Studies In The History Of Central Nigeria Area:

Studies in the History of Central Nigeria Area Aliyu Alhaji Idrees, Yakubu A. Ochefu, 2002 Nigeria's Resource Wars Egodi Uchendu, 2021-03-02 Nigeria's Resource Wars reflects on the diversity of conflicts over access to and allocation of resources in Nigeria. From the devastating effects of crude oil exploration in the Niger Delta to desertification caused by climate change and illegal gold mining in Zamfara to mention a few, Nigeria faces new dimensions of resource-related struggles. The ravaging effects of these resource conflicts between crop farmers and Fulani herders in Nigeria's Middlebelt and states across Southern Nigeria call for urgent scholarly interventions with the Fulani cattle breeders onslaught altering the histories of many Nigerian families through deaths, loss of homes and investments and permanent physical incapacity. Currently, there is an almost total breakdown of interethnic relations with political commentators acknowledging that Nigeria has never been so divided as it presently is in its history. The struggles have now degenerated into kidnaps, armed robbery and incessant targeted and random killings across the country, compounding the already complex problem of insecurity in Nigeria. The chapters in this volume engage with these issues, presenting the different arguments on resource conflicts in Nigeria. They draw insights from similar conflicts in Nigeria's colonial post-independence past and events from around the world to proffer possible solutions to resource-related confrontations in Africa. By offering a collection of different intellectual perspectives on resource conflicts in Nigeria, this volume will be an important reference material for understanding the diversity of thought patterns that underpin the struggle and policy approaches towards resolving conflict situations in Africa. This volume will be of considerable interest to scholars of Africa, researchers in the humanities, social sciences and conflict studies, and policymakers interested in understanding the resource crisis in Africa.

Dissent, Protest and Dispute in Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel Mbah, 2016-12-19 This book provides unique and detailed perspectives on different aspects of dissent, protest and disputes and how these have in turn continued to pose challenges in Africa. The contributors argue that dissent, protest and most forms of disputes in Africa are the result of daily challenges that its people have faced and continue to encounter to this day. These challenges include, amongst others, demands for transparency, good governance and accountability, waves of instability that have created insecurity in most parts of the continent, an unsustainable level of youth unemployment, rapid population growth, a continent-wide healthcare and poverty crises and numerous environmental challenges. The chapters elevate the debates on dissent, protest and disputes, conflict in Africa by adding new ideas and introducing new and useful interpretations. The book's strength lies in the contributors' ability to conflate colonial and postcolonial tendencies to show how challenges of the past are not so different from those of today while also presenting important historical issues from various scholarly perspectives. Dissent, Protest and Dispute in Africa will be of interest for students and scholars of African history, politics and culture as well as those interested in social movements and civil society.

Kalu, 2013-06-29 Civil conflicts in Africa range from few interstate wars to several intrastate conflicts characterized by secessionist movements irredentism coups and counter coups genocide wars of liberation to resource based wars The varied causes of conflicts in the continent s diverse and complex social formations are seen in ethnic terms and include struggles for economic environmental resources poor institutions of governance and issues of identity such as religion language and racial differences The core issue addressed in this volume is how to understand and explain the structural and analytical reasons for persistent civil conflicts in Africa The core assumption is that most civil conflicts in Africa erupt largely because of the nature of state formation in the continent Other significant variables that are explored as explanations for the persistent instances of civil conflicts in sub Saharan Africa and the slow efforts at nation building across the continent include issues of territoriality climate change ethnicity ideological incongruities institutional problems the nature of postcolonial state unreformed governance and economic structures and corruption This book also examines some sources of unresolved issues of territoriality and explains their

Babs Fafunwa,2018-10-03 Originally published in 1974 a comprehensive history of Nigerian Education from early times right through to the time of publication had long been needed by all concerned with Education in Nigeria students teachers and educational administrators No one was better qualified than Professor Fafunwa to provide such a book and in doing so he gave due emphasis to the beginnings of Education in its three main stages of indigenous Muslim and Christian

Education Nigerian Education had been considered all too often as a comparatively recent phenomenon but this book points out from the start that Education is as old as Man himself in Africa and that both Islam and Christianity were comparative newcomers in the field A historical treatment of these three strands which have combined to make up the modern Educational system was vital to a clear understanding of what was needed for the future and most of the first half of the book is concerned with these Educational beginnings The imposing of a foreign colonial system on this framework did not always lead to a happy fusion of the systems and the successes and the failures are examined in detail There was no shortage of documentary evidence in the form of reports and statistics during the decades prior to publication but this evidence was frequently scattered and inaccessible to the student so that the author s careful selection of key evidence and reports often drawn from his own personal experience will be invaluable for those wishing to trace the development of Education in Nigeria up to the early 1970s A knowledge of the history and development of the Nigerian Education system of the numerous and intensely varied personalities and beliefs which have combined and often conflicted to shape it is indispensable to all students in colleges and universities studying to become teachers It is this knowledge that Professor Fafunwa set out to provide drawing on his wide experience as teacher writer and educationalist      The African Book Publishing Record ,2003      Journal of the Historical Society of Nigeria ,2005
