Studies in European Realism Professor Georg Lukacs, György Lukács, 1999-06-01 Studies in European Realism. With an Introd. by Alfred Kazin György Lukács, 1964 Georg Lukács Judith Marcus, Zoltán Tarr, 1989-01-01 The Hungarian social philosopher and literary critic Georg Lukács 1885 1971 is one of the seminal intellectual figures of the twentieth century With the possible exception of Leon Trotsky he is also widely recognized as the outstanding Marxist thinker aside from Marx himself Yet as Lewis Coser has observed Lukács has remained the most enigmatic figure of the modern communist movement Why were his theories so important to modern political and social thought How did he come to have such influence on so many distinguished Western Intellectuals and for such a long time And why despite this did so many of his writings infuriate contemporary readers and critics The centenary of Lukács birth was celebrated in 1985 with symposia in a number of countries on several continents Hundreds of Lukács scholars and students attended along with others who were interested in his time and his ideas as well as the man and his work In the process new understanding of some of his most controversial concepts ideas and theses emerged Newly discovered information and writings as well as previously unknown preoccupations in his seventy year intellectual career were shared This volume brings together some of the best and most original of the essays of participants in New York Paris Budapest and Mexico City Some of the contributions in this volume are sharply critical of Lukács others are clearly admiring A great many take an objective but severe look at diverse aspects of his work Together they constitute a close examination of the life work of the man Thomas Mann once called The most important literary critic of today Jean Paul Sartre hailed as a significant modern philosopher and Irving Howe declared a major force in European intellectual life Collectively this volume shows why Georg Lukács remains one of the remarkable intellectual figures of the twentieth century whose work is of enduring significance for us today Judith Marcus is on the faculty of Kenyon College She is the author of Thomas Mann and Lukcs Zoltn Tarrwas visiting Fulbright Scholar to Budapest Hungary and has taught sociology and history at the City College of CUNY New School for Social Research and Rutgers University He is author of The Frankfurt School The Critical Theories of Max Horkheimer and Theodor W Adorno

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk,1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture

The Real Thing Terry Eagleton,2024-01-01 A clear sighted and entertaining defence of literary realism and an account of its key practitioners Realist fiction is one of the most enduring artforms history has ever witnessed By describing the intricate inner life of its characters or widening its focus to set their experience in context it can evoke the reader s sympathies as few other forms can Yet it is also by and large a product of the middle classes boldly individualist and fascinated by money property marriage and inheritance Can such realism survive in the postmodern age Acclaimed critic Terry Eagleton explores realism s complex history practice and politics Spanning several centuries and including writers such as George Eliot D H Lawrence and Iris Murdoch Eagleton offers a witty entertaining defence of a form which offers both panoramic scope and individual nuance in an increasingly fragmented world

The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman,2025-11-04 Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality Historically it has been practiced across different media

Hegel: A Guide for the Perplexed David James,2007-05-08 An invaluable student s guide to one of the most influential widely studied and notoriously difficult to understand of major Western philosophers

Art, Myth and Society in Hegel's Aesthetics David James,2011-11-03 Art Myth and Society in Hegel s Aesthetics returns to the student transcripts of Hegel s lectures on aesthetics which have yet to be translated into English and in some cases remain unpublished David James develops the idea that these transcripts show that Hegel was primarily interested in understanding art as an historical phenomenon and more specifically in terms of its role in the ethical life of various peoples This involves relating Hegel s aesthetics to his philosophies of right and history rather than to his logic or metaphysics The book thus offers a thorough re evaluation of Hegel s aesthetics and its relation to his theory of objective spirit exposing the ways in which Hegel s views on this subject are anchored in his reflections on history and on different forms of ethical life

Reading in Detail Naomi Schor,2013-10-18 Who cares about details As Naomi Schor explains in her highly influential book we do but it has not always been so The interest in detail in art in literature and as an aesthetic category is the product of the decline of classicism and the rise of realism But the story of the detail is as political as it is aesthetic Secularization the disciplining of society the rise of consumerism the invention of the quotidian have all brought detail to the fore In this classic work of aesthetic and feminist theory now available in a new paperback edition Schor provides ways of thinking about details and ornament in literature art and architecture and uncovering the unspoken but powerful ideologies that attached gender to details Wide ranging and richly argued Reading in Detailpresents ideas about reading and viewing that will enhance the study of literature and the arts

The Aesthetics and Politics of Global Hunger Anastasia Ulanowicz,Manisha Basu,2018-02-14 This collection investigates modern imperialist practices and their management of hunger through its punctuated distribution amongst asymmetrically related marginal populations Drawing on relevant material from Egypt Ireland India Ukraine and other regions of the globe The Aesthetics and Politics of Global Hunger is a rigorously comparative study made up of ten essays by well established scholars from universities around the world Since modernity we have been inhabitants of a globe increasingly connected through discourses of equal access for all humans to the resources of the planet but the volume emphasizes alongside this reality the flagrant politicization of those same resources From this emphasis the essays in the volume place into relief the idea that ideological and aesthetic discourses of hunger could inform ethical thinking and practices about who or what constitutes the figure of the modern historical human book develops a moral Marxist aesthetics based on the work of Georg Lukács, Lucien Goldmann and Herbert Marcuse and grounded in the aesthetic theories of German Idealist philosophers such as Hegel and Schiller. This moral aesthetics takes three forms. The first is social and historical realism as in Lukács and Goldmann. This is an aesthetics which fundamentally places the work of art within reality, particularly social and historical reality. The second aesthetics is utopian negation theory and the third is formalism. The book pays special attention to Lukács' concept of realistic historical novels which he develops through the analysis of historical novels by Walter Scott, Honoré de Balzac and Heinrich Mann. This theory of aesthetic realism is as the book argues grounded in Lukács' reading of Hegel. The book concludes by offering fresh interpretations of the moral basis of Goldmann's romantic realism in The Hidden God and Marcuse's emphasis on art as form and utopian negation of reality in The Aesthetic Dimension.
