Studies on Voltaire and the Eighteenth Century ,1981      Studies on Voltaire and the Eighteenth Century ,1982

Boulainvilliers and the French Monarchy Harold A. Ellis,2019-05-15 Suspicious of the French monarchy and scornful of the new elites that served it Henri de Boulainvilliers 1658 1722 has been considered one of the Old Regime s paradigmatic aristocratic reactionaries a founder of modern racist theory Some scholars however have admired his constitutionalism and judged him a progenitor of an enlightened aristocratic liberalism now commonly held to have been a major force in shaping the ideology of the French Revolution In a close contextual study of the writings of this enigmatic pivotal thinker Harold A Ellis persuasively rethinks both images of Boulainvilliers finding him a controversialist who interpreted French history as a self consciously political writer seeking to address an emergent political public      Jean-Jacques Rousseau: Human nature and history John T. Scott,2006 Bringing together critical assessments of the broad range of Rousseau s thought with a particular emphasis on his political theory this systematic collection is an essential resource for both student and scholar

The Jewish Eighteenth Century, Volume 2 Shmuel Feiner,2023-03-07 The second volume of Shmuel Feiner s The Jewish Eighteenth Century covers the period from 1750 to 1800 a time of even greater upheavals tensions and challenges The changes that began to emerge at the beginning of the eighteenth century matured in the second half Feiner explores how political considerations of the Jewish minority throughout Europe began to expand From the Jew Bill of 1753 in Britain to the surprising series of decrees issued by Joseph II of Austria that expanded tolerance in Austria to the debate over emancipation in revolutionary France the lives of the Jews of Europe became ever more intertwined with the political social economic and cultural fabric of the continent The Jewish Eighteenth Century Volume 2 A European Biography 1750 1800 concludes Feiner s landmark study of the history of Jewish populations in the period By combining an examination of the broad and profound processes that changed the familiar world from the ground up with personal experiences of those who lived through them it allows for a unique explanation of these momentous events      Translations of the Sublime Caroline A. van Eck,2012-09-28

Contrary to widely held assumptions the early modern revival of ps Longinus On the Sublime did not begin with the adaptation published by Boileau in 1674 it was not connected solely with the Greek editions that began to appear from 1554 nor was its impact limited to rhetoric and literature Manuscript copies began to circulate in Quattrocento Italy but very few have been studied Neither have the ways the sublime was used in rhetoric and literature but also in the arts architecture and the theatre been studied in any systematic way The present volume is a first attempt to chart the early modern translations of Peri hupsous both in the literal sense of the history of its dissemination by means of editions versions and translations in Latin and vernacular languages but also in the figurative sense of its uses and transformations in the visual arts in the period from the first early modern editions of Longinus until its popularization by Boileau Contributors include Francis Goyet Hana Gr ndler Lydia Hamlett Sigrid de Jong Helen Langdon Bram Van Oostveldt Eugenio Refini Paul Smith and Dietmar Till

The Enterprise of Enlightenment Terry Pratt, David McCallam, 2004 Published on the occasion of his retirement in honour of his outstanding contribution to French Enlightenment studies this volume explores those areas of research in which David Williams has excelled and continues to excel literary criticism particularly Voltaire the history of ideas women and Enlightenment colonial practices and revolutionary politics It brings together a collection of essays from some of the most prestigious international names in the field and tackles subjects which expose in all their splendid diversity the enterprise both innovation and undertaking of the Si cle des Lumi res

A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V4 18th C Supplement Richard A. Brooks, The Catholic Reformation Michael A. Mullett, 2023-03-08 The Catholic Reformation 1999 provides a dynamic and original history of this crucial movement in early modern Europe Starting from the late middle ages it clearly traces the continuous transformation of Catholicism in its structure bodies and doctrine Charting the gain in momentum of Catholic renewal from the time of the Council of Trent it also considers the ambiguous effect of the Protestant Reformation in accelerating the renovation of the Catholic Church It explores how and why the Catholic Reformation occurred stressing that many moves towards restoration were underway well before the Protestant Reformation The huge impact the Catholic renewal had not only on the papacy Church leaders and religious ritual and practice but also on the lives of ordinary people their culture arts attitudes and relationships is shown in colourful detail

Rousseau and Liberty Robert Wokler, 1995 Rousseau is considered to be at once the most modern political thinker of the 18th century and the most ancient in his allegiance to classical republicanism These essays address the place of liberty in his moral and political philosophy and the origins meaning strength weakness and significance of his argument

A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V4 18th C , Threads and Traces Carlo Ginzburg, 2012-01-09 Carlo Ginzburg s brilliant and timely new essay collection takes a bold stand against naive positivism and allegedly sophisticated neo skepticism It looks deeply into questions raised by decades of post structuralism What constitutes historical truth How do we draw a boundary between truth and fiction What is the relationship between history and memory How do we grapple with the historical conventions that inform in different ways all written documents In his answers Ginzburg peels away layers of subsequent readings and interpretations that envelop every text to make a larger argument about history and fiction Interwoven with compelling autobiographical references Threads and Traces bears moving witness to Ginzburg s life as a European Jew the abiding strength of his scholarship and his deep engagement with the historian s craft

Opera in Context Mark A. Radice, 1998 These essays by respected scholars examine representative operatic productions from diverse national schools and periods together forming a comprehensive history of the staging techniques of opera over the centuries

Sexual Underworlds of the Enlightenment George Sebastian Rousseau, Roy Porter, 1987 De onderkant van Verlichting en tolerantie homo sexualiteit pornografie e d o a over Fanny Hill in de sociaal politieke context van de Britse 18e eeuw De relevante artikelen zijn afzonderlijk ontsloten

Public Access to Art in Paris: A Documentary History from the Middle Ages to 1800 , 1999

The Enlightenment Qur'an Ziad Elmarsafy, 2014-10-01 Iconoclastic and fiercely rational the European Enlightenment witnessed the birth of modern Western society and thought Reason was sacrosanct and for the first time religious belief and institutions were open to widespread criticism In this groundbreaking book Ziad Elmarsafy challenges this accepted wisdom to argue that religion was still hugely influential in the era But the religion in question wasn't Christianity it was Islam Charting the history of Qur'anic translations in Europe during the 18th and early 19th Centuries Elmarsafy shows that a number of key enlightenment figures including Voltaire Rousseau Goethe and Napoleon drew both inspiration and ideas from the Qur'an Controversially placing Islam at the heart of the European Enlightenment this lucid and well argued work is a valuable window into the interaction of East and West during this pivotal epoch in human history The Seven Years War in Europe Franz A.J. Szabo, 2013-11-05 In this pioneering new work based on a thorough re-reading of primary sources and new research in the Austrian State Archives Franz Szabo presents a fascinating reassessment of the continental war Professor Szabo challenges the well established myth that the Seven Years War was won through the military skill and tenacity of the King of Prussia often styled Frederick the Great Instead he argues that Prussia did not win but merely survived the Seven Years War and did so despite and not because of the actions and decisions of its king With balanced attention to all the major participants and to all conflict zones on the European continent the book describes the strategies and tactics of the military leaders on all sides analyzes the major battles of the war and illuminates the diplomatic political and financial aspects of the conflict Liberalism with Honor Sharon R. Krause, 2002-04-15 Why do men and women sometimes risk everything to defend their liberties What motivates principled opposition to the abuse of power In Liberalism with Honor Sharon Krause explores honor as a motive for risky and difficult forms of political action She shows the sense of honor to be an important source of such action and a spring of individual agency more generally Krause traces the genealogy of honor including its ties to conscientious objection and civil disobedience beginning in old regime France and culminating in the American civil rights movement She examines the dangers intrinsic to honor and the tensions between honor and modern democracy but demonstrates that the sense of honor has supported political agency in the United States from the founders to democratic reformers such as Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Martin Luther King Jr Honor continues to hold interest and importance today because it combines self concern and personal ambition with principled higher purposes and so challenges the disabling dichotomy between self interest and self sacrifice that currently pervades both political theory and American public life Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other Marianne Moyaert, 2024-01-31 Explores how Christians created used and adapted religionized categories of non Christians through the centuries Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other traces the genealogy of religionization the various ways Christians throughout history have created a sense of religious normativity while simultaneously producing various categories of non Christian otherness Covering a broad expanse of processes practices and socio political contexts this innovative volume analyzes the complex intersections of patterns of religionization in different eras while investigating their entanglements with racialization sexualization and ethnicization With a readable and accessible style Marianne Moyaert offers a nuanced and well balanced critical analysis of how and why Christianity's others were named categorized essentialized and governed by those exemplifying Christian normativity in Western European society The author takes a longue durée approach a long term perspective on history that extends past human memory and the archaeological record that integrates different case studies and a variety of ecclesial theological and literary documents Throughout the text Moyaert demonstrates how religionization shaped the ways Christians classified people organized Christian societies interacted with different Christian and non Christian groups and more Surveys the relationship between shifts in Christian normativity and the way non Christians are imagined Helps readers connect the lasting effects of patterns of religionization with their everyday experiences Discusses the role of Christian expansion in the differential and unequal treatment of Christianity's others Examines legal regulations and disciplinary practices that were established to define the boundaries between Christians and non Christians Incorporates a wide range of scholarly resources cutting edge research and the most recent insights and issues in the field Includes textboxes with helpful summaries illustrations and commentary in each chapter

Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other A History of Religionization is an excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in interreligious studies comparative theology theological approaches to religious diversity Christian Jewish Muslim relations race and religion and theorizing religion Professor Moyaert is one of the world's best scholars of comparative theology In this magisterial new work she helps scholars of religion to better learn how religious images whether drawn with pictures or words are crucial to how we understand ourselves and each other Amir Hussain President American Academy of Religion Breathtaking in scope and detail Moyaert offers an original history of the ways Christians have projected distorted images of their religious others with devastating material consequences Her illuminating story of the past is a searchlight for our present Jeannine Hill Fletcher Professor of Theology Fordham University

Christian Imaginations is a superb study of the role that Western political programs play in the historical construction of identity boundaries Analytically erudite and socially committed Moyaert's book powerfully interrogates what counts as religion making this text a must read for anyone interested in interreligious studies Santiago Slabodsky Florence and Robert Kaufman Professor in Jewish Studies Hofstra University Raising the historical formation of religious identities to the level of contemporary treatments of gender and racialization Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other is essential reading for students of religion Michelle Voss Professor of Theology and Past Principal Emmanuel College of Victoria University in the University of Toronto Crafting a Western European mosaic of religionization's turbulent history Moyaert unveils how religious identities are constructed hierarchies function and their relevance for engaging diverse societies today worldwide Hans Gustafson Adjunct Professor of Theology University of St Thomas

Architecture, Print Culture and the Public Sphere in Eighteenth-Century France Richard Wittman, 2007 This book focuses on the complex ways in which architectural practice theory patronage and experience became modern with the rise of a mass public and a reconfigured public sphere between the end of the seventeenth century and the French Revolution Presenting a fresh theoretical orientation and a large body of new primary research this book offers a new cultural history of virtually all the major monuments of eighteenth century Parisian architecture with detailed analyses of the public debates that erupted around such Parisian monuments as the east facade of the Louvre the Place Louis XV the Place de la Concorde and the church of Sainte Genevieve the Pantheon Depicting the passage of architecture into a mediatized public culture as a turning point and interrogating it as a symptom of the distinctly modern configuration of individual society and space that emerged during this period this study will interest readers well beyond the discipline of architectural history
