Studies In Babi And Bahai History:

Studies in Babi and Baha'i History Moojan Momen, 2006 This is the first collection of scholarly essays on the history of the Bah Faith to be published as a book Included are the works of five scholars who have conducted original research on specific aspects of the B b and Bah religions Two essays are concerned with Bah history in Iran Denis MacEoin's provocative paper traces the first years of interaction and conflict between the Shaykh School and the emerging B b Movement Moojan Momen provides a fascinating account of the relations of Christian missionaries in Iran with B b s and Bah s The three remaining essays discuss American Bah history Peter Smith's comprehensive survey of the American community from 1894 to 1917 adds substantially to our knowledge of that period William Collins offers an in depth study of the Bah s of Kenosha Wisconsin where one of the first Bah communities was established Finally Loni Bramson Lerche examines the development of Bah administrative procedures from 1922 to 1936 This is the first volume in the Studies Series and remains a classic work of Bah history It is a basic text for any study of the history of the Bah Faith Comments about the series include The series demonstrates both that a critical mass of young scholars interested in these movements have formed that the Baha i community in the U S can now support academic books on the religion British Society for Middle Eastern Studies Bulletin much more work needs to be done on Baha i history in Iran that process is now underway this collection carries it further Middle East Journal There is a mass of information here that could be used in more comparative or theoretically oriented studies Iranian Studies a fascinating volume which offers much new information on the development of a modern faith Religious Studies Review This volume is well worth reading by anyone seriously interested in religion in modern Iran British Society for Middle Eastern Studies Bulletin Studies in Babi and Bahai History Peter Smith, 1986-11-01 The Baha'i Faith in America William Garlington, 2008-02-05 The Baha i Faith in America provides an engaging and accessible overview of one of the world's youngest and fastest growing religions William Garlington explores the principles of the Baha i faith and traces the historical development Baha i faith both worldwide and in the US Studies in Babi and Baha'i History Peter Smith, 1986 The Messiah of Shiraz Denis MacEoin, 2009 Based throughout on original Persian and Arabic sources most in manuscript this is an exhaustive overview of Babi history and doctrine Alongside Amanat's Resurrection and Renewal this distillation of a lifetime's work on the movement brings Babi studies into the twentieth century Studies in Bábí and Bahá'í History: no special title Moojan Momen, 1982 Modernity and the Millennium Juan Ricardo Cole, 1998 Includes bibliographical references and index Bahá'is in the West Peter Smith, 2004 Nationalism and Minority Identities in Islamic Societies Maya Shatzmiller, 2005-04-29 The essays focus on identity formation in five minority groups Copts in Egypt Baha is and Christians in Pakistan Berbers in Algeria and Morocco and Kurds in Turkey and Iraq While every minority community is distinctive the experiences of these groups show that a state's authoritarian rule uncompromising attitude towards expressions of particularism and failure to offer tools for inclusion are all responsible for the politicization and radicalization of minority identities The place of Islam in this process is complex while its initial pluralistic role was transformed through the creation of the modern nation state the radicalization of society in turn radicalized and politicized minority identities Minority groups though at times possessing a measure of political autonomy remain intensely vulnerable

The Forgotten Schools Soli Shahvar, 2009-09-30 By the end of the nineteenth century it became evident to Iran's ruling Qajar elite that the state's contribution to the promotion of modern education in the country was unable to meet the growing expectations set by Iranian society Muzaffar al Din Shah sought to remedy this situation by permitting the entry of the private sector into the field of modern education and in 1899 the first Baha'i school was established in Tehran By the 1930s there were dozens of Baha'i schools Their high standards of education drew many non Baha'i students from all sections of society Here Soli Shahvar assesses these forgotten schools and investigates why they proved so popular not only with Baha'is but Zoroastrians Jews and especially Muslims Shahvar explains why they were closed by the reformist Reza Shah in the late 1930s and the subsequent fragility of the Baha'is position in Iran

Baha'i and Globalisation Annika Hvithamar, Margit Warburg, Morten Warmind, 2005-12-01 Globalisation has become a buzzword that typically refers to the intensifying integration of the world economy especially as midwived by technological advances It also implies a growing political and cultural sense that all humanity is globally interdependent There have always been individuals of course who have advocated such awareness one of them being the founder of the Baha'i faith who formulated a spiritual equivalent as the religion's central doctrine in the late 19th century Ye are the fruits of one tree and the leaves of one branch Its emphasis on global unification made Baha'i an obvious candidate for a case study on new religions and globalisation The chapters in this volume fall into two sections diachronic and synchronic The first part is organised chronologically beginning with the emergence of the globalist tendency in the messianic vision of Babism the precursor to Baha'i and concluding with an analytic history of its leaders changing attitudes to international politics The second part considers a variety of global themes in contemporary Baha'i practice including global thought in Baha'i writings the impact of the internet and the triumphalist and secular strains in Baha'i identity Though five million members make it one of the world's most successful new religions Baha'i has attracted little scholarly attention Most of the academics concentrating on Baha'i have contributed to this volume which will appeal not only to students of modern religious movements but to anyone interested in the ways religions can adapt to and embrace the modern world

Religion and Women Arvind Sharma, 2015-09-21 This book discusses the position of women in the Native American African Shinto Jaina Zoroastrian Sikh and Baha'i faiths for the first time in a single volume and evolves a conceptual framework within which their positions could be comprehensively considered The contributing scholars provide an enlarged database for a more thorough discussion of the questions pertaining to women and religion in general and simultaneously advance the theoretical frontiers in women's studies Religion and Women belongs to a trilogy about women and world religions edited by Arvind Sharma the first and third volumes being respectively Women in World Religions and Today's Woman in World Religions Representing the Unpresentable Negar Mottahedeh, 2008-02-26 In this pioneering book Negar Mottahedeh explores the central issues of vision and visibility in Iranian culture. She focuses on historical and literary texts to understand the use of visual culture and performance traditions in the production of the contemporary nation. Tracing the historical mediation and dissemination of ideas for national reform in the modern period of Iran, the book examines the various discourses that have constituted the image of the unpresentable Babi as the figure of Iran's Other. In her exploration of gender and Iranian cinema, the author powerfully argues that this unpresentable image continues to haunt contemporary Iranian cinema's representations of the nation. As cinema began to displace other forms of representation in Iran, Islamic culture attempted to keep the motion picture industry free from what it perceived to be the taint of foreign values and intervention. With insight and detail, Mottahedeh looks at the revealing ways in which contemporary Iranian cinema has dealt with representing an unpresentable national modernity articulated through traversals in time and space. These deeply national tropes of traversal shaped the image of the Babi against which nineteenth-century Iran produced its own modernity. This highly original work, signaling a paradigmatic shift in Iranian studies and gender studies, will be an invaluable resource for scholars in cultural Iranian or film studies.

The Baha'i Faith in Africa Anthony Lee, 2011-10-28 In 1952 there were probably fewer than 200 Baha'is in all of Africa. Today the Baha'i community claims one million followers on the continent. Yet the Baha'i presence in Africa has been all but ignored in academic studies up to now. This is the first monograph that addresses the establishment of this New Religious Movement in Africa. Discovering an African presence at the genesis of the religion in Iran, this study seeks to explain why the movement found an appeal in colonial Africa during the 1950s and early 1960. It also explores how the Baha'i faith was influenced and Africanized by its new converts. Finally, the book seeks to make sense of the diverse and contradictory American, Iranian, British, and African elements that established a new religion in Africa.

From Iran East and West Juan Ricardo Cole, Moojan Momen, 1984 Gnostic Apocalypse and Islam Todd Lawson, 2012-03-12 Of the several works on the rise and development of the Babi movement, especially those dealing with the life and work of its founder Sayyid Ali Muhammad Shirazi, few deal directly with the compelling and complex web of mysticism, theology, and philosophy found in his earliest compositions. This book examines the Islamic roots of the Babi religion and, by extension, the later Baha'i faith, which developed out of it through the Qur'anic commentaries of the Bab and sheds light on its relationship to the wider religious milieu and its profound debt to esoteric Islam, especially Shi'ism. Todd Lawson places the two earliest writings of the Bab within the diverse contexts necessary to understand them in order to explain why these writings made sense to and inspired his followers. He delves into the history of the tafsir Qur'an commentary genre of Islamic scholarship, situates these early writings in the Akhbari, Sufi, and most importantly, Shaykhi traditions of Islam. In the process, he identifies both the continuities and discontinuities between these works and earlier works of Shi'i tafsir, helping us appreciate significant elements of the Bab's thought and claims. Filling an important gap in the existing literature on the Babi movement this book will be of greatest interest to students and scholars of Qur'an commentary, Mysticism, Shi'ism, the modern history of Iran, and messianism. Islam and the Baha'i Faith Oliver Scharbrodt, 2008-04-25 This book explores the development of Islam and the Baha'i faith in the nineteenth century via the examination of two key reformers. Exploring the Kitáb-i-Aqdas Omid Ghaemmaghami, Shahin Vafai, 2025-01-23 The Kitáb-i-Aqdas is considered the most important and sacred text of the Bahá'í Faith, a religion with some eight million adherents found in nearly every country of the world. It sets out the laws, teachings, and institutions that shape and influence individual and collective life for members of the Bahá'í community. Despite the Kitáb-i-Aqdas's significance, it has not been extensively researched. Exploring the Kitáb-i-Aqdas: The Laws and Teachings of the Bahá'í Faith now offers a comprehensive academic study of the text. This important new publication explores and analyzes the significance and history of the Kitáb-i-Aqdas, its language, style, and translation, and its theological and spiritual foundations, including its conceptions of God, religion, and human beings. The book moreover examines the Kitáb-i-Aqdas's provisions for succession, interpretation, and administration within the Bahá'í religion, its devotional and other personal laws, its ordinances for promoting unity, its perspectives on justice and law, and its addresses to the world's political and religious leaders. Academically rigorous yet eminently clear and accessible, Exploring the Kitáb-i-Aqdas is an essential read for students of religion and Middle East studies. Millennialism, Millerites, and Prophecy in Bahá'í Discourse William P. Collins, 2025-09-22 This book explores the role of millennialism, the Millerites, and prophecy in the historical development of the Bahá'í faith, especially in North America. The author demonstrates the importance of the Bahá'í religion to millennialism studies and its connection to certain Protestant, American, and Shia Islamic modes of thought. Bahá'ís see two millennial visions on far-separated continents within different religious milieus and from contrasting social climates, as spiritually and prophetically linked: the Millerites who expected the return of Christ in 1844 CE and Shia Muslims who expected the Mahdī (Qaim Twelfth Imam) in 1260 AH (1844 CE). The chapters in this volume reflect on theories about millennialist movements, the continuum from catastrophic to progressive millennialism, Bahá'í interpretations of biblical prophecy, and Bahá'í efforts to build the Kingdom of God on earth under a systematic divine plan. The book highlights the maturation of the Bahá'í community toward a focus on process and a capacity to deal with both catastrophe and progress. It provides scholars of religion with a detailed study of the trajectory in Bahá'í millennial ideas. A Concise Encyclopedia of the Baha'i Faith Peter Smith, 2013-10-01 Written by a well-known author in the field of Baha'i studies, this is a comprehensive and accessible encyclopedia to the youngest of the world religions. Regarded as the second most widespread faith after Christianity, with adherents in almost every country around the globe, the Baha'i faith is nevertheless unfamiliar to many here. Dr. Smith traces the origins and development of the religion from 19th-century Iran to the modern day, introducing its central figures and major historical events, combining breadth with a readable yet concise style. He provides a balanced overview of Baha'i scriptures, doctrines, and practices, social teachings, and organization. This reference work presents a clear and knowledgeable view of a fascinating new religion
