Studies in the History and Methods of the Sciences Arthur David Ritchie,1958 Research Methods for History Simon Gunn,2011-11-30 The first guide to the sources techniques and concepts needed for effective historical research While historians have become increasingly sensitive to social and cultural theory since the 1980s the actual methods by which research is carried out in History have been largely taken for granted Research Methods for History encourages those researching the past to think creatively about the wide range of methods currently in use to understand how these methods are used and what historical insights they can provide The book covers sources and methods that are well established in History such as archival research together with those that are less widely known The themes of the different chapters have been selected to reflect recent trends in the subject Even with more established methods however the aim is to present new insights and perspectives and to open researchers minds to new methodological possibilities New Method of Studying History Nicolas Lenglet Dufresnoy,1728 A New Method of Studying History, Geography, and Chronology Nicolas Lenglet Dufresnoy,1730 A Letter Concerning the Use and Method of Studying History John Petvin,1753 Research Methods for English Studies Gabriele Griffin,2013-09-13 With a revised Introduction and with all chapters revised to bring them completely up to date this new edition remains the leading guide to research methods for final year undergraduates postgraduates taking Masters degrees and PhDs students of 19th and 20th century Literary Studies The History of U.S. Higher Education - Methods for Understanding the Past Marybeth Gasman,2013-10-14 The first volume in the Core Concepts of Higher Education series The History of U S Higher Education Methods for Understanding the Past is a unique research methods textbook that provides students with an understanding of the processes that historians use when conducting their own research Written primarily for graduate students in higher education programs this book explores critical methodological issues in the history of American higher education including race class gender and sexuality Chapters include Reflective Exercises that combine theory and practice Research Method Tips Further Reading Suggestions Leading historians and those at the forefront of new research explain how historical literature is discovered and written and provide readers with the methodological approaches to conduct historical higher education research of their own GERMAN HIGHER SCHOOLS THE HISTORY, ORGANIZATION AND METHODS OF SECONDARY EDUCATION IN GERMANY JAMES E. fever or lung cancer The papers present the design of prospective and retrospective studies and the concepts of bias confounding and interaction The compilation of articles is complemented by an introduction and comments by Prof Alfredo Morabia which puts them in the context of current epidemiological research Methodology and Method in History (RLE Accounting) Lee D. Parker,Finley O. Graves,2013-12-04 This bibliography provides the reader with a comprehensive reference tool that will enhance understanding of methodological issues and enable the user to employ research methods appropriate to their subject of study It also provides accounting historians a comprehensive data base for the development of papers addressing methodological issues in an accounting history context Access to this type of resource is particularly crucial to the development of accounting history research since the number of papers dealing with methodological issues published in accounting history literature is very small Hence the references in this bibliography are drawn from the literature of general history economic and business history legal and social history and philosophy The scope and range of its contents are broad references are taken from texts as well as papers published in over 450 journals Systems of Education: a History and Criticism of the Principles, Methods, Organization John Gill,1903 New Methods for Social History Larry J.
