Khadiagala, 2017-07-11 The book probes major security and governance trends in Africa's Great Lakes region since the 1990s It examines political dynamics in key states Burundi the DRC Rwanda and Uganda as well as the role of international actors such as the AU the EU and the UN thereby providing a unique perspective on efforts towards regional peace and prosperity The authors suggest that while the region has made tremendous progress it faces continuing challenges including reversals in governance that threaten future regional security The 1998-2000 Eritrea-Ethiopia War and Its Aftermath in International Legal Perspective Andrea de

Guttry, Harry H. G. Post, Gabriella Venturini, 2021-04-01 This book centres on the war that raged between Eritrea and Ethiopia from 1998 to 2000 a war that caused great loss of life and tremendous devastation It analyses the war in great detail from an international legal perspective the nature and the state of the boundary conflict preceding the actual armed conflict the military actions themselves the role of the UN peace keeping mission the responsibility for the multitude of explosive remnants of the war left behind Ample attention is paid to the decisions of the Eritrea Ethiopia Claims Commission and the Eritrea Ethiopia Boundary Commission This study is not limited to the war and the period immediately following it it also examines its more extended aftermath prolonging the analysis as far as the more recent improvement in the relations between Eritrea and Ethiopia away from a situation of no war no peace that prevailed after the armed conflict ended The analysis of the war and its aftermath is not only in terms of international legal issues it has been placed in a wider than strictly legal perspective The book is a valuable work for academics and practitioners in international law human rights and humanitarian law in particular for political scientists diplomats civil servants historians and all those others seriously interested in the Horn of Africa Andrea de Guttry is Full Professor of Public International Law at the Scuola Superiore Sant Anna in Pisa Italy Harry H G Post is Adjunct Professor in the Facult Libre de Droit of the Universit Catholique de Lille in Lille France Gabriella Venturini is Professor Emerita in the Dipartimento di Studi internazionali giuridici e storico politici of the Universit degli Studi di Milano in Milan Italy

Military Integration during War-to-Peace Transitions Lesley Anne Warner, 2023-06-07 In the 1960s only 10% of peace agreements included some element of political military accommodation namely military integration From Burundi to Bosnia to Zimbabwe that number had increased to over 50% by the 2000s However relatively little is understood about this dimension of power sharing often utilized during war to peace transitions Through an examination of the case of South Sudan between 2006 and 2013 this book explores why countries undergoing transitions from war to peace decide to integrate armed groups into a statutory security framework This book details how integration contributed to short term stability in South Sudan allowing the government to overcome wartime factionalism and consolidate political military power prior to the referendum on self determination in 2011 It also examines how the integration process in South Sudan was flawed by its open ended nature and lack of coordination with efforts to right size the military and transform the broader defense sector and how this led the military to fragment during periods of heightened political competition Furthermore the book explains why integration ultimately failed in South Sudan and identifies the wider lessons that could be applied to current or future war to peace transitions This book will be of great interest to students of war and conflict studies peacebuilding post conflict reconstruction African security issues and International Relations in general as well as to practitioners

The Gulf States and the Horn of Africa Robert Mason, Simon Mabon, 2022-01-25 The Gulf States and the Horn of Africa takes a deep dive into the complexities of power projection political rivalry and conflict across the Red Sea and beyond Focusing on the nature of interregional connections between the Gulf and the Horn it

Religion in War and Peace in Africa Margee Ensign, Jean-Pierre Karegeye, 2020-06-09 Religion in War and Peace in Africa shows how Religious extremism transcends the realm of belief analysing current armed conflicts in Africa with perpetrators claiming to act in accord with their religion and moral values Many African countries today are beset by armed conflicts carried out by different radical groups In most such cases religion has been used to incite extremism and to justify violence and exclusion Perpetrators who seek to violently impose their order believe or claim that they are acting in accord with their religious and values Scholars peacemakers Religious leaders and Military officers explore peace initiatives and security managements These rich informative and path breaking contributions in this book span the spectrum from the prevention of violence through peace initiatives and the analyses of the many complex historical political economic demographic and ideological causes of violence to the role of traditional religions and military intervention Showing how religious leaders scholars peacekeepers policy makers and military officers and others need to join their efforts in better understanding the intersections between religion and conflict and to engage in shared missions focused on preventive actions and peace initiatives Religion in War and Peace in Africa will be of great interest to scholars of military studies African studies peacekeeping religion and conflict The chapters were originally published as a special issue of Peace Review

Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa's leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia

Peace and War Mary LeCron Foster, 2020-03-02 Is war necessary In Peace and War prominent anthropologists and other social scientists explore the cultural and social factors leading to war They analyze the covert causes of war from a cross cultural perspective ideologies that dispose people to war underlying patterns of social relationships that help institutionalize war and the cultural systems of military establishments Overt causes of war environmental factors like the control of scarce resources advantageous territories and technologies or promoting the welfare of people like oneself are also considered The authors examine anthropologists role in policy formation how their theories on the nature of culture and society help those who deal with global problems on a day to day basis They argue that both covert and overt mechanisms are pushing the world closer to a devastating war and offer strategies to weaken the effects of these mechanisms This anthropological and historical analysis of the causes of war is a valuable resource for those studying war and those trying to understand the place of social science in framing pacific options A Companion to African History William H. Imperial Ethiopia, 1769 - 1960 Charles Schaefer, 2025-05-27 Examines one of the few documented early examples of restorative justice from Africa or Latin America With a writing system Ethiopian emperors as well as pretenders to the throne chronicled their exploits including peace building feats and this book showcases and analyses historically verified instances from as early as 1769 where restorative justice modalities were used to resolve conflict and bring peace to the country Peace not War traces Ethiopia's evolving understanding of restorative justice from the forgive and forget approach which characterized the Zemene Mesafint Era of the Princes where perpetrators were exonerated allowing them to recoup and build their armies to fight another day to conditional forgiveness recorded by the imperial court and dependent on atonement Ethiopia's long history of experimentation with different forms of restorative justice demonstrates ingenuity flexibility and adaptability but as the twentieth century progressed workable indigenous forms of restorative justice were sidelined by Western codified law that emphasized retribution

Challenging the United Nations Peace and Security Agenda in Africa
Dawn Nagar, 2021-09-29 This book concerns the United Nations peacemaking peacekeeping peace building and post conflict reconstruction efforts in Africa from 1960 to 2021 Succinctly discussed are historic and contemporary peace security and economic engagements within 18 countries spanning eight African regions the Great Lakes the Economic Community of Central African States East Africa the Horn of Africa North Africa the Sahel Region West Africa and Southern Africa The book develops a neo realist and imperialist critique that discusses how resource rich conflict ridden states have become easy targets for capitalists terrorists and transnational crime aligned to geostrategic parochial interests Critically argued is that endogenous economic growth factors if applied effectively can achieve both peace and security and meet the Global Sustainable Development Goals Such efforts require constructive engagement with the five permanent members of the UN Security Council China France Russia the UK and the US However the book contends that the cornerstone of multilateral engagement involves Africa's 55 states and the African Union's three major pillars the Peace and Security Council the African Governance Architecture and the Post Conflict Reconstruction Development Centre which have the ability to move resource rich conflict ridden states out of transnational crime and poverty This book offers wide ranging analyses of contemporary African diplomacy and a compelling critique of UN peacekeeping efforts in Africa which resonates to scholars of international relations peace and conflict studies and African politics

War DK Publishing, 2009-10-01 War has been central to the rise and fall of civilizations since the dawn of time The history of warfare first emerges from legend in Mesopotamia the cradle of civilization around 3 000 years before the birth of Christ The first armies that we know about fought in Sumeria Ancient Egypt and Syria From these first battles fought with spears or axes on horseback or on foot War traces the campaigns and conflicts that have shaped world history and examines the evolution of military tactics and technology The story of the development from these primitive battles to the global conflicts of the 20th century and the modern War on Terror is the story of humanity itself reflecting the same political cultural and technological forces that have defined human history From longbows to laser guided missiles from chariots to jet aircraft and from Samurai warriors to SAS soldiers War provides the definitive visual chronicle of this intense brutal and often heroic tale War combines a coherent and compelling spread by spread historical narrative with a wealth of supporting features on weapons and technology strategy and tactics the experience of war and history's fighting elites to recount the epic 5 000 year story of warfare and combat

Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Horn Of Africa From War To Peace : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
