The House of Commons, 1690-1715 David Hayton, 2002      Parliamentary History, 2004      A Biographical Register of St. John's College, Oxford, 1555-1660 Andrew Hegarty, 2011 Full biographical accounts of the members of St John's College Oxford give much new evidence for academic life of the period This volume comprises a register of all who were academically of St John's College Oxford from its foundation in 1555 until 1660 as well as of a number of men otherwise associated with it It includes many figures of national importance among them William Laud William Juxon Edmund Campion and Bulstrode Whitelocke scholarly translators of the Bible five future earls and many Members of Parliament The biographies based on a very wide range of sources amplify and correct existing work and identify many previously unknown St John's men The introduction draws on this new research to provide a richer and more nuanced portrayal of an early modern Oxford college than any so far attempted and since the College was both a Catholic Marian foundation and the institution in which Laud spend much of his life makes a significant contribution to an understanding of the ramifications of early modern English religious loyalties The College's involvement in early academic drama in Oxford also receives special attention as do its many Shakespearean connections both family and Warwickshire affinity An extensive Glossary provides essential supplementary guidance to the workings of the early modern academic world Andrew Hegarty gained his D Phil from the University of Oxford his research is on the history of European universities in the early modern period      The King's Converts Lauren Fogle, 2018-11-26 In the Middle Ages Jews who converted to Christianity occupied a shadowy and often dangerous place between the two religions Rejected by their former community and sometimes not accepted fully as Christians converts were often destitute and at the mercy of noble benefactors Only in London was there an official royally sanctioned and funded policy of conversion When Henry III founded the Domus Conversorum in 1232 he created a unique institution one intended to house protect and instruct converts from Judaism This book provides an analysis of Jewish conversion in England and continental Europe in the 12th and 13th centuries and offers a detailed look at London's Domus Conversorum its finances its administration and its inhabitants Using royal records financial accounts and receipts Church letters and documents London wills and assizes and chronicles this book presents the most in depth account of Jewish conversion in London to date      The Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney: Volume V, 1782-1783 Lars E. Troide, Stewart J. Cooke, 2012-03-19 Volume V of The Early Journals and Letters of Fanny Burney covers a period of significant gains and losses for the young writer Professionally Burney consolidated her reputation as England's premier novelist with the publication of Cecilia Through a mutual friendship she gained an appointment as Keeper of the Robes to Queen Charlotte a position that provided both financial security and an insider's view to life at Court Burney's professional success during these years was balanced by countless personal setbacks Deprived of the companionship of her favourite sister following her sister's marriage she also lost the friendship of Hester Lynch Thrale who grew increasingly distant during her romantic attachment to Gabriel Piozzi whom she married in 1784 The death of her dear friend and mentor Samuel Crisp causes Burney deep sadness and her emotional turmoil is further exacerbated by her introduction to George Owen Cambridge a young clergyman to whom she is clearly attracted but who refuses to either declare himself to her or leave her in peace Throughout these trials and triumphs Burney an artist with an acute sense of the complexities and vagaries of human nature never ceases to fix her lens on the fashions and follies of English society as they emerge in the manners of her time The Local Historian ,2002 Issues for autumn 1961 include the Standing Conference for Local History Bulletin

Debating the Hundred Years War: Volume 29 Craig Taylor,2006 Two treatises that examine the legal issues that arose during the Hundred Years War Historical Evidence and Argument David Henige,2006-01-20 Historians know about the past because they examine the evidence But what exactly is evidence how do historians know what it means and how can we trust them to get it right Historian David Henige tackles such questions of historical reliability head on in his skeptical unsparing and acerbically witty Historical Evidence and Argument Systematic doubt is his watchword and he practices what he preaches through a variety of insightful assessments of historical controversies for example over the dating of artifacts and the textual analysis of translated documents Skepticism Henige contends forces us to recognize the limits of our knowledge but is also a positive force that stimulates new scholarship to counter it Lydgate Matters L. Cooper,A. Denny-Brown,2007-12-25 This collection re evaluates the work of fifteenth century poet John Lydgate in light of medieval material culture Top scholars in the field unite here with critical newcomers to offer fresh perspectives on the function of poetry on the cusp of the modern age and in particular on the way that poetry speaks to the heightened relevance of material goods and possessions to the formation of late medieval identity and literary taste Advancing in provocative ways the emerging fields of fifteenth century literary and cultural study the volume as a whole explores the role of the aesthetic not only in late medieval society but also in our own The Library Journal ,1998-10 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Sir Robert Bell and His Early Virginia Colony Descendants James Elton Bell,Frances Jean Bell,2007 Robert Bell was born between 1520 and 1539 in England He married three times and had twelve children Descendants and relatives lived mainly in England and Virginia The New Walford Ray Lester,2005 Covers 15 broad subject groupings social sciences generic psychology sociology social work politics government law finance accountancy industries business education sport media information and tools for information professionals Choice ,1999
