The Return of Nature John Bellamy Foster, 2021-06-01 Winner 2020 Isaac and Tamara Deutscher Memorial Prize A fascinating reinterpretation of the radical and socialist origins of ecology Twenty years ago John Bellamy Foster s Marx s Ecology Materialism and Nature introduced a new understanding of Karl Marx s revolutionary ecological materialism More than simply a study of Marx it commenced an intellectual and social history encompassing thinkers from Epicurus to Darwin who developed materialist and ecological ideas Now with The Return of Nature Socialism and Ecology Foster continues this narrative In so doing he uncovers a long history of the efforts to unite questions of social justice and environmental sustainability and helps us comprehend and counter today s unprecedented planetary emergencies The Return of Nature begins with the deaths of Darwin 1882 and Marx 1883 and moves on until the rise of the ecological age in the 1960s and 1970s Foster explores how socialist analysts and materialist scientists of various stamps first in Britain then the United States from William Morris and Frederick Engels to Joseph Needham Rachel Carson and Stephen J Gould sought to develop a dialectical naturalism rooted in a critique of capitalism In the process he delivers a far reaching and fascinating reinterpretation of the radical and socialist origins of ecology Ultimately what this book asks for is nothing short of revolution a long ecological revolution aimed at making peace with the planet while meeting collective human needs philosophers historians of science and natural scientists With a new afterword by the author Studies and Further Studies in a dying culture Christopher Saint John Sprigg, 1971 What Shall I Read Next? F. Seymour Smith, 1953-01-02 Originally published in 1953 What Shall I Read Next lists nearly 2000 works published after 1900 with the compiler's own appreciatory comments on selected items It was a companion volume to Mr Seymour Smith's English Library Both books are published on behalf of the National Book League In his introduction explaining the scope and purpose of the book Mr Seymour Smith wrote Some will find it useful merely as a shopping list reminding them of books they know something about already and serving as a remembrancer To others and particularly to younger readers it may introduce books which have so far escaped their notice It is hoped too that for booksellers and librarians it will have a practical use as a desk book for answering enquiries for serving as a check list for stock and for use as a reference book when memory fails Culture and Society, 1780-1950 Raymond Williams, 1983 The romantic artist Mill on bentham and coleridge Thomas carlyle The industrial novels J H Newman and Matthew Arnold Art and society Interregnum Twentieth century opinions Rewriting the Thirties Keith Williams, Steven Matthews, 2014-09-25 Rewriting the Thirties questions the myth of the anti modernist decade Conversely the editors argue it is a symptomatic transitional phase between modern and post modern writing and politics at a time of cultural and technological change The text reconsiders some of the leading writers of the period in the light of recent theoretical developments through essays on the ambivalent assimilation of Modernist influences among proletarian and canonical novelists including James Barke and George Orwell and among poets including Auden MacNeice Swingler and Bunting and in the work of feminist writers Vera Brittain and Winifred Holtby In this substantial remapping the complexity and scope of literary critical debate at the time is discussed in relation to theatrical innovation audience attitudes to the mass medium of modernity cinema the poetics of suburbia consumerism and national ideology as well as the discursive strategies of British and American documentarism The Reader's Construction of Narrative Horst Ruthrof, 2016-08-19 In this book first published in 1981 the author argues that narrative is an interaction between the presented world and the presentational process and attempts to define narrative from the perspective of reading The Reader's Construction of Narrative includes chapters on narrative language translating narrative and discusses what happens when we read a narrative text This book will be of particular interest to students of literary theory Writing Revolution: Representation, Rhetoric, and Revolutionary Politics Sheila Delany, 2023-09-20 Revolutionary and writer how do they fit together in one person's work Using literary texts from French German Russian and American pro revolutionary writers Sheila Delany examines the synergy of politics and rhetoric art and social commitment The writers she considers gave voice to the hopes of their time Some led the events in person as well as through their writing others worked to build a movement Marx Engels Lenin Trotsky Luxemburg Mao Sylvain Mar chal Boris Lavrenov Bertolt Brecht and others are here consummate rhetoricians all not necessarily on the same page politically but for the revolutions of their day The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Five Faces of Modernity Matei Călinescu, 1987 This ambitious and illuminating book offers an analysis of nothing less than the aesthetic and intellectual ideas which have governed literary production during the past 150 years Marx's

Ecology John Bellamy Foster, 2000-03 By reconstructing a materialist conception of nature and society Marx's Ecology challenges the spiritualism prevalent in the modern Green movement pointing toward a method that offers more lasting sustainable solutions to the ecological crisis

Art and Form Sam Rose, 2019-03-25 This important new study reevaluates British art writing and the rise of formalism in the visual arts from 1900 to 1939 Taking Roger Fry as his starting point Sam Rose rethinks how ideas about form influenced modernist culture and the movement's significance to art history today In the context of modernism formalist critics are often thought to be interested in art rather than life a stance exemplified in their support for abstract works that exclude the world outside But through careful attention to early twentieth century connoisseurship aesthetics art education design and art in colonial Nigeria and India Rose builds an expanded account of form based on its engagement with the social world Art and Form thus opens discussions on a range of urgent topics in art writing from its history and the constructions of high and low culture to the idea of global modernism Rose demonstrates the true breadth of formalism and shows how it lends a new richness to thought about art and visual culture in the early to mid twentieth century Accessibly written and analytically sophisticated Art and Form opens exciting new paths of inquiry into the meaning and lasting importance of formalism and its ties to modernism It will be invaluable for scholars and enthusiasts of art history and visual culture Popular Culture Tony Bennett, Graham Martin, Bernard Waites, 2013-12-16 This book surveys popular culture in Britain from the early nineteenth century to the present Towards a Science of Belief Systems E. Griffiths, 2014-09-29 People believe in a great many things and yet most of us know almost nothing about why other people believe what they do or indeed about how it feels to believe it This book presents an objective method for understanding and comparing belief systems irrespective of whether the investigator happens to agree with them
