Fifties Ethnicities Tracy Floreani, 2013-09-23 Fifties Ethnicities brings together a variety of texts to explore what it meant to be American in the middle of America's Century In a series of comparative readings that draws on novels television programs movie magazines and films Tracy Floreani crosses generic boundaries to show how literature and mass media worked to mold concepts of ethnicity in the 1950s Revisiting well known novels of the period such as Vladimir Nabokov's Lolita and Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man as well as less studied works such as William Saroyan's Rock Wagram and C Y Lee's The Flower Drum Song the original source of the more famous Rodgers and Hammerstein musical Floreani investigates how the writing of ethnic identity called into question the ways in which signifiers of Americanness also inherently privileged whiteness By putting these novels into conversation with popular media narratives such as I Love Lucy the author offers an in depth examination of the boundaries and possibilities for participating in American culture in an era that greatly influenced national ideas about identity While midcentury mass media presented an undeniably engaging vision of American success national belonging and guidelines for cultural citizenship Floreani argues that minority writers and artists were at the same also addresses the increased commodification of both the producers and consumers of television as a result of technological innovations and the introduction of new marketing techniques Affairs to Remember Bruce Babington, Peter William Evans, 1989 The Use and Abuse of Cinema Eric Rentschler, 2015-04-28 Eric Rentschler's new book The Use and Abuse of Cinema takes readers on a series of enthralling excursions through the fraught history of German cinema from the Weimar and Nazi eras to the postwar and postwall epochs and into the new millennium These journeys afford rich panoramas and nuanced close ups from a nation's production of fantasies and spectacles traversing the different ways in which the film medium has figured in Germany both as a site of creative and critical enterprise and as a locus of destructive and regressive endeavor Each of the chapters provides a stirring minidrama the cast includes prominent critics such as Siegfried Kracauer and Rudolf Arnheim postwar directors like Wolfgang Staudte Rainer Werner Fassbinder Wim Wenders and Alexander Kluge representatives of the so called Berlin School and exponents of mountain epics early sound musicals rubble films and recent heritage features A film history that is both original and unconventional Rentschler's colorful tapestry weaves together figures motifs and stories in exciting unexpected and even novelistic ways Melodrama, Masculinity and International Art Cinema Alistair Fox, 2022-10-04 This book presents a series of essays that reassess the role of melodrama in a number of touchstone films in the art cinema tradition that explore the subjective experience of a central male protagonist announcing the emergence of a genre that has progressively proliferated in contemporary cinema Case studies by such notable auteurs as Vittorio De Sica Satyajit Ray Vincente Minnelli Pier Paolo Pasolini Ingmar Bergman Francois Truffaut Jacques Demy Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Luca Guadagnino demonstrate how the art house male melodrama offers a vision of masculinity that is sexually fluid fragmented unstable and often incapacitated to the point of paralysis rather than the heroic stereotypes commonly found in popular genre cinema The Americas of Asian American Literature Rachel C. Lee, 1999-10-04 Drawing on a wide array of literary historical and theoretical sources Rachel Lee addresses current debates on the relationship among Asian American ethnic identity national belonging globalization and gender Lee argues that scholars have traditionally placed undue emphasis on ethnic based political commitments whether these are construed as national or global in their readings of Asian American texts This has constrained the intelligibility of stories that are focused less on ethnicity than on kinship family dynamics eroticism and gender roles In response Lee makes a case for a reconceptualized Asian American criticism that centrally features gender and sexuality Through a critical analysis of select literary texts novels by Carlos Bulosan Gish Jen Jessica Hagedorn and Karen Yamashita Lee probes the specific ways in which some Asian American authors have steered around ethnic themes with alternative tales circulating around gender and sexual identity Lee makes it clear that what has been missing from current debates has been an analysis of the complex ways in which gender mediates questions of both national belonging and international migration From anti miscegenation legislation in the early twentieth century to poststructuralist theories of language to Third World feminist theory to critical studies of global cultural and economic flows The Americas of Asian American Literature takes up pressing cultural and literary questions and points to a new direction in literary criticism
