The Archaeology of Cyprus A. Bernard Knapp, 2013-03-18 This book examines the archaeology of Cyprus from the first known human presence during the Late Epipalaeolithic through the end of the Bronze Age Mortuary Ritual and Society in Bronze Age Cyprus Priscilla Keswani, 2004 A ground breaking investigation of burial practices and social transformations in the era when Cypriot agricultural communities moved from village to urban life and became major players in the eastern Mediterranean copper trade The author develops an innovative theoretical and methodological approach that enables her to define and elucidate the shifting spatial relationships between tombs and habitation areas the elaboration of rituals involving secondary treatment and collective burial and changing patterns of mortuary expenditure and symbolism throughout the Bronze Age Keswani proposes that during the Early Middle Bronze periods the growing elaboration of mortuary festivities and their crucial importance in negotiating status hierarchies contributed to the intensification of Cypriot copper production and the expansion of interregional exchange relations Subsequent changes in mortuary practice suggest that the importance of collective burial rites and traditional modes of ritual display diminished over the course of the Late Bronze Age as urban institutions multiplied and the bases of social prestige were transformed The Armenian Church of Famagusta and the Complexity of Cypriot Heritage Michael J.K. Walsh, 2017-04-27 This book explores seven centuries of change in Cyprus and the Eastern Mediterranean world through the rise and fall of Famagusta's medieval Armenian Church An examination of the complex and its art escorts the reader from the era of the Crusades in Lusignan Cyprus through the rise and fall of the Venetian Ottoman and British Empires to the political stasis of the present day The Armenian church was a home for displaced villagers during the post independence era became a military storage facility post 1974 and eventually fell into abandonment once again This study represents a pioneering history of the Armenian community in Famagusta and a probing analysis of the art and architecture it left behind It is also a permanent record of the long term engagement and commitment of Nanyang Technological University Singapore the World Monuments Fund and the Famagusta Municipality to protect this precious site under extremely challenging circumstances All Things Cypriot Zuzana Chovanec, Walter Crist, 2021 Eighteen chapters on the legacy and influence of Stuart Swiny in Cypriot archaeology focusing on the environment technology and society of ancient Cyprus Processions: Studies of Bronze Age Ritual and Ceremony presented to Robert B.
