and sell with the best of them Bible Review ,2002 The Boston Globe Index ,2002 Stolen Fragments Roberta Mazza,2024-09-24 In 2012 Steve Green billionaire and president of the Hobby Lobby chain of craft stores announced a recent purchase of a Biblical artefact a fragment of papyrus just discovered carrying lines from Paul s letter to the Romans and dated to the second century CE Noted scholar Roberta Mazza was stunned When was this piece discovered and how could Green acquire such a rare item The answers which Mazza spent the next ten years uncovering came as a shock the fragment had come from a famous collection held at Oxford University and its rightful owners had no idea it had been sold The letter to the Romans was not the only extraordinary piece in the Green collection They soon announced newly recovered fragments from the Gospels and writings of Sappho Mazza s quest to confirm the provenance of these priceless fragments revealed shadowy global networks that make big business of ancient manuscripts from the Greens Museum of the Bible and world famous auction houses like Sotheby s and Christie s to antique shops in Jerusalem and Istanbul dealers on eBay and into the collections of renowned museums and universities Mazza s investigation forces us to ask what happens when the supposed custodians of our ancient heritage act in ways that threaten to destroy it Stolen Fragments illuminates how these recent dealings are not isolated events but the inevitable result of longstanding colonial practices and the outcome of generations of scholars who have profited from extracting the cultural heritage of places they claim they wish to preserve Where is the boundary between protection and exploitation between scholarship and larceny Post-Modern Pilgrims Leonard Sweet,2000-07-15 There is a legend of a Welsh Prince Madoc whose ship became stuck in Chesapeake Bay After trying unsuccessfully to escape he had his men row out with the anchor drop it as far into the sea as they could and then the ship winched its way forward The image of the church as a boat and tradition as an anchor is prevalent in Christian art If we examine the biblical view of an anchor we find like Prince Madoc we are to cast our anchor into the future and pull the church forward Postmodern pilgrims must strive to keep the past and the future in perpetual conversation so every generation will find a fresh expression of the Gospel that is anchored solidly to the faith that was once for all delivered analyzes examples that recontextualize elements from the actual or imagined biblical past Section II The Power of Nature turns to the natural world associated with Christian scripture and how it is mobilized as a privileged media Section III Choreographing Experience examines lived interactions with the affordances of materializing the Bible Bielo argues that materializing the Bible works as an authorizing practice to intensify intimacies with scripture and circulate potent ideologies Performed through the sensory experience of bodies physical technologies and infrastructures of place Bielo illustrates how this phenomenon is always ultimately about expressions of power American Book Publishing Record ,2003
