Bringing Forth Christ Saint Bonaventure, 2024-03-21 Fairacres Publications 90 The short though profoundly mystical work The Five Feasts of the Child Jesus which is presented here in a new translation came from the pen of St Bonaventure Bishop and Doctor of the Church and one of the most renowned followers of St Francis of Assisi We are given five meditations on scenes in the life of Christ Contrary to what one might expect from the title however the theme of these meditations is spiritual motherhood namely the doctrine concerning the mystical birth of God's Word in the soul and the vocation of every Christian to become a mother of Christ Men and women alike are invited to fashion their spiritual lives on Mary the Mother of the Lord and the image of the Church and to develop the maternal element in their nature St Bonaventure brought the skills of a poet and a theologian to his task his work belongs to the rich heritage of Franciscan spirituality it is also a minor classic of the spiritual tradition of western Christianity and has a message pertinent to our times

Theology and Spirituality Andrew Louth, 2024-04-23 Fairacres Publications 55 For centuries theology and spirituality have been divorced as if mysticism were for the saintly and theological study for the practical but unsaintly to paraphrase Thomas Merton So Archpriest Louth writes The theologian is one who prays and one who thinks about the object of his loving prayer So part of the formation of a theologian is the study of spirituality not just as another branch of the history of doctrine or whatever but as a deepening of their own life of prayer This book seeks to show that theology even the rigorous academic theology and spirituality belong together and isolated suffer disintegration and atrophy It does this by suggesting that contemplation lies at the heart of both theology and spirituality and includes an examination of the place of the contemplative in the thought of Diadochus of Photice
