Studies in the Age of Chaucer David Matthews, 2012-01-15 Studies in the Age of Chaucer is the annual yearbook of the New Chaucer Society publishing articles on the writing of Chaucer and his contemporaries their antecedents and successors and their intellectual and social contexts More generally articles explore the culture and writing of later medieval Britain 1200 1500 Each SAC volume also includes an annotated bibliography and reviews of Chaucer related publications

The Oxford History of Life-Writing: Volume 1. The Middle Ages Karen A. Winstead, 2018-04-05 The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages explores the richness and variety of life writing from late Antiquity to the threshold of the Renaissance During the Middle Ages writers from Bede to Chaucer were thinking about life and experimenting with ways to translate lives their own and others into literature Their subjects included career religious saints celebrities visionaries pilgrims princes philosophers poets and even a few ordinary people They relay life stories not only in chronological narratives but also in debates dialogues visions and letters Many medieval biographers relied on the reader's trust in their authority but some espoused standards of evidence that seem distinctly modern drawing on reliable written sources interviewing eyewitnesses and cross checking their facts wherever possible Others still professed allegiance to evidence but nonetheless freely embellished and invented not only events and dialogue but the sources to support them The first book devoted to life writing in medieval England The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 1 The Middle Ages covers major life stories in Old and Middle English Latin and French along with such Continental classics as the letters of Abelard and Heloise and the autobiographical Vision of Christine de Pizan In addition to the life stories of historical figures it treats accounts of fictional heroes from Beowulf to King Arthur to Queen Katherine of Alexandria which show medieval authors experimenting with adapting and expanding the conventions of life writing Though Medieval life writings can be challenging to read we encounter in them the antecedents of many of our own diverse biographical forms tabloid lives literary lives brief lives revisionist lives lives of political figures memoirs fictional lives and psychologically oriented accounts that register the inner lives of their subjects

Raybin,2010 Eleven essays that explore how modern scholarship interprets Chaucer s writings Provided by publisher The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower Ana Saez-Hidalgo,Brian Gastle,R.F. Yeager,2017-03-31 The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower reviews the most current scholarship on the late medieval poet and opens doors purposefully to research areas of the future It is divided into three parts The first part Working theories medieval and modern is devoted to the main theoretical aspects that frame Gower s work ranging from his use of medieval law rhetoric theology and religious attitudes to approaches incorporating gender and queer studies The second part Things and places material cultures examines the cultural locations of the author not only from geographical and political perspectives or in scientific and economic context but also in the transmission of his poetry through the materiality of the text and its reception Polyvocality text and language the third part focuses on Gower's trilingualism his approach to history and narratological and intertextual aspects of his works The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower is an essential resource for scholars and students of Gower and of Middle English literature history and culture generally Guillaume de Machaut Lawrence Earp, 2013-08-21 This book provides an overview of the current state of research on Machaut the major figure of 14th century French music and poetry giving fair representation to the many areas of Machaut research that are pursued in fields outside music Coverage of the current state of knowledge on each of the manuscripts includes the newly discovered Aberystwyth manuscript described in detail here for the first time A section on the large narrative poems pulls together recent research of several scholars and offers new views An up to date concordance of the miniatures in all of the illustrated Machaut manuscripts gives information on where published studies and facsimiles may be found The discography is the most complete list of Machaut recordings yet compiled and provides critical evaluations of recordings most valuable for instruction according to our latest conception of performance practice in the 14th century A biography section organizes the documentary material in a way that will facilitate further research The bibliography of secondary works cites books editions articles and dissertations including forthcoming works from 1740 to 1991 in French English the other western European languages Polish Russian and Japanese The volume is fully indexed Chaucer William Anthony Davenport, 1988 Lively and interesting Complaint and its interaction with its narrative context is explored across the range of Chaucer's oeuvre from the shorter poems to various Tales NOTES QUERIES Counters the view of Chaucer's complaints as exercises in a worn out French tradition by demonstrating how his effort to fuse lyric and narrative modes led him to experiment with complaint His analyses give new perspectives on several of Chaucer's works an intelligent original and profitable view STUDIES IN THE AGE OF CHAUCER The Literary Text in the Digital Age Richard J. Finneran, 1996 Gathers essays by major figures in humanities computing on the implications of the new digital technology for the study of literary texts Studying Transcultural Literary History Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, 2012-03-12 In our globalised world literature is less and less confined to national spaces Europe centred frameworks for literary studies have become insufficient academics are increasingly called upon to address matters of cultural difference In this unique volume leading scholars discuss the critical and methodical challenges that these developments pose to the writing of literary history What is the object of literary history What is the meaning of the term world literature How do we compare different cultural systems of genres How do we account theoretically for literary transculturation What are the implications of postcolonial studies for the discipline of comparative literature Ranging in focus from the Persian epic of Majnun Layla and Zulu praise poetry to South Korean novels and Brazilian antropofagismo the essays offer a concise overview of these and related questions Their aim is not to reach a consensus on these matters They show instead what is at stake in the emergent field of global comparatism Chaucer and the Subversion of Form Thomas A. Prendergast, Jessica Rosenfeld, 2018-05-31 Responding to the lively resurgence of literary formalism this volume delivers a timely and fresh exploration of the works of Geoffrey Chaucer Advancing new formalist approaches medieval scholars have begun to ask what happens when structure fails to yield meaning probing the very limits of poetic organization While Chaucer is acknowledged as a master of form his work also foregrounds troubling questions about formal agency the disparate forces of narrative and poetic practice readerly reception intertextuality genre scribal attention patronage and historical change This definitive collection of essays offers diverse perspectives on Chaucer and a varied analysis of these problems asking what happens when form is resisted by author or reader when it fails by accident or by design and how it can be misleading errant or even dangerous

Medieval Latin and Middle English Literature Jill Mann, Christopher Cannon, Maura Nolan, 2011 Fresh and provocative approaches to the literature of the middle ages offering close readings of texts from Chaucer to Henryson and beast fable to devotional works Jill Mann's writing teaching and scholarship have transformed our understanding of two distinct fields medieval Latin and Middle English literature as well as their intersection Essays in this volume seek to honour this achievement by looking at entirely new aspects of these fields the relationship of song to affect the political valence of classical allusion the Latin background of Middle English devotional texts Others look again at the literary kinds and ideas most important in Mann's own work beast fable the nature of allegory the nature of nature the relationship of economic thought and literature satire language as a subject for poetry in the poets she has been most drawn to Chaucer Langland Henryson All of the essays involve close readings of the most careful kind taking as their primary method Professor Mann's repeated injunction to attend above all to the words on the page

Chaucer, Gower, and the Vernacular Rising Lynn Arner, 2015-01-14 Chaucer Gower and the Vernacular Rising examines the transmission of Greco Roman and European literature into English during the late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries while literacy was burgeoning among men and women from the nonruling classes This dissemination offered a radically democratizing potential for accessing interpreting and deploying learned texts Focusing primarily on an overlooked sector of Chaucer's and Gower's early readership namely the upper strata of nonruling urban classes Lynn Arner argues that Chaucer's and Gower's writings engaged in elaborate processes of constructing cultural expertise These writings helped define gradations of cultural authority determining who could contribute to the production of legitimate knowledge and granting certain socioeconomic groups political leverage in the wake of the English Rising of 1381 Chaucer Gower and the Vernacular Rising simultaneously examines Chaucer's and Gower's negotiations often articulated at the site of gender over poetics and over the roles that vernacular poetry should play in the late medieval English social formation This study investigates how Chaucer's and Gower's texts positioned poetry to become a powerful participant in processes of social control A Companion to Medieval English Literature and Culture, c.1350 - c.1500 Peter Brown, 2009-10-26 A Companion to Medieval English Literature and Culture c 1350 c 1500 challenges readers to think beyond a narrowly defined canon and conventional disciplinary boundaries A ground breaking collection of newly commissioned essays on medieval literature and culture Encourages students to think beyond a narrowly defined canon and conventional disciplinary boundaries Reflects the erosion of the traditional rigid boundary between medieval and early modern literature Stresses the importance of constructing contexts for reading literature Explores the extent to which medieval literature is in dialogue with other cultural products including the literature of other countries manuscripts and religion Includes close readings of frequently studied texts including texts by Chaucer Langland the Gawain poet and Hoccleve Confronts some of the controversies that exercise students of medieval literature such as those connected with literary theory love and chivalry and war Chaucer's Agents Carolynn Van Dyke, 2005 Chaucer's Agents draws on medieval and modern theories of agency to provide fresh readings of the major Chaucerian texts Collectively those readings aim to illuminate Chaucer's responses to two great problems of agency the degree to which human beings and forces qualify as agents and the equal reference of agent to initiators and instruments Each chapter surveys medieval conceptions of the agency in question allegorical Realities intelligent animals pagan gods women and the author and then follows that kind of agent through representative Chaucerian texts Readers have long recognized Chaucer's interest in questions of causation Van Dyke shows that his answers to those questions shape even constitute his narratives Fairleigh Dickinson University Press
