

SORCERY vs. WITCHCRAFT

Unveiling Mystical Practices

SORCERY

"Sorcery" involves the art, practices, or spells of an individual who is believed to wield supernatural powers, often with the assistance of evil spirits.

It is commonly associated with the use of black magic and is sometimes referred to as "witchery."

Sorcery implies the use of mystical forces for various purposes, which may include harmful or malevolent intentions.

WITCHCRAFT

"Witchcraft" refers to the art and practices associated with a witch, which can encompass spells, rituals, and magical activities.

Like sorcery, witchcraft is often linked to the use of magic and supernatural influence.

Witchcraft, however, does not inherently imply malevolence; it can encompass a wide range of practices, including healing, divination, and nature-based spirituality.

"Sorcery" is often associated with darker or malevolent intentions, while "witchcraft" is a broader term that encompasses a wide spectrum of magical practices, which may include both benevolent and malevolent elements.
