The History of al-Ṭabarī Vol. 8, 2015-06-15 This volume covers the history of the Muslim community and the biography of Mu ammad in the middle Medinan years It begins with the unsuccessful last Meccan attack on Medina known as the battle of the Trench Events following this battle show the gradual collapse of Meccan resistance to Islam The next year when Mu ammad set out on pilgrimage to Mecca the Meccans at first blocked the road but eventually a ten year truce was negotiated at al udaybiyah with Mu ammad agreeing to postpone his pilgrimage until the following year The Treaty of al udaybiyah was followed by a series of Muslim expeditions climaxing in the important conquest of Khaybar In the following year Mu ammad made the so called Pilgrimage of Fulfillment unopposed Al abar s account emphasizes Islam s expanding geographical horizon during this period Soon after the Treaty of al Hudaybiyah Mu ammad is said to have sent letters to six foreign rulers inviting them to become Muslims Another example of this expanding horizon was the unsuccessful expedition to Mu tah in Jordan Shortly afterward the Treaty of al udaybiyah broke down and Mu ammad marched on Mecca The Meccans capitulated and Mu ammad entered the city on his own terms He treated the city leniently and most of the Meccan oligarchy swore allegiance to him as Muslims Two events in the personal life of Mu ammad during this period caused controversy in the community Mu ammad fell in love with and married Zaynab bint Ja sh the divorced wife of his adopted son Zayd Because of Mu ammad s scruples the marriage took place only after a Qur anic revelation permitting believers to marry the divorced wives of their adopted sons In the Affair of the Lie accusations against Mu ammad s young wife ishah were exploited by various factions in the community and in Mu ammad s household In the end a Qur anic revelation proclaimed ishah s innocence and the culpability of the rumormongers This volume of al abar s History records the collapse of Meccan resistance to Islam the triumphant return of Mu ammad to his native city the conversion to Islam of the Meccan oligarchy and the community s successful weathering of a number of potentially embarrassing events in Mu ammad s private life

Messianism and Sociopolitical Revolution in Medieval Islam Said Amir Arjomand, 2022-10-25 This study of messianism and revolution examines an extremely rich though unexplored historical record on the rise of Islam and its sociopolitical revolutions from Muhammad s constitutive revolution in Arabia to the Abbasid revolution in the East and the Fatimid and Almohad revolutions in North Africa and the Maghreb Bringing the revolutions together in a comprehensive framework Sa d Amir Arjomand uses sociological theory as well as the critical tools of modern historiography to argue that a volatile but recurring combination of apocalyptic motivation and revolutionary action was a driving force of historical change time and again In addition to tracing these threads throughout 500 years of history Arjomand also establishes how messianic beliefs were rooted in the earlier Judaic and Manichaean notions of apocalyptic transformation of the world By bringing to light these linkages and factors not found in the dominant sources this text offers a sweeping account of the long arc of Islamic history the Islamic empire after his death between his sons was to lead subsequently to a disastrous civil war Nevertheless al Tabari's story is full of interesting sidelights on the lives of those involved in the court circle of the time and on the motivations which impelled medieval Muslims to seek precarious careers there A discounted price is available when purchasing the entire 39 volume History of al Tabari set Contact SUNY Press for more information The History of Al-Tabari Fred M. into sharp Muslim focus but it also synchronizes ancient Iranian ideas about the prehistory of mankind with those inspired by the Qur'an and the Bible. The volume is thus an excellent guide to the cosmological views of many of al-Bārī's contemporaries. The translator Franz Rosenthal, one of the world's foremost scholars of Arabic, has also written an extensive introduction to the volume that presents all the facts known about al-Bārī's personal and professional life. Professor Rosenthal's meticulous and original scholarship has yielded a valuable bibliography and chronology of al-Bārī's writings, both those preserved in manuscript and those alluded to by other authors. The introduction and first volume of the translation of the History form a ground-breaking contribution to Islamic historiography in English and will prove to be an invaluable source of information for those who are interested in Middle Eastern history but are unable to read the basic works in Arabic. Studia islamica, 1999.
