The History of the Gaelic Athletic Association in Canada Ainsley Baldwin,John O'Flynn,2008-07-04 The history of Gaelic games in Canada before the founding of the Gaelic Athletic Association in Ireland in 1884 and in the years since proves a determination by Irish immigrants who have arrived in numerous provinces of Canada Through their dedication the flag of Irish sports has flown strong and will continue to fly in the years to come The sporting traditions include the oldest European field game of hurling a masterful art and the fastest game in the world in which players use an ash wood stick and a hard ball Many argue with some conviction and no small amount of fact to support their case that Canada s national sport ice hockey has its origins in hurling The word puck is derived from the Irish word poc which is the action of striking the ball with a hurley In 1845 the civic fathers of Quebec City banned the playing of hurling in their narrow streets while in St John s Newfoundland hurling was being played as early as 1788 at the Barrens of the city The ladies version of hurling Camogie has had its presence on occasion in some Canadian communities The skilful play of Gaelic Football which has dominated the sporting scene across the country in many Canadian cities continues to be the greatest strength in modern times Along with two other Irish sports of handball and rounders many wonderful memories for the Canadian Irish community are celebrated in this book that captures an exciting facet of Irish culture A History of Sport in Europe in 100 Objects Daphné Bolz,Michael Krüger,2023-04-27 Modern sport originated in Europe During the age of Enlightenment gymnastics and athletics from Antiquity were rediscovered and changed into new cultural and educational forms which shaped both the body and the mind The industrialisation of Britain and Europe eventually introduced organisational patterns that gave sport not only a name but also a new structure This was a distinctive product of European civilisation which spread across the modern world The 100 objects that are collected here are both material objects and forms of communication which explore the transformation and diversity of sports games and physical education in Europe whether for training performing or as part of other forms of celebration or festivity This book is the first attempt to create a kaleidoscopic history of European sport through its rich material culture and emerged from a desire to develop transnational research in sports history 110 authors from 39 countries have participated in a genuinely pan European project introducing the reader to the fascinating range of people institutions and places which made up the world of modern European sport Indigenous, Traditional, and Folk Sports Mariann Vaczi,Alan Bairner,2023-10-06 This is the first book to focus on indigenous traditional and folk sports and sporting cultures It examines the significance of sporting cultures that have survived the emergence and diffusion of western sports and have carved out a unique position not only in spite of modernity but also in response to it Presenting case studies from around the world including from Europe Asia Africa and the Americas this book draws on multidisciplinary work from sociology anthropology history cultural studies and political science exploring key themes in the social sciences including nationalism identity decolonisation and gender From Turkish oil wrestling kabaddi in South Asia Iroquois lacrosse to wushu and sumo in East Asia and various European traditional sports these sporting practices continue to capture the indigenous imagination on the margins of the western hegemonic sport complex Situated in the fissures between the local the national and the global between the archaic and the modern and between ritual and record they inhabit a liminal space of transformation as they assume new cultural and political meanings offering important perspectives on the complexities and contradictions of modernity The volume s decolonial perspective lies in its promotion of indigenous and subaltern worldviews through their traditional movement cultures on the margins of the western hegemonic sport complex This is a fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in sport nationalism Indigenous studies heritage and folklore studies anthropology social and cultural history or globalisation
