Charlie Chaplin Adolphe Nysenholc, 2014-07-24 No detailed description available for Charlie Chaplin Six Men Alistair Cooke, 2015-03-03 Drawing on a lifetime of journalistic encounters with the great and the famous Alistair Cooke profiles the six extraordinary men who impressed him the most Over the course of his sixty year career as a broadcaster television host and newspaper reporter Alistair Cooke met many remarkable people of the twentieth century This entertaining and insightful collection shares his unique often startling personal vision of six key figures from the worlds of literature entertainment and politics They are Charlie Chaplin whom Cooke befriended in Hollywood and who courted controversy in his politics and romances the charming yet naive Edward VIII whose love affair changed the course of World War II Humphrey Bogart the first antihero hero onscreen and a sensitive gentleman at home H L Mencken brilliant inspirational and deeply flawed Adlai Stevenson whom Cooke labeled the failed saint and Bertrand Russell who had the courage and the audacity to try to make the world a better place The subjects of Six Men are united by the deep complexities of their characters In balancing informed details of their lives with an objectivity set against the ever changing landscape of their times Six Men is a master course in the art of concise biography Talk About America, 1951-1968 Alistair Cooke, 2015-03-03 There is never going to be anyone else like Cooke a chronicler of amazing times The Daily Telegraph As the voice of the BBC's Letter from America for close to six decades Alistair Cooke addressed several millions of listeners on five continents They tuned in every Friday evening or Sunday morning to listen to his erudite and entertaining reports on life in the United States According to Lord Hill of Luton chairman of the BBC Cooke had a virtuosity approaching genius in talking about America in human terms This second collection of Cooke's personally selected letters covers tumultuous events in American history such as the Vietnam War and the civil rights movement His analysis of the origins of the conflict in Vietnam is clear eyed and compelling and in three thoughtful and incisive essays on Brown v Board of Education the struggle to integrate the Deep South and the riots in Watts Cooke identifies the changing racial attitudes that defined the era He reflects on the rise of drug use among college students and offers a paean to the beauty of Golden Gate Park With characteristically incisive portraits of political and cultural figures such as John F Kennedy Lyndon Johnson Robert Frost H L Mencken Charles Lindbergh and John Glenn Talk About America 1951-1968 is rich with humor compassion and commitment In this superb overview of an astonishing era in America's twentieth century Alistair Cooke is at the top of his game A Beautiful Fairy Tale Richard P. Buller, 2005-07 Limelight Coming of age in Paris in the 1920s film and stage actress Lois Moran was a rumored paramour of writer F Scott Fitzgerald and the inspiration for the character of Rosemary in his Tender Is the Night As a young girl Lois moved to Paris with her mother and thrived in the artistic and literary glow of the city She danced with the National Paris Opera at age 14 and also was cast in two French films Samuel Goldwyn on a European tour in search of new talent saw her work and was impressed He cast her in what would become one of the best known films of the era With her performance as Laurel the emotionally conflicted daughter in Stella Dallas Lois Moran became an overnight sensation and took Hollywood by storm and on her own terms The author corresponded with Lois Moran during the last five years of her life He had full and exclusive access to her journals scrapbooks and photos In telling the Lois Moran story Buller illuminates the history of film theater and television He also includes a thorough and unique account of the actress's relationship with Fitzgerald HARDCOVER

The Patient Has the Floor Alistair Cooke, 2014-08-19 Masterful essays by one of the most distinctive voices in broadcast journalism In his Letter from America reports for the BBC and as the host of PBS's Masterpiece Theatre Alistair Cooke addressed millions of people all over the world every week The fourteen essays collected here each of which was first delivered as a speech showcase the wit charm and eloquence of Cooke's voice in more intimate but no less intimidating settings In exclusive forums as varied as the Mayo Clinic and a conference of British and American scholars investigating the state of the language Cooke eagerly challenges expert opinions and delightfully skewers the pretensions of the powerful Addressing the House of Representatives on the bicentennial of the Continental Congress he warns against the dangers of sentimentalizing history and wryly notes that practically every man who signed the Declaration of Independence is at this moment being measured for a halo or at worst a T shirt At the Royal College of Surgeons in London he compares his listeners to armed robbers and to the disreputable half of that infamous duo Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde If I could be benevolent dictator of the United States for a year he informs the National Trust for Historic Preservation I should provide several million jobs for the wrecking industry No one played the devil's advocate with as much grace and good humor as did Alistair Cooke The Patient Has the Floor is an eminently quotable testament to his extraordinary talents as a journalist scholar and public speaker

Letters from America, 1946-1951 Alistair Cooke, 2015-03-03 Cooke is one of the most gifted and urbane essayists of the century a supreme master The Spectator As the voice of the BBC's Letter from America for close to six decades Alistair Cooke addressed several millions of listeners on five continents They tuned in every Friday evening or Sunday morning to listen to his erudite and entertaining reports on life in the United States According to Lord Hill of Luton chairman of the BBC Cooke had a virtuosity approaching genius in talking about America in human terms Letters from America 1946-1951 contains highlights from the first five years of Alistair Cooke's legendary BBC radio program years when listeners were eager to put the horrors of World War II behind them Cooke's lively and illuminating dispatches from New York perfectly capture the spirit of the times From the significance of Labor Day to reflections on the changing seasons to the heroic Long Island duck that saved two people from drowning little escapes the broadcaster's sharp reportorial eye and affable wit This collection includes Cooke's historical tour of Washington DC and his thoughts on why New York is such a singular city and covers more serious topics such as the Soviet threat and the anxieties of the atomic age Always captivating Cooke treats the reader to profiles of Joe Louis and Will Rogers and reflections on Damon Runyon's America and concludes with a Letter to an Intending Immigrant Letters from America 1946-1951 the first volume of Cooke's iconic broadcasts offers a captivating journey through culture history and politics and is a classic of twentieth century journalism

Memories of the Great & the Good Alistair Cooke, 2015-03-03 Alistair Cooke knew met interviewed or reported on many of the most influential men and women of the twentieth century and in this collection profiles the twenty three he considered the most remarkable In his career of more than fifty years broadcasting the BBC radio program Letter from America and as the US correspondent for the Guardian for more than twenty five years Alistair Cooke met and mixed with many famous people In Memories of the Great the Good he shares his portraits of the men and women that he felt made the world a better more stimulating place We read about Franklin D Roosevelt s maintenance of his public image by means of a gentleman s agreement with the press and Lyndon Johnson s masterful backroom dealings Eisenhower at Gettysburg reveals a conversation between Cooke and the president touching on everything from their mutual love of golf to what it was like to grow up in a small Kansas farming town at the turn of the twentieth century Literary figures including P G Wodehouse Erma Bombeck and George Bernard Shaw are succinctly sketched And in the final pair of essays Cooke pays moving tribute to two of the men he admired the most Winston Churchill and golfing legend Bobby Jones

H.L. Mencken Vincent Fitzpatrick, 2004 Over a career that spanned half of a century Henry Louis Mencken published more than 10 million words More than a million were written about him many of which Mencken liked to remark were highly condemnatory He was called with good reason the most powerful private citizen in America during the 1920s This lively introduction to Mencken s life and work begins with a concise biographical portrait before proceeding to a consideration of the five major periods of the renowned Baltimorean s career his literary apprenticeship the growth of his national reputation his fame and unprecedented popularity during the 1920s when college students would flash the Paris green cover of the American Mercury as a badge of sophistication the decline of his reputation during the Depression and his renewed popularity during the 1940s with the publication of his autobiographical trilogy the Days books In discussing this varied career Vincent Fitzpatrick touches upon all the roles that Mencken played journalist editor redoubtable critic of literature culture and politics philologist and autobiographer Drawing upon Mencken s extensive correspondence of more than 100 000 letters the book stresses his unflagging belief in the need for free speech up to the limits of common decency Indeed in the end Mencken proved a significant American civil libertarian Iconoclast critic satirist individualist H L Mencken offered unique insights into American life His lifelong celebration of the freedom to dissent marks his most enduring contribution to a nation that gave him such a wealth of material and so much delight
