The Human Dichotomy

Rolando Vázquez

The Human Dichotomy:

The Logic of Human Rights Ekaterina Yahyaoui Krivenko, 2023-05-09 Conceptualizing the nature of reality and the way the world functions Ekaterina Yahyaoui Krivenko analyzes the foundations of human rights law in the strict subject object dichotomy Seeking to dismantle this dichotomy using topo logic a concept developed by Japanese philosopher Nishida Kitaro this topical book formulates ways to operationalize alternative visions of human rights practice

Black British Postcolonial Feminist Ways of Seeing Human Rights Pamela Odih, 2024-12-29 This book traces the feminine soul of Afrobeat from tumultuous colonial her stories through to the vibrant heterotopias of the urban spaces and times of Black British youths of African racial heritage Communicative action is a human right as per the portents of the United Nations in its 1948 declaration which recognises the human right to communication Borne from the cultural political struggles against persistent coloniality in post independence Nigeria Afrobeat is communicative action Afrobeat is the music of Nigerian dissent that has become the music of an African diaspora Unique in its way of seeing intergenerational decolonial diaspora studies through the refracted prism of Nigerian Afrobeat this book's extensive empirical and theoretical basis is directed toward the question How to be Black British born in a country that colonised our maternal ancestors It will be of interest to scholars and students in gender studies African studies decolonial studies sociology and media studies

The Psychology of the Human-Animal Bond Christopher Blazina, Güler Boyraz, David Shen-Miller, 2011-06-22 There have been dramatic increases in the financial emotional and psychological investment in pets over the past four decades The increasing importance of animal companions in people's lives has resulted in growing emphasis on the human animal bond within academic literature This book introduces practicing and emerging professionals to vital subject matter concerning this growing specialty area by providing an essential framework and information through which to consider the unique contextual backdrop of the human animal bond Such contexts include a wide array of themes including issues of attachment and loss success and frustration with making and sustaining connections world views regarding animal ethics familial history of neglect or abuse and cultural dynamics that speak to the order of things between mankind and nature Adopting a contextual stance will aid mental health professionals in appreciating why and how this connection has become a significant part of everyday life for many As with any other important clinical dynamic training and preparation are needed to gain competence for professional practice and research To this end an ensemble of international experts across the fields of psychology and mental health explore topics that will help both new and established clinicians increase and understanding of the various ways the human animal bond manifests itself Perspectives from beyond the scope of psychology and mental health such as anthropology philosophy literature religion and history are included to provide a sampling of the significant contexts in which the human animal bond is established What brings these divergent topics together in a meaningful way is their relevance and centrality to the contextual bonds that underlie the human animal connection This text will be a valuable resource that provides opportunities to deepen one's expertise in understanding the psychology of the human animal bond

The Adaptive Design of the Human Psyche Malcolm Owen Slavin, Daniel H. Kriegman, 1992-09-25 Addressing one of the most fundamental issues in any examination of human experience this important new work connects evolutionary biological concepts to modern psychoanalytic theory and the clinical encounter Synthesizing their years of experience in the practice of psychotherapy and psychoanalysis the authors provide a comparative psychoanalytic map of current theoretical controversies and a new way of deconstructing the hidden assumptions that underlie Freudian Ego Psychological Kleinian Object Relational Self Psychological and Interpersonal theories In so doing they provide a new vantage point from which to integrate competing models into a larger picture that more fully embraces the many facets of human nature Moreover they offer clinicians a new framework with which to understand and respond to the inevitable paradoxes and conflicts that arise in the therapeutic relationship

Expanding the Human in Human Rights Brian Gran, 2015-12-03 First Published in 2016 The global struggle for human rights has been fundamentally a struggle by oppressed groups against the structures of their oppression As such sociological work into the experiences of women racial and ethnic minorities children LGBTQ communities the mentally ill and others helps us understand the promises and challenges of pursuing human rights This book presents the fundamental insights gleaned from the scholarship on groups in society for the study of understanding of and ultimately realization of human rights

Vistas of Modernity Rolando Vázquez, 2024-11-07 We are living in a time of polarization Cultural and educational institutions are confronted with the responsibility to provide tools and spaces for critical reflection for engagement and more fundamentally for meeting and recognizing each other in our differences In this decolonial essay Rolando Vázquez introduces his critique which offers an option for thinking and doing beyond the dominant paradigms It provides a critical analysis of modernity understood broadly as the western project of civilization while it seeks to overcome the dominion of western epistemology and aesthetics and their embedded eurocentrism and anthropocentrism Importantly for decolonial thought we are all located in relation to the colonial difference that structures our modern colonial order It is only from an awareness of our positioned realities that we can enter in relation with each other that we can listen to each other and learn each other Vistas of Modernity is a new title in a series of essays commissioned by the Mondriaan Fund concerning actual topics about visual arts and cultural heritage Rolando Vázquez is co organizer of the Decolonial Summer School in Middelburg He is associate professor of Sociology at University College Roosevelt of Utrecht University in The Netherlands

Superstructuralism Richard Harland, 2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 It is easy to see that we are living in a time of rapid and radical social change It is much less easy to grasp the fact that such change will inevitably affect the nature of those disciplines that both reflect our society and help to shape it Yet this is nowhere more apparent than in the central field of what may in general terms be called literary studies New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change

To stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study

Wilderness or Home? Asebe Regassa Debelo, 2016 This book critically probes into the politics of nature conservation and commodification Building on political ecology the book argues that conservation is used by state and non state actors as an instrument of controlling multidimensional spaces of indigenous communities The study creates a nexus between the hegemonic discourse of wilderness conservation in colonial Africa and Ethiopia s appropriation of this narrative and how it internally exported it to its peripheries It found out that the successive Ethiopian regimes the imperial military and developmental state share commonalities in using nature conservation both for political control of societies and their territories and as a means of economic extraction through commodification Asebe Regassa Debelo is a graduate of the Bayreuth International Graduate School of African Studies BIGSAS Series Contributions to African Research Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 66 Subject Sociology African Studies

Film Music Juan Chattah, 2023-12-22 Film Music Cognition to Interpretation explores the dynamic counterpoint between a film s soundtrack its visuals and narrative and the audience s perception and construction of meaning Adopting a holistic approach covering both the humanities and the sciences blending cognitive psychology musical analysis behavioral neuroscience semiotics linguistics and other related fields the author examines the perceptual and cognitive processes that elicit musical meaning in film and breathe life into our cinematic experiences A clear and engaging writing style distills complex concepts theories and analytical methodologies into explanations accessible to readers from diverse disciplinary backgrounds making it an indispensable companion for scholars and students of music film studies and cognition Across ten chapters extensive appendices and hundreds of film references Film Music Cognition to Interpretation offers a new mode of analysis inviting readers to unlock a deeper understanding of the expressive power of film music

The Human-Animal Relationship as a Subject of Citizenship Education Jennifer Bloise, 2025-09-26 The aim of this book is to explore the human animal relationship as a new subject of political education and to make it accessible for critical reflection A guiding thesis is that society s relationship with animals is both political and problematic as it is shaped by power structures and rarely recognized as an issue due to its status as an unexamined norm To explore this topic the model of didactic reconstruction is employed A problem centered interview study is used to reconstruct students everyday conceptions of animals humans and their political relationship These conceptions are then compared with academic perspectives particularly from Human Animal Studies in order to uncover contradictions and taken for granted assumptions and to identify exemplary didactically fruitful approaches to the subject The author concludes that future engagement with the human animal relationship in the context of political education should be critically oriented toward power structures This would enable reflective and multi perspective political judgment on the human animal relationship making the invisible visible

Human Dignity in the Judaeo-Christian Tradition John Loughlin, 2019-07-11 Dignity is a fundamental aspect of our lives yet one we rarely pause to consider our understandings of dignity on individual collective and philosophical perspectives

shape how we think act and relate to others This book offers an historical survey of how dignity has been understood and explores the concept in the Judaeo Christian tradition World renowned contributors examine the roots of human dignity in classical Greece and Rome and the Scriptures as well as in the work of theologians such as St Thomas Aquinas and St John Paul II Further chapters consider dignity within Renaissance art and sacred music The volume shows that dignity is also a contemporary issue by analysing situations where the traditional understanding has been challenged by philosophical and policy developments To this end further essays look at the role of dignity in discussions about transhumanism religious freedom robotics and medicine Grounded in the principal Christian traditions of Catholicism Orthodoxy Anglicanism and Protestantism this book offers an interdisciplinary and cross period approach to a timely topic It validates the notion of human dignity and offers an introduction to the field while also challenging it Human Knowledge According to Saint

Maximus the Confessor Nevena Dimitrova, 2016-10-12 This book is dedicated to the synergic process of divine human communion in the humanly possible knowledge of God according to Saint Maximus the Confessor These various types of knowledge play an important but as yet unexplored role in Maximus the Confessor s teaching on God which in many respects appears to be a synthesis and culmination of the Greek patristic tradition and the antecedent of ancient pre Christian and Christian philosophy Focus on this problem brings forth the major issues of Maximus psychology the soul body relationship and a detailed examination of the cognitive capacities of the soul including the perception of the senses rational activity and operations of the mind The indivisibility of the gnoseological issues from medieval man is traced in an examination of the cognitive levels within the trichotomic structure of practical philosophy natural contemplation and theology The two methods both affirmative cataphatic and negative apophatic demonstrate the two rational discourses in human knowledge of God Special attention is given to the understanding of hexis and gnomic concepts and their crucial place in the cognitive structure leading to knowledge of God as Goodness and of God as Truth Cirpit Review 4 - 2013 Aa.
