The Hong Kong Foreign Correspondents Club:

By-Laws of the Foreign Correspondents' Club, Hong Kong Foreign Correspondents' Club, Hong Kong, 2007 The Hong Kong Foreign Correspondents Club Anthony Spaeth, 1990-01-01 Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Foreign Correspondents' Club, Hong Kong Foreign Correspondents' Club, Hong Kong, 2007 Foreign Correspondents in Japan Charles Foreign Corresponden, 2011-09-13 Since its founding in 1945 the Foreign Correspondents Club of Japan FCCJ has been a haven for working journalists From its origins at No 1 Shimbun Alley in the ruins of Tokyo immediately after World War II the club quickly took on a life of its own At times it became like a miniature United Nations meeting the needs of hundreds of foreign journalists from around the world who used it as a working press center as well as a social oasis Club members who include several Pulitzer Prize winners have personally witnessed and reported on some of the most momentous events of the last half century the end of World War II and the occupation of Japan the revolution in China the Korean War Vietnam and the student riots of the 1960s the height of the Cold War Japan s economic miracle and the subsequent collapse of the bubble economy the death of Emperor Hirohito and much more Foreign Correspondents in Japan gives an intimate and colorful look at these journalists who covered Asia for the rest of the world during five decades of sweeping change and provides first person accounts of history as it was being written Hong Kong Handbook Foreign Correspondents' Club, Hong Kong, 2007 China's Influence and the Center-periphery Tug of War in Hong Kong, Taiwan and Indo-Pacific Brian C. H. Fong, Jieh-min Wu, Andrew J. Nathan, 2020-12-30 Bringing together a team of cutting edge researchers based in Hong Kong Taiwan and Indo Pacific countries this book focuses on the tug of war between China s influence and forces of resistance in Hong Kong Taiwan and selected countries in its surrounding jurisdictions China s influence has met growing defiance from citizens in Hong Kong and Taiwan who fear the extinction of their valued local identities However the book shows that resistance to China s influence is a global phenomenon varying in motivation and intensity from region to region and country to country depending on the forms of China s influence and the balances of forces in each society The book also advances a concentric center periphery framework for comparing different forms of extra jurisdictional Chinese influence mechanisms ranging from economic military and diplomatic influences to united front operations This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of comparative politics international relations geopolitics Chinese politics Hong Kong China relations Taiwan and Asian politics Lonely Planet Hong Kong Lonely Planet, Membership Directory Foreign Correspondents' Club, Hong Kong, 2005 Hong Kong English Kingsley Bolton, 2002-09-01 The dominant view of many linguists and educators has been that Hong Kong English is a variety of the language that is derived from and dependent on the metropolitan norm of British English It has been argued that English in Hong Kong was never nativized as in other Asian societies and that it has not deserved the recognition accorded to other varieties of Asian English The contributions to this book challenge that view in a number of ways In addressing sociolinguistic structural and literary issues they provide an up to date survey of current use of Hong Kong English and redress the question of its autonomy in terms of both distinctive linguistic features and the growing literary creativity of the variety An original and highly informed discussion on the futures for Hong Kong English and chapters providing additional resources for the study of the variety are also included Leadership: Political-economic, Regional Business And Socio-community Contexts Tai Wei Lim,2020-03-20 Political leadership styles in East Asian states are shaped and influenced by a number of domestic factors These factors include the type of political system that an East Asian state adopted from their days of independence and decolonization There is a diverse array of political systems in the region ranging from Western style liberal democracies like Japan and South Korea to autocratic one party states like North Korea Most other East Asian countries adopt systems somewhere in between these two polar ends This volume begins with a macro political perspective of leadership It then looks at case studies of political leadership and the factors that influence the shape and outcome of leadership styles in the region The book also examines the concept of community leadership and its impact on community well being Several specific case studies are examined in depth While examining political leadership from a macro theoretical and empirical perspective the book also adopts historical anthropological perspectives to analyse case studies The case studies also examine policy formulation and implementation to look at the role of government in handling community level issues Finally the book focuses on economic leadership in international political economy and global business China's Forbidden Zones , Atrocity Fabrication and Its Consequences A.B. Abrams,2023-03-15 Atrocity fabrication the invention and reporting of atrocities committed by an adversary without knowledge that they ever occurred has a centuries long history at the heart of propaganda and power politics as an effective means of moving public and international opinion Its use can provide pretext for a range of hostile measures against its targets transforming in the public eye wars of unprovoked aggression into wars of liberation of the oppressed or turning blockades to starve enemy civilians into humane efforts to pressure abusive governments under the moralistic label of sanctions As it plays a large and growing role in global conflict in the 21st century understanding atrocity fabrication and the consistent means by and ends to which it has been used has become crucial to comprehending geopolitical events in the present day This book elucidates the seldom explored but central role played by atrocity fabrication in eleven major conflicts from the 1950s to the present day from Korea Vietnam and Cuba during the Cold War to Iraq Libya and the emerging Sino U S cold war more recently It highlights the many variations of atrocity fabrication the strong consistencies in how atrocity fabrication is used and the consequences it has for the populations of the targeted countries The book demonstrates the roles played by media and both government and non governmental organizations in misleading the public as to the actuality of these highly publicized events The emerging trend towards this mode of action and the deep implications this has for world order make an understanding of its history particularly critical Political Developments in Contemporary China Ian Jeffries,2010-07-23 This book provides a comprehensive and detailed overview of contemporary political developments in China Key topics include human rights and China's international relations with its neighbours and with the international community more widely This is the companion volume to Economic Developments in Contemporary China A Guide also published by Routledge

The Voice from China An CHEN, 2014-07-08 In short the 24 selected and representative articles written in English by the author over the past 30 odd years mainly published in international leading journals and now collected and compiled in this monograph could be deemed the products of international academic debates They record reflect and embody the author's personal views on a number of contemporary basic issues in international economic law

The Global Handbook of Media Accountability Susanne Fengler, Tobias Eberwein, Matthias Karmasin, 2021-12-30 The Global Handbook of Media Accountability brings together leading scholars to de Westernize the academic debate on media accountability and discuss different models of media self regulation and newsroom transparency around the globe With examination of the status quo of media accountability in 43 countries worldwide it offers a theoretically informed comparative analysis of accountability regimes of different varieties As such it constitutes the first interdisciplinary academic framework comparing structures of media accountability across all continents and creates an invaluable basis for further research and policymaking It will therefore appeal to scholars and students of media studies and journalism mass communication sociology and political science as well as policymakers and practitioners

Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations Pauline Leonard, 2016-04-15 Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations offers a timely and contemporary discussion of the role of organizations in maintaining or challenging structures and cultures based on racism and discrimination It offers a key exploration of the relations between whiteness identity and organization in migratory contexts It delves into the experiences of expatriates in Hong Kong and the ways in which new identities are constructed in the destinations of migration by exploring the renegotiation of white identities and racialized relationships and the extent to which colonial imaginations still inform contemporary organizations By drawing on existing theoretical and empirical material on post colonialism identity making privileged migration relocation transnational work and organizations this volume brings disparate discussions together in a new and accessible way It will appeal to a range of sociology scholars as well as to those working in the fields of migration gender studies and cultural geography

Custom Maid Spin for New World Disorder Peter De Krassel, 2005-08 We the Maids For the Maids By the Maids we are the maids that clean up and pay for America's geopolitical mess A political manifesto for our difficult and troubled times Custom Maid Spin for New World Disorder is a trenchant analysis of the political social and moral ills that beset the United States This is a book written for anyone with a stake in the future of America Filled with witty personal anecdotes drawn from his experiences as a lawyer a businessman and a political activist de Krassel argues that America desperately needs to reform He takes particular aim at the country s career politicians sensationalist media and jingoistic culture And he suggests ways in which America can put its house in order The first chapter The Hypocrisy of Fake Morality with Real Orgasms examines how American journalists have increasingly focused on frivolous stories about the sex lives of public figures rather than the real issues affecting the country In the years leading up to the 9 11 attacks for example more time was spent by the American media chasing the Monica Lewinsky affair than tackling difficult topics like the rise of Islamic extremism abroad or the long overdue need for campaign finance reform Further chapters cover racism and bigotry religion America s great opportunity in the new millennium the breakdown of family structures spin and disinformation The book concludes with an exhortation to a return to the principles of the Founding Fathers A new millennium offers a unique opportunity for change It is a chance for Americans to retake control of their political system and reassess their values in an increasingly religious stressed out debt laden consumerist society Peter de Krassel was born in England of a Russian father and Palestinian Jewish mother He has lived all over the world including Switzerland Israel and the United States Currently he lives in Hong Kong He has a unique perspective on world events both from the influences of the places he s lived in and the people he has met as well as from his varied career

The King and the Making of Modern Thailand Antonio Rappa, 2017-04-21 The making of modern Thailand is grounded in specific political institutions Brahmanical tropes and sacred Buddhist traditions stylized with Hindu rituals Over and above these mysterious practices and ancient customs modern Thailand is a product of the late Great Rama IX Bhumibol Adulyadej Most Thai people have only known one King Born in Europe and educated during World War II Bhumibol was the son of a Harvard medical doctor who had a penchant for jazz music and fast cars When he returned to Thailand in 1951 to assume his royal duties he could hardly speak Thai but his French and German were remarkable Bhumibol had inherited an impoverished country with nothing but a symbolic role as a figurehead monarch He was surrounded by envious courtiers and royals from other families now sidelined by the rise of the Chakri Scheming generals and authoritarian field marshals were emptying the Kingdom s coffers Using guile and wit Bhumibol had turned the tide by 1973 He became the most powerful modern warlord in the history of the Kingdom He survived attempted murder crafty politicians corrupt generals sycophantic courtiers and impoverished masses When he died on October 13 2016 Bhumibol was already the longest standing monarch in the world King Bhumibol was deeply respected and well liked by farang and locals alike Despite his massive social and economic achievements many problems continue to plague the Kingdom These are prostitution human rights issues pollution corruption cronyism in Chinese businesses border conflicts with Cambodia and the refugee problem This book examines the role of Rama IX and the variegated set of problems that persist in life under the great white elephant and mango trees Rappa draws from his primary research that includes interviews surveys and first hand observations of a remarkable kingdom and a uniquely remarkable king to reveal the internal security threats to democracy and civil society in the oldest Southeast Asian kingdom in late modernity The Man Who Saw Too Much John Little,2010-11-01 This is the story of David Brill one of the very best of Australian cameramen past and present He is in the same company as Damien Parer and Neil Davis Over the past forty years he has covered wars and disasters all over the world He filmed the fall of Saigon He was in Moscow during the collapse of communism He has covered countless other conflicts and natural disasters in Asia Africa and North and South America He has been single mindedly dedicated to the pursuit of his craft to get the story get the film always to preserve and present the human dimension no matter how large or mindless the conflict or event David Brill has paid a high price for this uncompromising style He has two failed marriages and at times has been overcome by demons such as alcohol This biography is also a great adventure story a journey through war zones and various hell holes of the world And it is an inside look at what makes some people follow a profession where their life is on the line as a standard feature of their day The Rise and Decline of the Asian Century Christopher Lingle,2019-03-25 First published in 1997 this volume reflects an attempt to put order in the place of what appears to be chaos amidst East Asia's rapid dash toward economic development With experiences of Turkey during and after martial law Italy during the Red Brigade England during the Winter of Discontent post Franco Spain's stumbling embrace of democracy Poland in the beginning of the solidarity movement South Africa in the crumbling of apartheid China during the early student protests and Europe when the Iron Curtain was lifted Christopher Lingle applies these ideas to modern developments in East Asia providing an intriguing counter intuitive refreshing take on its economies
