conference contributions by Merton on technology, exploring Merton's thoughts on monastic renewal, prayer, radical simplicity, ecology, technology, war, peace, and interfaith dialogue. Dekar reminds us why Merton was so influential and why he continues to be so.

Thomas Merton: God's Messenger on the Road towards a New World Paul R. Dekar, 2021-06-02 Thomas Merton, God's Messenger on the Road towards a New World, highlights the contribution of the best-selling North American writer between the Second World War and 1968. The Cistercian monk called people to act justly, love kindness, and walk humbly. By his critique of technology, a major impediment for people to follow Jesus, by his writing on contemplative prayer, by his interfaith outreach, and through his witness against racism, war, and degradation of nature, Merton still matters. This book uses Micah 6:8 to organize Merton's focus on justice, lovingkindness, and humility, as well as his dialogue with Rachel Carson, Ernesto Cardinal, Gandhi, Martin Luther King Jr., Thich Nhat Hanh, and others.

Theology, Liberation and Genocide Mario I. Aguilar, 2009 The Reclaiming Liberation Theology series claims that Liberation Theology is alive and well and continues to produce new and challenging material. In Theology

Liberation and Genocide Mario Aguilar one of the leading liberation theologians of the current generation asks how it can be possible to do theology in the face of atrocities such as the genocide in Rwanda He argues that the traditional ways of doing theology high theology no longer work and that theology now has to take place at the periphery rather than in the social cultural and political centre In this book Aguilar seeks further to unfold the new agenda for liberation theology as set by Ivan Petrella and others The series editors are Ivan Petrella University of Miami and Marcella Althaus Reid University of Edinburgh

Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson, 2017-05-25 In Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson proposes pansacramentalism as holding the potential to find the divine in all things and all things in the divine Such a proposition carries significant interreligious implications particularly in the practice of theology Presupposing theological practice as divorced from spirituality lived religious experience Gustafson presents pansacramentalism as a bridge between the two In so doing Gustafson offers a history of spirituality sketching the foundations of a classical approach to sacramentality through Aquinas as well as a contemporary approach to the same through Rahner and Chauvet Through three fascinating case studies this book presents particular instances of sacramentality in lived religious experience Gustafson offers an exciting method of doing theology one which is entirely compatible with the interdisciplinary field of interreligious studies

Sophia Christopher Pramuk,2009-10-01 While numerous studies have celebrated Thomas Merton s witness as an interfaith pioneer poet and peacemaker there have been few systematic treatments of his Christology as such and no sustained exploration to date of his relationship to the Russian Sophia tradition This book looks to Thomas Merton as a classic theologian of the Christian tradition from East to West and offers an interpretation of his mature Christology with special attention to his remarkable prose poem of 1962 Hagia Sophia Bringing Merton s mystical prophetic Vision fully into dialogue with contemporary Christology Russian sophiology and Zen as well as figures such as John Henry Newman and Abraham Joshua Heschel the author carefully but boldly builds the case that Sophia the same theological eros that animated Merton s religious imagination in a period of tremendous fragmentation and violence might infuse new vitality into our own A study of uncommon depth and scope inspired throughout by Merton s extraordinary catholicity Christopher Pramuk PhD is assistant professor of theology at Xavier University in Cincinnati Ohio He is the author of two books and numerous essays and the recipient of the Catholic Theological Society of America s 2009 Catherine Mowry LaCugna Award

Opening New Horizons Joseph Quinn Raab,2021-01-19 On the surface Christianity and Zen Buddhism can appear to be worlds apart even antithetical Christianity affirms the reality of the Tri personal God and the eternal salvation of mortal human beings Zen denies both the existence of God and the soul Yet Thomas Merton the Catholic spiritual master and D T Suzuki the famous teacher of Zen engaged in an extensive dialogue and found ways of mutually affirming shared meanings of God and person that each regarded to be true This book explores that dialogue within the larger context of Merton s attraction to Buddhism and considers the implications of their achievement for contemporary theologies of religious pluralism

Spiritual Radical Edward K. Kaplan, 2007-01-01 This ambitious book explores the relationship between time and history and shows how an appreciation of long term time helps to make sense of the past For the historian time is not an unproblematic given but as for the physicist or the philosopher a means to understanding the changing patterns of life on earth The book is devoted to a wide ranging analysis of the way different societies have conceived and interpreted time and it develops a theory of threefold roles of continuity gradual change and revolution that together form a braided history Linking the interpretative chapters are intriguing brief expositions on time travel time cycles time lines and time pieces showing readers the different ways in which human history has been located in time In its global approach the book is part of the new shift towards big history in which traditional period divisions are challenged in favour of looking again at the entire past of the world from start to end The approach is thematic The result is a view of world history in which outcomes are shown to be explicable once they happen but not necessarily predictable before they do This book will inform the work of historians of all periods and at all levels and contributes to the current reconsideration of traditional period divisions such as Modernity and Postmodernity which the author finds outmoded Embracing the Call to Spiritual Depth Tilden Edwards,

Church, Liberation and World

Religions Mario I. Aguilar, 2012-11-02 This work proposes a theological investigation of the community of the Church as outlined by liberation theology and a possible conversation with liberation from suffering in Tibetan Buddhism. What unites both is the human process of sublimation for others whereby liberation theologians as well as enlightened lamas give the best of themselves for the liberation of others. At this stage of discussions between inclusivists and exclusivists, this work proposes that dialogue with world religions and therefore with Buddhism is not about finding possible dogmatic similarities but a common place, a common purpose through a common humanity.
