From Dust to Digital Maja Kominko, 2015-02-16 Much of world s documentary heritage rests in vulnerable little known and often inaccessible archives Many of these archives preserve information that may cast new light on historical phenomena and lead to their reinterpretation But such rich collections are often at risk of being lost before the history they capture is recorded This volume celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Endangered Archives Programme at the British Library established to document and publish online formerly inaccessible and neglected archives from across the globe From Dust to Digital showcases the historical significance of the collections identified catalogued and digitised through the Programme bringing together articles on 19 of the 244 projects supported since its inception These contributions demonstrate the range of materials documented including rock inscriptions manuscripts archival records newspapers photographs and sound archives and the wide geographical scope of the Programme Many of the documents are published here for the first time illustrating the potential these collections have to further our understanding of history Tracing Manuscripts in Time and Space through Paratexts Giovanni Ciotti, Hang Lin, 2016-07-25 As records of the link between a manuscript and the texts it contains paratexts document many aspects of a manuscript's life production transmission usage and reception Comprehensive studies of paratexts are still rare in the field of manuscript studies and the universal categories of time and space are used to create a common frame for research and comparisons Contributions in this volume span over three continents and one millennium

A Sense of Place and Belonging Klemens Karlsson, 2025-03-15 A Sense of Place and Belonging examines a marginalized society Chiang Tung Keng Tung in the Eastern Shan State of Myanmar between the dominant cultures of the Burmese Chinese and Siamese Thai Chiang Tung sits at the historic borderland known as the Golden Triangle an area marked by drug trade human trafficking and civil war Hiding a glorious literary and visual cultural tradition from the fourteenth century Chiang Tung is remarkable for how well it has maintained its Buddhist culture in the turbulent history of war and forced resettlement that formed northern Southeast Asia Klemens Karlsson examines the connection between the Buddhist traditions the ancient cult of territory spirits a cult of the earth place and village that forms a kind of religious map and the monsoon culture of wet rice irrigation Tying together myths and memories told by local people and written in local chronicles with the unique performance of the Songkran festival which dramatizes a symbolic agreement between Tai Khuen people and the indigenous Lua Lawa people A Sense of Place and Belonging presents a historical political religious and cultural context connecting the present with the past the local with the global and tradition with change and transformation

Exploring Multilingualism and Multiscriptism in Written Artefacts Szilvia Sövegjártó, Márton Vér, 2024-05-06 This book explores multilingualism and multiscriptism in a great variety of writing cultures offering an in depth analysis of how diverse languages and scripts seamlessly intertwine within written artefacts Insights into scribal practices are particularly illuminating in that respect especially when exploring artefacts originating from multicultural communities and regions where distinct writing traditions intersect The influence of multilingualism and multiscriptism on these writing cultures becomes evident with essays spanning various domains from the mundane aspects of everyday life to the realms of scholarship and political propaganda Scholars often relegate these phenomena despite being frequently encountered to the status of exceptions compared to the more prevalent monolingualism and monoscriptism However in daring to challenge this viewpoint this book emphasises the profound significance and relevance of multilingualism and multiscriptism in shaping the development of languages cultures and societies across Asia Africa and Europe It caters to a diverse readership keen on delving into the intricacies of these phenomena within this rich tapestry of writing cultures Political Regimes and the Media in Asia Krishna Sen, Terence Lee, 2008-02-25 This book analyzes the relationship between political power and the media in a range of nation states in East and Southeast Asia focusing in particular on the place of the media in authoritarian and post authoritarian regimes It discusses the centrality of media in sustaining repressive regimes and the key role of the media in the transformation and collapse of such regimes It questions in particular the widely held beliefs that the state can have complete control over the media consumption of its citizens that commercialization of the media necessarily leads to democratization and that the transnational liberal dimensions of western media are crucial for democratic movements in Asia Countries covered include Burma China Indonesia Malaysia Singapore Thailand the Philippines and Vietnam

Anthropological Investigations in Contemporary India: A cross-cultural perspective C.J. Sonowal, Milonjyoti

Borgohain, 2024-04-30 Within this book readers will find insightful theoretical analyses and detailed micro level studies that broaden our understanding of pressing contemporary issues through an anthropological lens Each paper within the book contextualizes its findings within the larger societal framework providing a comprehensive view of the situations being examined This book's particular strength lies in its emphasis on decolonizing anthropological knowledge exploring the nuances of stigma from an anthropological perspective highlighting the significance of religion as an ethnic marker exploring the problems and prospects of writing indigenous ethnohistory of tribes and indigenous people illuminating food culture through an anthropological lens examining borderland markets and exploring the connection of biology and society within the realm of health issues Ethnic and Religious Diversity in Myanmar Perry Schmidt-Leukel, Hans-Peter

Grosshans, Madlen Krueger, 2021-12-02 One of the most comprehensive volumes on Myanmar's identity politics to date this book discusses the entanglement of ethnic and religious identities in Myanmar and the challenges presented by its extensive ethnic religious diversity Religious and ethnic conjunctions are treated from historical political religious and ethnic minority perspectives through both case studies and overview chapters The book addresses the thorny issue of Buddhist supremacy Burmese nationalism and ethnic religious hierarchy along with reflections on Buddhist Christian and Muslim communities Bringing together international scholars and Burmese scholars this book combines the perspectives of academic observers with those of political activists and religious leaders from different faiths Through the breadth of its disciplinary approach its focus on identity issues and its inclusion of insider and outsider perspectives this book provides new insights into the complex religious situation of Myanmar Silver Screens and Golden Dreams Jane M. Ferguson, 2024-03-31 In a tour de force study of sixty years of cinematic entertainment Silver Screens and Golden Dreams traces the veins of Burmese popular movies across three periods in history the colonial era the parliamentary democracy period and the Ne Win Socialist years Author Jane M Ferguson engages cinema as an interrogator of mainstream cultural values providing political and cultural context to situate the films as artistic endeavors and capitalist products Exploring how filmmakers eschewed colonial control and later selectively toed the ideological lines of the Burmese Way to Socialism Silver Screens and Golden Dreams offers a serious yet enjoyable investigation of leisure during difficult times of transition and political upheaval By skillfully blending historical and anthropological approaches Ferguson shows how Burmese cinema presents a lively unique take on the country's social history The world tends to see Myanmar Burma as an ancient idyllic land of emerald green rice paddies dotted with golden pagodas yet sadly tarnished by a contemporary reality of grinding poverty a decades long civil war and the most enduring military dictatorship in modern history Burmese society is frequently stereotyped as isolated hidebound to Buddhist cultural foundations or embroiled in military rule and civil strife Its thriving cosmopolitan film industry not only questions such orientalist archetypes but also provides an incisive lens to explore social history through everyday popular practices Emerging from a vibrant literary and performing arts scene Burmese talent and ingenuity spurred a century of near continuous motion picture production Dozens of local film companies have churned out thousands of films bringing to life popular folk tales tear jerking dramas and epic adventures for millions of adoring fans Even during the purportedly isolated Burmese Way to Socialism years local movie production continued and ticket sales even increased Glamorous stars adopted international fashions yet inspired Burmese cultural pride in the face of foreign economic and political domination From silent films depicting moral perils to Hollywood remakes to socialist realism and ethnic unity films locally made motion pictures have captured the imaginations of Burmese people for over a century

Tantra, Magic, and Vernacular Religions in Monsoon Asia Andrea Acri, Paolo E. Rosati, 2022-11-03 This book explores the cross and trans cultural dialectic between Tantra and intersecting magical and shamanic practices associated with vernacular religions across Monsoon Asia With a chronological frame going from the mediaeval Indic period up to the present a wide geographical framework and through the dialogue between various disciplines it presents a coherent enquiry shedding light on practices and practitioners that have been frequently alienated in the elitist discourse of mainstream Indic religions and equally overlooked by modern scholarship The book addresses three desiderata in the field of Tantric Studies it fills a gap in the historical modelling of Tantra it extends the geographical parameters of Tantra to the vast yet culturally interlinked socio geographical construct of Monsoon Asia it explores Tantra as an interface between the Sanskritic elite and the folk the vernacular the magical and the shamanic thereby revisiting the intellectual and historically fallacious divide between cosmopolitan Sanskritic and vernacular local The book offers a highly innovative contribution to the field of Tantric Studies and more generally South and Southeast Asian religions by breaking traditional disciplinary boundaries Its variety of disciplinary approaches makes it attractive to both the textual diachronic and ethnographic synchronic dimensions It will be of interest to specialist and non specialist academic readers including scholars and students of South Asian religions mainly Hinduism and Buddhism Tantric traditions and Southeast Asian religions as well as Asian and global folk religion shamanism and magic
