The Homoeopathic Treatment of Alcoholism Jean-Pierre Gallavardin, 1890 The Homeopathic Treatment of Alcoholism Jean-Pierre Gallavardin, 2009 The Homoeopathic Treatment of Alcoholism Jean-Pierre Gallavardin, 2023-11-21 Alcoholism today is a great social evil This manual fills or at least occupies a void that has hitherto existed in the homoeopathic literature It commands the respectful attention and study of all thoughtful homeopaths

Homeopathic Treatment of Alcoholism Jean-Pierre Gallavardin, 2020-10 Treatment Matching in Alcoholism Thomas F. Babor, Frances K. Del Boca, 2003 Project MATCH was a large scale treatment evaluation study established by the U S National Institute on Alcohol Abuse to determine whether the treatment of alcoholism could be improved by matching different types of alcoholics with the most appropriate kinds of treatment This book edited by the two principal investigators is the first comprehensive report of Project MATCH the largest alcoholism treatment study ever conducted It describes the rationale methods results and implications of the study and presents new findings about how treatment works for whom it is most effective and who does best in different kinds of treatment It also offers some of the first scientific evidence of the effectiveness of Alcoholics Anonymous DEGR The Homoeopathic World , 1872 The Homoeopathic Treatment of Alcoholism Jean-Pierre Gallavardin, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1890 edition Excerpt VI There will be noted in the effects of remedies upon drunkards numerous individual diversities even a few that are contradictory For instance under the influence of Nux vom 200th one drunkard who was made drunk by a glass of wine will be able to drink several glasses without getting drunk at all another patient who could not be made drunk with less than two bottles of wine will thenceforth be made drunk by a single glass of the same wine which he no longer will be able to stand After having taken this remedy unbeknown to himself one drunkard will no longer have that thirst which leads him to drink wine another will feel such a repulsion for that drink that he will no longer wish to drink anything but water a third one ceasing to be a drunkard will not change any in disposition a fourth one on the contrary after having been cured of drunkenness will no longer be jealous or sensitive or easily angered but will become amiable and obliging toward his wife and children All that precedes gives a glimpse of the numerous individual modifications of dispositions which occur daily under the influence either of the abandonment of drink or the action of the remedies administered I cannot detail here the observations daily increasing in number of men and women of all classes whom I have treated for drunkenness In order to show the reader what psychical treatment can do against these passions I shall only mention cases in which drunkenness was cured rapidly or gradually by one two or more remedies other cases in which drunkenness ameliorated or done away with temporarily again seized its victim to be again cured by the second treatment or not to be cured again at all if treatment was not resumed Observation Psychism & Homoeopathy Jean-pierre Gallavardin, 1997-12-31 St. Louis Journal of

 National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1961 Strychnine & Gold (Part 2) Kenneth Anderson,2021-07-25 This book tells the story of the huge addiction treatment industry which flourished in the United States between 1890 and the advent of Prohibition in 1920 The story begins in Russia in 1886 where a number of doctors discovered a relatively effective pharmacological treatment for alcoholism Although this Russian discovery was published in countless major English language medical journals it was entirely ignored by the US addiction experts of the day who eschewed pharmacological treatments and instead preferred to lock people up in inebriate asylums where they could be subjected to religious coercion However an obscure railroad physician and patent medicine salesman named Leslie E Keeley who lived in the dusty prairie town of Dwight Illinois read about the Russian treatment in a medical journal and decided to give it a try Much to his surprise the Russian treatment proved highly effective and by 1891 Dr Keeley was treating upwards of a thousand patents a day at the Keeley Institute in Dwight Keeley was a salesman and a bit of a Barnum he always claimed that he had invented the cure himself after decades of painstaking research and he called it the Gold Cure claiming that his secret ingredient was gold Of course there was no gold in the gold cure other than the gold which lined Keeley s pockets However the treatment was relatively effective and by 1893 there were over 100 Keeley Institutes operating in the United States and abroad and hundreds of copycats were operating imitation gold cure institutes The Keeley Gold Cure was even adopted by the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers and the US Army The Keeley treatment took 28 days and required hypodermic injections four times a day for the entire period On the other hand the Gatlin Institutes which opened in 1902 and the Neal Institutes which opened in 1909 used a form of aversion treatment and advertised themselves as three day liquor cures Competition between the gold cures and the three day liquor cures in the first two decades of the 20th century was fierce and intense Then as the United States entered World War One in 1917 the demand for addiction treatment suddenly dried up for a variety of reasons and the majority of these proprietary cure institutes had shut down before the enactment of Prohibition in 1920 although the parent Keeley Institute in Dwight remained in operation until 1966 This book contains the never before told tale of how these proprietary treatment institutes grew into a huge industry flourished then finally faded away as the United States entered World War One Part One of this book covers the Keeley Institutes Dipsocura the Bedal

Institutes the McKanna liquor cure the Wherrell gold cure and the Hagey Cure Part Two of this book covers the Morrell Cure the National Bichloride of Gold Institutes the Oppenheimer Institutes the Tyson Vegetable Cure the Willow Bark Institutes the Telfair Sanitarium the Connelley Cure the Murray Institutes the Gatlin Institutes the Neal Institutes the S B Collins Cure and the D Unger Cure Part Two also contains appendices discussing strychnine belladonna alkaloids jag cure laws and more
