Studies In Ideology Essays On Culture And Subjectivity:

Studies in Ideology J. M. Beach, 2005 In Studies in Ideology poet and theorist J M Beach delivers a comprehensive analysis of the history and theory of ideology The narrow concept of ideology has traditionally been lodged in the domain of Marxist political theory but Beach reaches past Marxism to focus on the wide definition of ideology which can be basically summarized as all theory is ideological Beach strays from the Marxist totalizing and determinist narratives to deliver a discussion of ideology as process which takes its lead from Gramsci and analyzes the intricate and complicated mechanisms of individual subject formation in relation to dominant dominating social modes of meaning productions Beach offers his theory of ideology in conjunction with an extensive reading of history and contemporary affairs and ends the book with a brief biographical sketch of his own intellectual maturation which is imbedded within a daring and timely critique of Christianity Publisher's website

María Zambrano Beatriz Caballero Rodríguez, 2017-02-01 Mar a Zambrano is widely regarded as one of the most original Spanish thinkers of the twentieth century Her biggest contribution to intellectual history is without doubt her poetic reason and unique attempt to overcome the limiting coordinates of the framework of rationality established by the Enlightenment Having spent forty five years in exile the relevance of this Spanish Republican thinker has only been recognised in recent decades and this monograph explores the political dimension present throughout her work to argue for it as one of her key motivations This monograph therefore reveals the political dimension inherent to Zambrano's proposal for an alternative rationality that is poetic reason and to this end this book questions existing assumptions regarding Zambrano's thought and reframes it with its emphasis on the pivotal role of reason

Ethics and Science Education: How Subjectivity Matters Jesse Bazzul, 2016-05-24 This book encapsulates a line of research that looks at how students are positioned as ethical actors decision makers in biology education by science policy curriculum and classroom resources Its basis comes from a textbook study that examined how biology texts work to constitute subjectivities related to neoliberalism and global capitalism sex gender and sexuality and ethics The study found that textbook discourses set limits on a the types of ethical concerns represented b the modes of ethical engagement c the dispositions necessary to engage in ethical action or decision making Policy reform regulation and personal lifestyle choices were the primary ways students could approach ethical decision making or action While these approaches are useful they are likely not sufficient for dealing with major twenty first century problems such as climate change and social inequality along with new ethical dimensions introduced by biotechnologies and genomic research This research brief sets a context for how discourses of science education policy and curricula work to shape a subject of ethics that is how students come to see themselves as participants in issues of ethical concern Drawing from a structural poststructural philosophical approach Science and Technology Studies educational research and a methodology based on discourse analysis and ethnography this book's overall goal is to assist with research into subjectivity ethics politics policy and socioscientific issues in science education

Subjectivity, Language and the Postcolonial Hannah Botsis, 2017-11-10 In Subjectivity Language and the Postcolonial Hannah Botsis draws on theoretical work that exists at the intersection of critical social psychology sociolinguistics and the political economy of language to examine the relationships between language subjectivity materiality and political context The book foregrounds the ways in which the work of Bourdieu could be read in conjunction with poststructural theorists such as Butler and Derrida to offer a critical understanding of subjectivity language and power in postcolonial contexts This critical engagement with theorists traditionally from outside of psychology allows for a situated approach to understanding the embodied and symbolic possibilities and constraints for the postcolonial subject This exploration opens up how micro politics of power are refracted through ideological categories such as language race and class in post apartheid South Africa Also drawing on the empirical findings of original research undertaken in the South African context on students linguistic biographies the book offers a unique perspective critical social theory is brought to bear on the empirical linguistic biographies of postcolonial subjects offering insight into how power is negotiated in the postcolonial symbolic economy Ideal for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students on courses including social psychology sociolinguistics sociology politics and education this is an invaluable resource for students and researchers alike

Literary into Cultural Studies Antony Easthope, 2003-09-02 Modern Literary study was founded on an opposition between the canon and its other popular culture The theory wars of the 1970s and the 1980s and in particular the advent of structuralist and post structuralist theory transformed this relationship With the death of literature the distinction between high and popular culture was no longer tenable and the field of inquiry shifted from literary into cultural studies Anthony Easthope argues that this new discipline must find a methodological consensus for its analysis of canonical and popular texts Through a detailed criticism of competing theories British cultural studies New Historicism cultural materialism he shows how this new study should and should not be done Easthope's exploration of the problems possibilities and politics of this new discipline includes an original reassessment of the question of literary value By contrasting Conrad's Heart of Darkness with Burroughs's Tarzan of the Apes Easthope demonstrates how textuality sustains the opposition between high and popular culture darkness

Contested Culture Jane M. Gaines, 2000-11-09 Jane M Gaines examines the phenomenon of images as property focusing on the legal status of mechanically produced visual and audio images from popular culture Bridging the fields of critical legal studies and cultural studies she analyzes copyright trademark and intellectual property law asking how the law constructs works of authorship and who owns the country's cultural heritage

The Charmed Circle of Ideology Geoff Boucher, 2009-03 Set against the collapse of social theory into a theory of ideological discourse Geoff Boucher sets to work a rigorous mapping of the contemporary field targeting the relativist implications of this new form of philosophical idealism Offering a detailed and immanent critique Boucher concentrates his critical attention on the postmarxism of Laclau and Mouffe Butler and i ek In response Boucher points to intersubjectivity as an exit from postmarxist theory s charmed circle of ideology The Symbolic, the Sublime, and Slavoj Zizek's Theory of Film M. Flisfeder,2016-01-20 Returning to questions about ideology and subjectivity Flisfeder argues that Slavoj i ek s theory of film aims to re politicize film studies and film theory bringing cinema into the fold of twenty first century politics

Understanding Children's Literature Peter Hunt,2005 Edited by Peter Hunt a leading figure in the field this book introduces the study of children s literature addressing theoretical questions as well as the most relevant critical approaches to the discipline The fourteen chapters draw on insights from academic disciplines ranging from cultural and literary studies to education and psychology and include an essay on what writers for children think about their craft The result is a fascinating array of perspectives on key topics in children s literature as well as an introduction to such diverse concerns as literacy ideology stylistics feminism history culture and bibliotherapy An extensive general bibliography is complemented by lists of further reading for each chapter and a glossary defines critical and technical terms making the book accessible for those coming to the field or to a particular approach for the first time In this second edition there are four entirely new chapters contributors have revisited and revised or rewritten seven of the chapters to reflect new thinking while the remaining three are classic essays widely acknowledged to be definitive Understanding Children s Literature will not only be an invaluable guide for students of literature or education but it will also inform and enrich the practice of teachers and librarians

Stuart Hall Lives: Cultural Studies in an Age of Digital Media Peter Decherney,Katherine Sender,2018-10-18 The work of cultural and political theorist Stuart Hall a pioneer of Cultural Studies who passed away in 2014 remains more relevant than ever In Stuart Hall Lives scholars engage with Hall s most enduring essays including Encoding Decoding and Notes on Deconstructing the Popular bringing them into the context of the 21st century Different chapters consider resistant media consumers online journalism debates around the American Confederate flag and rainbow flags the OscarsSoWhite controversy and contemporary moral panics The book also includes Hall s important essay on French theorist Louis Althusser which is introduced here by Lawrence Grossberg and Jennifer Slack Finally two reminiscences by one of Hall s former colleagues and one of his former students offer wide ranging reflections on his years as director of Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies at the University of Birmingham UK and as head of the Department of Sociology at The Open University Together the contributions paint a picture of a brilliant theorist whose work and legacy is as vital as ever This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies in Media Communication
