War Department, 1856      Joint Report Upon the Survey and Demarcation of the Boundary Between the United States and Canada International Boundary Commission (United States and Canada) 1908-1931      Contagion and Enclaves Nandini Bhattacharya, 2012-11-20 Contagion and Enclaves studies the social history of medicine within two intersecting enclaves in colonial India the hill station of Darjeeling which incorporated the sanitarian and racial norms of the British Raj and in the adjacent tea plantations of North Bengal which produced tea for the global market      Records of the Geological Survey of India, 1885      An Account of the Measurement of Two Sections of the Meridional Arc of India Sir George Everest, 1847      The Transactions of the Bombay Geographical Society Bombay Geographical Society, 1850 List of members in v 1 2 9 10 15 18      Imperial Heights Eric T. Jennings, 2011-04-08 Intended as a reminder of Europe for soldiers and clerks of the empire the city of Dalat located in the hills of Southern Vietnam was built by the French in an alpine locale that reminded them of home This book uncovers the strange 100 year history of a colonial city that was conceived as a center of power and has now become a kitsch tourist destination famed for its colonial villas flower beds pristine lakes and pastoral landscapes Eric T Jennings finds that from its very beginning Dalat embodied the paradoxes of colonialism it was a city of leisure built on the backs of thousands of coolies a supposed paragon of hygiene that offered only questionable protection from disease and a new venture into ethnic relations that ultimately backfired Jennings fascinating history opens a new window onto virtually all aspects of French Indochina from architecture and urban planning to violence labor migration health and medicine gender and ethnic relations schooling religion comportments anxieties and more
