United States Sexuality in Modern German History Katie Sutton, 2023-01-12 Sexuality in Modern German History offers both a detailed survey of this key subject and a new intervention in the history of sexuality in modern Germany. It investigates the diverse and often contradictory ways in which individuals, activists, doctors, politicians, artists, church leaders, reform movements, and cultural commentators have defined normal or natural sexuality in Germany over the past two centuries. Katie Sutton explores how these definitions have been used to shape identities, behaviours, bodies, and practices from norms of heterosexual marital reproductive sex to ideas around the policing and categorisation of unnatural or deviant bodies and practices. Covering a range of crucial themes including birth control, prostitution, queer and trans rights, and heterosexual intimacy, this important text comes with 30 illustrations and a wealth of primary source extracts and secondary literature helpfully integrated to enable further insight and analysis. This is a vital volume for all students and scholars with an interest in modern Germany or the history of sexuality in modern Europe.

Case Studies and the Dissemination of Knowledge Joy Damousi, Birgit Lang, Katie Sutton, 2015-02-11 The case study has proved of enduring interest to all Western societies, particularly in relation to questions of subjectivity and the sexed self. This volume interrogates how case studies have been used by doctors, lawyers, psychoanalysts, and writers to communicate their findings, both within the specialist circles of their academic disciplines and beyond to wider publics. At the same time, it questions how case studies have been taken up by a range of audiences to refute and dispute academic knowledge. As such, this book engages with case studies as sites of interdisciplinary negotiation, transnational exchange, and influence, exploring the effects of forces such as war, migration, and internationalization. Case Studies and the Dissemination of Knowledge challenges the limits of disciplinary-based research in the humanities. The cases examined serve as a means of passage between disciplines, genres, and publics, from law to psychoanalysis and from auto biography to modernist fiction. Its chapters scrutinize the case study in order to sharpen understanding of the genre's dynamic role in the construction and dissemination of knowledge within and across disciplinary, temporal, and national boundaries. In doing so, they position the case at the center of cultural and social understandings of the emergence of modern subjectivities.
