Studies In Documentary:

Ten Years of Studies in Documentary Film Deane Williams, 2018-08-29 This volume will be a time capsule of the first 10 years of Studies in Documentary Film 2007-2016 tracing not only the development of the journal but also of documentary studies in the same period. Issues such as the rise of digital documentary forms and authorship, documentary activism and the Chinese Independent documentary as well as diverse political issues will be raised in the introduction and evidenced in the articles. The chapters have been chosen for the various themes they raise in documentary studies but also the broader field of documentary scholarship including publishing and the rise of the internet as a powerful force in documentary studies.

Studies in Documentary Alan Lovell, Jim Hillier, 1972

100 Documentary Films Barry Keith Grant, Jim

Hillier, 2019-07-25 Documentary films constitute a major part of film history. Cinema's origins lie arguably more in non-fiction than fiction and documentary represents the other, often submerged and barely visible half of cinema history. Historically, documentary cinema has always been an important point of reference for fiction cinema and the two have often overlapped. Over the last two decades, documentary cinema has enjoyed a revival in critical and commercial success. 100 Documentary Films is the first book to offer concise and authoritative individual critical commentaries on some of the key documentary films from the Lumière brothers and the beginnings of cinema through to recent films such as Bowling for Columbine and When the Levees Broke and is global in perspective. Many different types of documentary are discussed as well as films by major documentary directors including Robert Flaherty, Humphrey Jennings, Jean Rouch, Dziga Vertov, Errol Morris, Nick Broomfield and Michael Moore. Each entry provides concise critical analysis while frequent cross-reference to other films featured helps to place films in their historical and aesthetic contexts. Barry Keith Grant is Professor of Film Studies and Popular Culture at Brock University, Ontario, Canada. He is the author of Film Genre: From Iconography to Ideology (2007), Voyages of Discovery: The Cinema of Frederick Wiseman (1992) and co-author with Steve Blandford and Jim Hillier of The Film Studies Dictionary (2001). Jim Hillier is Visiting Lecturer in Film at the University of Reading. He is the author of The New Hollywood (1993), the co-author of The Film Studies Dictionary (2001) and with Alan Lovell of Studies in Documentary (1972). His edited books include American Independent Cinema (2001) and two volumes of the English translation of the selected Cahiers du cinéma (1985, 1986).

Documentary Research in the Social Sciences Malcolm Tight, 2019-04-01 From diaries and letters to surveys and interview transcripts, documents are a cornerstone of social science research. This book guides you through the documentary research process from choosing the best research design through data collection and analysis to publishing and sharing research findings. Using extensive case studies and examples, it situates documentary research within a current context and empowers you to use this method to meet new challenges like digital research and big data head-on. In a jargon-free style perfect for beginner researchers, this book helps you to interrogate documentary material in meaningful ways. Choose the best research design for your project from literature reviews to policy research. Understand a range of approaches including quantitative qualitative and mixed methods Accessible clear and focused this book gives you the tools to conduct your own documentary research and celebrates the importance of documentary analysis across the social sciences

Documentary's Awkward Turn Jason Middleton, 2013-12-04 Despite the prominence of awkwardness as cultural buzzword and descriptor of a sub genre of contemporary film and television comedy it has yet to be adequately theorized in academic film and media studies Documentary's Awkward Turn contributes a new critical paradigm to the field by presenting an analysis of awkward moments in documentary film and other reality based media formats It examines difficult and disrupted encounters between social actors on the screen between filmmaker and subject and between film and spectator These encounters are of course often inter connected Awkward moments occur when an established mode of representation or reception is unexpectedly challenged stalled or altered when an interviewee suddenly confronts the interviewer when a subject who had been comfortable on camera begins to feel trapped in the frame when a film perceived as a documentary turns out to be a parodic mockumentary This book makes visible the ways in which awkwardness connects and subtends a range of transformative textual strategies political and ethical problematics and modalities of spectatorship in documentary film and media from the 1970s to the present
