The Human Mystery:

The Human Mystery Sir John Carew Eccles, 1984 On Disobedience and Other Essays, 1984 The Human Mystery John C. Eccles, 1989 The Human Mystery John C. Eccles, 1979 The Human Mystery Sir John Carew Eccles, 1978

The Human Mystery J. C. Eccles, 1979 Under the terms of the endowment by Lord Gifford the Gifford Lectures have been an annual event in the University of Edinburgh since 1887 and also in three other Scottish universities According to the will of Lord Gifford they were set up to promote and diffuse the study of Natural Theology in the widest sense of that term in other words the knowledge of God The assignment is for ten lectures and I delivered them from 20 February to 13 March 1978 I chose the theme of the Human Mystery because I believe that it is vitally important to emphasize the great mysteries that confront us when as scientists we try to understand the natural world including ourselves There has been a regrettable tendency of many scientists to claim that science is so powerful and all pervasive that in the not too distant future it will provide an explanation in principle of all phenomena in the world of nature including man even of human consciousness in all its manifestations When that is accomplished scientific materialism will then be in the position of being an unchallengeable dogma accounting for all experience Handbook of Human Intelligence Robert J. Sternberg, 1982-12-30 Christ and the Human Soul Rudolf Steiner, 2023-07-05 10 Lectures in Copenhagen and Norrköping May 23 30 1912 July 12 16 1914 CW 155 Spiritual science does not want to replace Christianity rather it aims to be the instrument through which the meaning of Christianity can be grasped And one thing that will become particularly clear through spiritual science is that the being whom we call Christ must be recognized as the center of life on earth and that what we call the Christian faith is the ultimate religion the eternal religion for the future of the earth Rudolf Steiner July 13 1914 This collection of lectures from 1912 and 1914 offers a deepened understanding of the being of Christ the divine Logos in his connection with individual human souls From religious figures such as John the Baptist and Saint Francis to the twentieth century poet Christian Morgenstern these lectures reveal how Christ works with and through all who seek him The Pauline statement Not I but Christ in me becomes an inner guide by which each human soul can find a way to intimate union with the Christ being It is he who has the power to make our ideals and goals in life if they are worthy into true seeds of future reality The time of faith has come and gone Christ needs our conscious striving our effort to understand within the heart's deep core his ongoing presence and activity in the further evolution of our spiritual Earth and in our journey toward humanness These lectures are a comfort and a signpost for the soul to walk the inner path of communion with Christ for the healing and redemption of the earth We may be able in the end to redeem the karma accrued by our own individual souls but for our spiritual work to be fruitful for all humanity it must be brought into connection with Christ What we take into ourselves in such a way that it is done from the perspective of Not I this is what Christ makes into a common possession for all humanity July 14 1914 To know Christ means to undergo the school of selflessness Under the influence of materialism the selflessness of humanity was lost in a way as will be understood in future ages of humanity However through absorption in the Mystery of Golgotha the penetration of the knowledge of the Mystery of Golgotha with our whole feeling and soul being we can once again acquire a culture of selflessness We can come to understand that what Christ did for the development of the Earth is contained in the fundamental impulse of selflessness and that what he can become for the conscious development of the human soul is the school of selflessness Rudolf Steiner June 1 1914 To read these lectures is to strike out on the heart's path of fellowship with the living Christ This book is a translation from German of Christus und die Menschliche Seele ber den Sinn des Lebens Theosophische Moral Anthroposophie und Christentum GA 155 3rd ed Rudolf Steiner Verlag Dornach Switzerland 1994 Cover image Salvator Mundi 1499 1510 by Leonardo da Vinci Analogy of the Wound Kevin P. Considine, 2025-09-18 This book argues that communication can be a way of salvation for the sinned against sinners and all of creation through an analogy of the wound Rooted in Jesus praxis of healing this theology can assist in recognizing understanding and interpreting the harmful residue that remains in the aftermath of violence to repair human dignity and work for the common good The author weaves together insights from methods of contextual theologies the wisdom of Black and Womanist Theologies Korean diaspora theologies of han psychologies of trauma and moral injury and the Catholic tradition of analogy to arrive at a unique synthesis moments of salvation can be found in carefully communicating woundedness in the midst of building beloved community Although the dissimilarities in our woundedness may always be greater than our similarities the similarities convey truth and meaning and hold the possibility of the church living as Christ's wounded and resilient Body We aid each other's healing in right relationship The Appeal to Experience in the Christologies of Friedrich Schleiermacher and Karl Rahner Allen G. Jorgenson, 2007 Despite its controversy experience remains a perdurable category for contemporary theology This book explores the appeal to experience in the Christologies of Friedrich Schleiermacher and Karl Rahner two theologians often accused of reducing theology to anthropology by allowing apologetic concerns to dictate their method in their appeal to experience This work demonstrates that both theologians develop their hermeneutics under the tutelage of theology even while using experience as a category by which to provide leverage in apprehending Jesus Both the perils and possibilities of their Christologies are explored in preparation for an account of experience construed sacramentally Politics in the Human Interest William Du Bois, Dean R. Wright, 2007-04-26 Politics in the Human Interest presents the striking proposition that by paying attention to what's been learned about human behavior we can develop a political agenda that is in the human interest Du Bois and Wright editors of Applying Sociology Making a Better World seek a synthesis of the disciplines by returning to the bold conversation of August Comte Lester Ward Robert Lynd Erich Fromm Abraham Maslow Alvin Gouldner Ernest Becker and Alfred McClung Lee As economist Kenneth Boulding once said The question for the social sciences is simply what is better_ and how do we get there Politics in the Human Interest provides an important foundation for the answer and explores the theoretical foundation of a humanistic sociology It returns to the original progressive agenda that knowledge about human behavior can be used to create social progress and a better world Politics in the Human Interest is perfect for advanced undergraduate courses and graduate courses as well as sociology professionals

The Human Paradox Ralph Heintzman, 2022-08-31 What is a human being What does it mean to be human How can you lead your life in ways that best fulfil your own nature In The Human Paradox Ralph Heintzman explores these vital questions and offers an exciting new vision of the nature of the human The Human Paradox aims to counter or correct several contemporary assumptions about the nature of the human especially the tendency of Western culture since the seventeenth century to identify the human with rationality and the rational mind Using the lens of the virtues The Human Paradox shows how rediscovering the nature of the human can help not just to understand one's own paradoxical nature but to act in ways that are more consistent with its full reality Offering accessible insight from both traditional and contemporary thought The Human Paradox shows how a fuller richer vision of the human can help address urgent contemporary problems including the challenges of cultural and religious diversity human migration and human rights the role of the market artificial intelligence the future of democracy and global climate change This fresh perspective on the Western past will guide readers into what it means to be human and open new possibilities for the future

Sublime Community Anthony J. Kelly, 2023-10-31 On Pentecost Sunday 24 May 2015 when Pope Francis issued Laudato Si On Care for our Common Home It broadened and deepened Catholic awareness and identity encouraged dialogue with many sciences and disciplines while stimulating ecumenical and even interreligious collaboration and communication This volume of essays looks at many aspects of an eco theology and examines Pope Francis Encyclical Laudato Si As the author writes A fundamental sense of community is the first requirement of any effective ecological commitment and communion But it is precisely on this level of community that increasing alienation has been most obvious The distancing and disaffection of the human from nature along with the violence and antagonism of human beings among themselves has long been the cause of alarm Alliances have been formed along political economic racial sexual cultural and religious lines Political economic and social superstructures have evolved to serve an alienating situation the common good is at best understood as a compromise amongst competing groups of self interest and greed In such a context ecology can easily restrict its aims to environmentalism and merely landscaping areas of poisoned earth How might the Eucharist shape an ecological vision It brings nature and culture together in a unique way bringing together what is too often kept apart in referring to say nature and culture person and community creation and the Creator The Eucharist as holy communion also brings together many gifts and many forms of giving From nature s giving we have the grain and the grapes From the giving expressed in human work and skill we have the gifts of bread and wine From the generous giving of family and friends flow the gifts of good meals and festive celebrations From Jesus self giving at the Last Supper the disciples were given his body and blood the food and drink to nourish life in him After his resurrection his giving continues as he breathes into his disciples his Holy Spirit And working in and through all these gifts and kinds of giving there is the gift of the Father who so loved the world

Becoming Two in Love Roland J. De Vries, 2013-07-25 This book draws Soren Kierkegaard and Luce Irigaray into conversation on the nature and ethics of sexual difference While these two initially seem like doubtful dialogue partners the conversation between them yields a rich and compelling account of intersubjectivity between man and woman an account that moves beyond the limited and tired debate over egalitarianism vs complementarianism Through engagement with Irigaray and Kierkegaard this book develops a constructive theological ethics of sexual difference that focuses on an epistemological and subjective gap that sets man and woman at a decisive distance from each other They are a mystery to each other Yet it is also an ethical framework that allows woman and man to encounter one another in ways that respect the independence subjectivity and becoming of each Above all this is a theological ethics of sexual difference that centers on Jesus Christ who is defined as the middle term in every relationship and whose love command defines the encounter between man and woman in difference 'Being Towards Death' Sylvie Avakian,2021-04-19 This book draws the philosophical contribution of Martin Heidegger together with theological spiritual insights from the East especially that of Nikolai Berdyaev Thus it brings into dialogue the West with the East and philosophy with theology By doing so it offers Christian theology an existential spiritual language that is relevant and meaningful for the contemporary reader In particular the work explores Heidegger s being towards death Sein zum Tode as the basis for theological philosophical thinking Only the one who embraces being towards death has the courage to think and poetize This thinking in turn makes being towards death possible and in this circular movement of thinking and being the mystery of being reveals itself and yet remains hidden Since the work aims at demonstrating being towards death through language it transitions away from the common formulations and traditionally accepted ways of writing dogmatic theology towards an original philosophical reflection on faith and spirituality At different points however the work also retrieves the profound thoughts and theologies of the past the insightful creativity of which cannot be denied The Human Project Nicola Abbagnano,2022-06-08 This book explores human possibility at the end of the twentieth century It takes the form of discussion between an eminent philosopher and a skilled journalist about the human measure as it engages false absolutes and their accompanying utopias The book proposes a third way between capitalism and socialism and it concludes with comments on end of century phenomena including democracy intellectuals and terrorism The Story of the Human Body Daniel E. Lieberman,2014-07-01 A landmark book of popular science that gives us a lucid and engaging account of how the human body evolved over millions of years with charts and line drawings throughout Fascinating A readable introduction to the whole field and great on the making of our physicality Nature In this book Daniel E Lieberman illuminates the major transformations that contributed to key adaptations to the body the rise of bipedalism the shift to a non fruit based diet the advent of hunting and gathering and how cultural changes like the Agricultural and Industrial Revolutions have impacted us physically He shows how the increasing disparity between the jumble of adaptations in our Stone Age bodies and advancements in the modern world is occasioning a paradox greater longevity but increased chronic disease And finally provocatively he advocates the use of evolutionary information to help nudge push and sometimes even compel us to create a more salubrious environment and pursue better lifestyles
