Studies On Islam:

World Islam Andrew Rippin, 2008 Reflecting the diversity of Islam this collection focuses on the presence of Muslims in countries outside the traditionally conceived heartlands of the Islamic world The history of the arrival of Islam in such countries and the nature of the way in which Islam is practised in such places is the thematic focus of the materials selected for inclusion Today the community of Muslims around the globe looks to the Arab world and Iran as a source of identity and authority While this is driven as much by finances as by religious ideology it does create a sense of there being a central Islamic world and a diaspora which can be separated and considered This separation may also be considered a historical phenomenon the core Islamic world came into existence as a result of the early military expansion of the Arabs up to about 750CE after that point the spread of Islam occurred by different and more gradual means often influenced by trade especially Both of these ways of conceptualizing the region of interest results in a vast amount of territory in which to explore the special manifestations of Islam Materials selected for inclusion in this Major Work provide general information on Islam rather than being overly specific A number of aspects are considered the history of the introduction of Islam into the area the means by which Islam spread the attitude Muslims took to the surrounding culture the character of the Islam which resulted the sense of Muslim identity in the area and the issues which might have emerged as a result The gathered material is grouped geographically with an attempt to include as many individual countries as possible within each area while also paying attention to each of the above criteria An initial selection of articles on world Islam the process and means of the spread of Islam in general and some consideration of what it means to talk about the presence of Islam in the world and a survey of the general diversity of characteristics of Islam serves as an introductory section to the volumes Additional groupings are geographical and include South Asia South East Asia Australia and islands of the Pacific China countries of the former Soviet Union South Africa East Africa West Africa Europe North America Central and South America

The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities Paul Morris, William Shepard, Paul Trebilco, Toni Tidswell, 2013-11-26 Public interest in the religion of Islam and in Muslim communities in recent years has generated an impetus for Western Universities to establish an array of Institutes and programs dedicated to the study of Islam Despite the growth in number of programs dedicated to this study very little attention has been paid to the appropriate shape of such programs and the assumptions that ought to underlie such a study The Teaching and Study of Islam in Western Universities attempts to address two central questions that arise through the teaching of Islam Firstly what relation is there between the study of the religion of Islam and the study of those cultures that have been shaped by that religion Secondly what is the appropriate public role of a scholar of Islam After extensive discussion of these questions the authors then continue to address the wider issues raised for the academic community having to negotiate between competing cultural and philosophical demands This edited collection provides new perspectives on the study of Islam in Western Institutions and will be an invaluable resource for students of Education and Religion in particular Islamic Studies

Approaches to Islam in Religious Studies Charles J. Adams, 2001-03-26 Based on a symposium on the theme Islam and the History of Religions this important work features thoughtful essays on the study of Islam In essays organized around five themes in religious studies the scholars in this volume call for an increase in the attention given to Islam as part of religious studies and for greater clarity in our understanding both of Islam and of religion in terms of Islam Influential and powerful when first published in 1985 this text helped bring about the transition of Islamic studies from Orientalism and area studies to religious studies

Observing the Observer Zahid Bukhari,Sulayman Nyang,2012-01-01 THE collection of papers in this volume documents the study of Islam in American Universities Over the last few decades the United States has seen significant growth in the study of Islam and Islamic societies in institutions of higher learning fueled primarily by events including economic relations of the U S with Muslim countries migration of Muslims into the country conversion of Americans to Islam U S interests in Arab oil resources involvement of Muslims in the American public square and the tragic events of 9 11 Although there is increasing recognition that the study of Islam and the role of Muslims is strategically essential in a climate of global integration multiculturalism and political turmoil nevertheless the state of Islamic Studies in America is far from satisfactory The issue needs to be addressed particularly as the need for intelligent debate and understanding is continuously stifled by what some have termed an Islam industry run primarily by fly by journalists think tank pundits and cut and paste experts

Human Rights in Islamic Societies Ahmed E. Souaiaia,2021-05-10 This book compares Islamic and Western ideas of human rights in order to ascertain which human rights if any can be considered universal This is a profound topic with a rich history that is highly relevant within global politics and society today The arguments in this book are formed by bringing William Talbott's Which Rights Should Be Universal 2005 and Abdulaziz Sachedina's Islam and the Challenge of Human Rights 2014 into conversation By bridging the gap between cultural relativists and moral universalists this book seeks to offer a new model for the understanding of human rights It contends that human rights abuses are outcomes of complex systems by design and or by default Therefore it proposes that a rigorous systems thinking approach will contribute to addressing the challenge of human rights Engaging with Islamic and Western historical and contemporary and relativist and universalist thought this book is a fresh take on a perennially important issue As such it will be a first rate resource for any scholars working in religious studies Islamic studies Middle East studies ethics sociology and law and religion Studies on Islam Merlin L. Swartz,1981 Muslim Studies, Vol. 1 Ignác Goldziher,1967-01-01 This is the first volume of Goldziher s Muslim Studies which ranks highly among the classics of the scholarly literature on Islam Indeed the two volumes originally published in German in 1889 1890 can justly be counted among those which laid the foundations of the modern study of Islam as a religion and a civilization The first study deals with the reaction of Islam to the ideals of Arab tribal society to the attitudes of early Islam to the various nationalities and more especially the Persians and culminates in the chapter on the Shu ubiyya movement which represents the reaction of the newly converted peoples and again more especially of the Persians to the idea of Arab superiority The second essay is the famous study on the development of the Hadith the Traditions ascribed to Muhammed in which the Hadith is shown to reflect the various trends of early Islam and in which its collection and the subsequent literature devoted to it is described Goldziher s name is mainly associated with the critical study of the Hadith of which this essay is the chief monument The third essay is about the cult of saints which though contrary to the spirit and the letter of the earliest Islam played such an important part in its subsequent development These essays with the author s marvelous richness of information profound historical sense and sympathetic insight into the motive forces of religion and civilization are today as fresh as at the time of their original publication and are indispensable for all students of Islam The editor S M Stern has brought the annotation up to date by completing whenever necessary the references by making relevant additions and by indicating the most important later literature dealing with the subjects treated in the studies Studies on Islam ,1974
