

2 Imitation of the Ancient Masters

- The authors of the period were not endowed with exceptional literary talents. So they turned to the ancient writers, in particular, to the Latin writers, for guidance and inspiration.
 - Thus grew the neo-classical school of poetry. The neo-classicists or pseudo-classicists could not soar to great imaginative heights or could not penetrate deeply into human emotions.
 - They directed their attention to the slavish imitation of rules and ignored the importance of the subject matter. This habit was noticeable in the age of Dryden. It strengthened in the succeeding age of Pope.

Studies of Imitation in Some Latin Authors Robert E. Colton, 1995-12 Edinburgh Companion to Sidonius Apollinaris Gavin Kelly, 2020-03-18 A multidisciplinary survey of Sidonius Apollinaris and his works First ever comprehensive research tool for Sidonius Apollinaris Assembles leading international specialists on Sidonius and his age Offers an assessment of past and current research in the field Comprehensive bibliography includes all the scholarly literature on Sidonius Supplemented by the regularly updated Sidonius website www.sidonapol.org Sidonius Apollinaris c 430 c 485 poet and letter writer aristocrat administrator and bishop is one of the most distinct voices to survive from Late Antiquity and an eyewitness of the end of Roman power in the west The Edinburgh Companion to Sidonius Apollinaris is the first work of its kind giving a full account of all aspects of his life and works and surveying past and current scholarship as well as new developments in research This substantial and significant work of scholarship is divided into six thematic sections covering his social political linguistic literary and prosopographical context as well as extensive new scholarship on the manuscript tradition and history of reception This interdisciplinary book combines the utility of a key research tool for the study of Sidonius with a significant offering of wholly new scholarly research Studying Transcultural Literary History Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, 2012-03-12 In our globalised world literature is less and less confined to national spaces Europe centred frameworks for literary studies have become insufficient academics are increasingly called upon to address matters of cultural difference In this unique volume leading scholars discuss the critical and methodical challenges that these developments pose to the writing of literary history What is the object of literary history What is the meaning of the term world literature How do we compare different cultural systems of genres How do we account theoretically for literary transculturation What are the implications of postcolonial studies for the discipline of comparative literature Ranging in focus from the Persian epic of Majnun Layla and Zulu praise poetry to South Korean novels and Brazilian antropofagismo the essays offer a concise overview of these and related questions Their aim is not to reach a consensus on these matters They show instead what is at stake in the emergent field of global comparatism 1995 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Studies in Philology, 1918 The Ashgate Research Companion to Giorgio Vasari David J. Cast, 2016-04-01 The Ashgate Research Companion to Giorgio Vasari brings together the world's foremost experts on Vasari as well as up and coming scholars to provide at the 500th anniversary of his birth a comprehensive assessment of the current state of scholarship on this important and still controversial artist and writer The contributors examine the life and work of Vasari as an artist architect courtier academician and as a biographer of artists They also explore his legacy including an analysis of the reception of his work over the last five centuries Among the topics specifically addressed here are an assessment of the current controversy as to how much of Vasari's Lives was actually written by Vasari and explorations of Vasari's relationships with as well as reports about contemporaries including Cellini Michelangelo and Giotto among less familiar names The geographic scope takes in not only Florence the city traditionally privileged in Italian Renaissance art history but also less commonly studied geographical venues such as Siena and Venice Vergilius, 1995 Studies in Renaissance

Humanism and Politics Robert Black, 2023-05-31 The fifteen articles republished here exemplify the many directions Robert Black's research in Renaissance studies has taken The first five studies look at Renaissance humanism in particular at its origins and the concept of the Renaissance as well as the theory and practice of historical writing Black also updates his monograph on the Florentine chancellor Benedetto Accolti Machiavelli is the subject of three articles focusing on his education and career in the Florentine chancery Next come Black's seminal studies of Arezzo under Florentine rule revealing the triangular relationship between centre periphery and the Medici family Finally two articles on political thought examine the relative merits of monarchical and republican government for political thinkers on both sides of the Alps The
