The History of al-Ṭabarī Vol. 1 Abū Jaʿfar Muḥammad ibn Jarīr al-Ṭabarī, 1988-01-01 Volume I of the thirty eight volume translation of abar s great History begins with the creation of the world and ends with the time of Noah and the Flood It not only brings a vast amount of speculation about the early history of mankind into sharp Muslim focus but it also synchronizes ancient Iranian ideas about the prehistory of mankind with those inspired by the Qur an and the Bible The volume is thus an excellent guide to the cosmological views of many of Abar's contemporaries. The translator Franz Rosenthal, one of the world's foremost scholars of Arabic, has also written an extensive introduction to the volume that presents all the facts known about Abar's personal and professional life. Professor Rosenthal's meticulous and original scholarship has yielded a valuable bibliography and chronology of Abar's writings, both those preserved in manuscript and those alluded to by other authors. The introduction and first volume of the translation of the History form a ground-breaking contribution to Islamic historiography in English and will prove to be an invaluable source of information for those who are interested in Middle Eastern history but are unable to read the basic works in Arabic.
