The History Of The Fighting Fourteenth 14th Brooklyn State Militia:

"The Red-Legged Devils", Brooklyn's Best Regiment Major T.J. Hartshorne, 2015-11-06 The Fourteenth Regiment New York State Militia of Brooklyn New York gathered an impressive combat record during the Civil War yet the Professional Military Education world rarely takes notice of their deeds They were first formed on 5 July 1847 when the New York State Legislature consolidated the individual militia companies into regiments During the Civil War the Fourteenth Regiment fought in 29 engagements and sustained over 700 casualties Their battles include participation in both Bull Runs Antietam Fredericksburg Chancellorsville Gettysburg Wilderness and Spotsylvania Though noted primarily for actions in the Civil War the Regiment also served in the Spanish American War World Wars I and II and Korea though under different unit designations The Fourteenth Regiment's past can be a road to our future An insight to their performance under fire can provide today s students a timeless template on how to conduct combat operations "The Bullets Flew Like Hail" James L. McLean, 2023-04-26 On July 1 1863 Brigadier General Lysander Cutler commanded the first Union infantry to relieve Brigadier General John Buford's hard pressed cavalry on the western outskirts of Gettysburg The brigade's stubborn defense along McPherson's Ridge and the arrival of the famous Iron Brigade stopped the Confederate advance on the town and set the tone for the three day battle All of this is laid out in The Bullets Flew Like Hail Cutler's Brigade at Gettysburg from McPherson's Ridge to Culp's Hill by James L McLean Jr Early in the fight two of the brigade's regiments the 14th Brooklyn and the 95th New York along with the Iron Brigade's 6th Wisconsin participated in one of the most famous assaults of the war The three regiments simultaneously charged across open ground repulsed the attack of Brigadier General Joseph Davis s Rebel brigade and captured a large number of Mississippi and North Carolina troops protected by an unfinished railroad cut By the end of July 1 Cutler's brigade had fought against Confederate brigades led by James Archer Joseph Davis Alfred Iverson Junius Daniels and Alfred Scales The brigade was one of the last to leave the field of battle and successfully reformed on Cemetery Hill On July 2 the brigade was sent to Culp's Hill During the evening of July 2 and the early morning hours of July 3 Cutler's men assisted Brigadier General George Greene's 12th Corps brigade in repulsing spirited Southern attacks against the Union right flank In doing so Cutler's veterans held the distinction of being among the few Union troops who fought all three days of the battle The performance of the brigade at Gettysburg came at a great cost In the battle only five Union and Confederate brigades sustained 1 000 or more casualties Cutler's brigade was one of them This brigade deserves to be recognized for its heroic performance throughout the fight Accompanying the text in The Bullets Flew Like Hail are 39 detailed maps depicting troop movements throughout each phase of the battle A photographic supplement provides a look at the battlefield's terrain and the major personalities discussed within the book Field Artillery, 2010 This volume gathers in compact form the official historical records of field artillery units in the United States Army in order to perpetuate and publicize their traditions honors and heraldic entitlements It includes the lineages and honors of Regular Army and Army
