Directions: Please imagine St. Patrick's angel as you write your own story in your own words.

St. Patrick's angel was a beautiful young man with long, wavy brown hair and a gentle smile. He wore a simple white tunic and a long, flowing white robe. His eyes were a deep blue, and he had a small, pointed ear of a fairy. He was always seen with a small, white, winged creature that looked like a fairy. The angel was very kind and helpful, and he always listened to St. Patrick's needs. One day, St. Patrick was in a great deal of trouble. He was being chased by a group of men who wanted to kill him. He was running through a dark, forested area, and he was very tired. He had been running for hours, and he was out of breath. He was looking for a place to hide, and he was very scared. Suddenly, he saw a small, white, winged creature flying towards him. It was the angel! The angel was very happy to see St. Patrick, and he immediately flew to his side. He told St. Patrick that he was safe, and that he would protect him. The angel then led St. Patrick to a small, white, stone building that was hidden in the forest. St. Patrick was very grateful to the angel, and he stayed there for a few days. The angel was very kind to him, and he always listened to his needs. St. Patrick was very happy to have the angel with him, and he knew that he was safe. The angel was a very special friend to St. Patrick, and he was always there for him. HISTORY Everyone knows of St Patrick but what do we know about him Simply that it was he who converted the Irish to Christianity The strange fact is that for two hundred years or so after his death although his name was remembered with respect everything else about him was forgotten

E A Thompson pieces together the story of his life drawing his evidence from the only real clues that exist Patrick's own writings not from the later Lives He reveals him as coming from a well to do nominally Christian family in Britain being captured by Irish raiders and forced into slavery in Co Mayo converting to a most earnest Christianity and eventually escaping from Ireland to the fulfilment of his calling As a bishop he is shown to have been a man of profound originality and his writings his Confession and his Letter to Coroticus further display his character It is no surprise that a host of legends became attached to his name and the biography is completed with a look at some of those early legends

Conversing with Angels and Ancients Joseph Falaky Nagy, 2018-09-05 How does a written literature come into being within an oral culture and how does such a literature achieve and maintain its authority Joseph Falaky Nagy addresses those issues in his wide ranging reading of the medieval literature of Ireland from the writings of St Patrick to the epic tales about the warrior C Chulainn These texts written in both Latin and Irish constitute an adventurous and productive experiment in staging confrontations between the written and the spoken the Christian and the pagan The early Irish literati primarily clerics living within a monastic milieu produced literature that included saints lives heroic sagas law tracts and other genres They sought to invest their literature with an authority different from that of the traditions from which they borrowed native and foreign To achieve this goal they cast many of their texts as the outcome of momentous dialogues between saints and angelic messengers or remarkable interviews with the dead who could reveal some insight from the past that needed to be rediscovered by forgetful contemporaries
