Lowry, 1980 Arts and Preaching Sunggu A. Yang, 2021-09-03 In our highly sensory and interactive age how might drawing upon various arts music film architecture dramatic performance painting fashion and more expand the aesthetic experience and mode of preaching This book presents a critical practical answer to the question As our society becomes more visually oriented art seeking and body positive the practice of preaching is likewise challenged to demonstrate the mind body word visual and artistic proclamation of the Sacred after all isn't the writing of the Bible itself highly art full and aesthetic In this book Sunggu A Yang a seasoned preacher and experienced teacher of preaching encourages preachers to utilize their unique artistic talents as critical sources of theological and homiletical imagination and as hermeneutical perspectival tools to aid their rigorous exegetical process of interpreting Scripture eventually toward artistic holistic sermon composition and delivery A sample syllabus included in the appendix will greatly assist any preaching instructor who wants to offer a creative course on arts and preaching The Renewed Homiletic O. Wesley Allen, 2010-04-21 The major shift in the study and practice of preaching in the 1970s and 1980s labeled the New Homiletic turned toward the hearer The purpose of preaching focused less on persuasion and more on transformation less on asserting religious truths and more on offering an experience of the gospel Instead of viewing language as referential its creative evocative nature began to be emphasized Thus homiletical strategies utilizing induction celebration story narrative structures and moves replaced a deductive propositional approach to preaching Now three and a half decades after this shift began preachers recognize that the homiletical landscape has continued to evolve in ways that influence how preaching ought to be done for example the rise of postmodernity the decline of the mainline church cultural pluralism and biblical and theological illiteracy Those considered to be the pillars of the New Homiletic David Buttrick Fred Craddock Eugene Lowry Henry Mitchell and Charles Rice discuss how to change their homiletical approach for a new day Each of these distinguished scholars offers a lecture describing how his mind has changed preaches a sermon reflecting these changes and participates in a panel discussion with younger respondents Publisher description SCM Studyguide: Preaching Peter K. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation
