CHAPTER I A DELIGHTFUL MYSTERY

I think we are ready to start girls

Miss Elting folded the road map that she had been studying and placed it in a pocket of her long dust coat

There was a half smile on her face a merry twinkle in her eyes

Which way do I drive questioned Jane McCarthy

Straight ahead out of the village answered Miss Elting the guardian of the party of young girls who were embarking on their summer's vacation under somewhat unusual circumstances

It's the first time I ever started for a place without knowing what the place was or where I was going declared Jane McCarthy otherwise known as Crazy Jane

Won't you please tell us where we are going lisped Grace Thompson

Miss Elting shook her head with decision

Do my father and mother know where we are going persisted Grace

Of course they know Tommy

The parents of each of you know and I know and so shall you after you reach your destination

Have you everything in the car Jane

Everything but myself nodded Jane

The latter's automobile well loaded with camping equipment stood awaiting its passengers

The latter were Miss Elting Jane McCarthy Harriet Burrell Grace Thompson Hazel Holland and Margery Brown the party being otherwise known as The Meadow Brook Girls

Get in girls We'll shake the dust of Meadow Brook from our tires before you can count twenty continued Jane

If Crazy Jane were to drive through the town slowly folks surely would think something startling had happened to her

Is there anything you wish to do before we leave Miss Elting

Not that I think of at the moment Jane

Oh let's say good bye to our folks suggested Margery Brown

I have said good bye answered Grace with finality

We'll give them a farewell blast chuckled Jane

With that she climbed into the car and with a honk of the horn drove down that street and into the next keeping the horn going almost continually

As they passed the home of each girl the young women gave the yell of the Meadow Brook Girls

Rah rah rah Rah rah rah Meadow Brook Meadow Brook Sis boom ah

It was shouted in chorus at their homes and as the car passed the homes of their friends as well

Hands were waved from windows hats were swung in the air by boy friends while the older people smiled indulgently and nodded to them as the rapidly moving motor car passed through the village I think the town knows all about it now Suppose we make a start suggested Miss Elting We haven't threatened the potthunter yet Tommy reminded her Nor the butcher the baker and the candle stick maker answered Harriet Burrell laughingly How long a drive have we Miss Elting Four or five hours ordinarily Jane undoubtedly will make it in much less time if she drives at her usual rate of speed Straight south Jane I will tell you when to change The faces of the girls wore a puzzled expression They could not imagine where they were going Miss Elting had made a mystery of this summer vacation and not a word had the girls been able to obtain from her as to where they were to go whether to tour the country in Crazy Jane's automobile or to go into camp Tommy declared that it was a perfectly delightful mystery and that she didn't care where they were going while Margery on the contrary grumbled incessantly The start had been made late in the afternoon The day had been cloudy There were even indications of rain but the girls did not care They were too well inured to the weather to be disturbed by lowering skies and threatening clouds In the meantime Jane McCarthy was bowling along to the southward throwing up a cloud of dust having many narrow escapes from collisions with farmers wagons and wandering stock     The Story of Young George Washington Wayne Whipple, 1918     Table Talk, 1915
