Studies In Indo Muslim History Volume 1:

Al-Hind, Volume 1 Early Medieval India and the Expansion of Islam 7th-11th Centuries André Wink, 2021-10-25
In this volume Andr Wink analyzes the beginning of the process of momentous and long term change that came with the Islamization of the regions that the Arabs called al Hind India and large parts of its Indianized hinterland In the seventh to eleventh centuries the expansion of Islam had a largely commercial impact on al Hind In the peripheral states of the Indian subcontinent fluid resources intensive raiding and trading activity as well as social and political fluidity and openness produced a dynamic impetus that was absent in the densely settled agricultural heartland Shifts of power occurred in combination with massive transfers of wealth across multiple centers along the periphery of al Hind These multiple centers mediated between the world of mobile wealth on the Islamic Sino Tibetan frontier which extended into Southeast Asia and the world of sedentary agriculture epitomized by brahmanical temple Hinduism in and around Kanauj in the heartland The growth and development of a world economy in and around the Indian Ocean with India at its center and the Middle East and China as its two dynamic poles was effected by continued economic social and cultural integration into ever wider and more complex patterns under the aegis of Islam Please note that Early medieval India and the expansion of Islam 7th 11th centuries was previously published by Brill in hardback ISBN 90 04 09249 8 still available The Cambridge Economic History of India: Volume 1, C.1200-c.1750 Tapan Raychaudhuri, Irfan Habib, Dharma Kumar, 1982 Examines the history of India during the period c 1200 c 1750 [Christian-Muslim Relations. Muslim Rule in Medieval India

Fouzia Farooq Ahmed,2016-09-27

The Delhi Sultanate ruled northern India for over three centuries The era marked by the desecration of temples and construction of mosques from temple rubble is for many South Asians a lightning rod for debates on communalism religious identity and inter faith conflict

Using Persian and Arabic manuscripts epigraphs and inscriptions Fouzia Farooq Ahmad demystifies key aspects of governance and religion in this complex and controversial period

Why were small sets of foreign invaders and administrators able to dominate despite the cultural linguistic and religious divides separating them from the ruled

And to what extent did people comply with the authority of sultans they knew very little about

By focusing for the first time on the relationship between the sultans the bureaucracy and the ruled

Muslim Rule in Medieval India outlines the practical dynamics of medieval Muslim political culture and its reception

This approach shows categorically that sultans did not possess meaningful political authority among the masses and that their symbols of legitimacy were merely post hoc socio cultural embellishments

Ahmad s thoroughly researched revisionist account is essential reading for all students and researchers working on the history of South Asia from the medieval period to the present day

Esoteric Buddhism in Mediaeval Maritime Asia

Andrea Acri,2016-09-05

This volume advocates a trans regional and maritime focused approach to studying the genesis development and circulation of Esoteric or Tantric Buddhism across Maritime Asia from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries ce

The book lays emphasis on the mobile networks of human agents through which Esoteric Buddhist traditions spread

Capitalising on recent research and making use of both disciplinary and area focused perspectives this book highlights the role played by Esoteric Buddhist maritime networks in shaping intra Asian connectivity In doing so it reveals the limits of a historiography that is premised on land based transmission of Buddhism from a South Asian homeland and advances an alternative historical narrative that overturns the popular perception regarding Southeast Asia as a periphery that passively received overseas influences Thus a strong point is made for the appreciation of the region as both a crossroads and rightful terminus of Buddhist cults and for the re evaluation of the creative and transformative force of Southeast Asian agents in the transmission of Esoteric Buddhism across mediaeval Asia

The Legacy of Jihad Andrew G. Bostom, M.D.,2010-12-29 This book reveals how for well over a millennium and across three continents Asia Africa and Europe non Muslims who were vanquished by jihad wars became forced tributaries called dhimmi in Arabic in lieu of being slain Under the dhimmi religious caste system non Muslims were subjected to legal and financial oppression as well as social isolation Extensive primary and secondary source materials many translated here for the first time into English are presented making clear that jihad conquests were brutal imperialist advances which spurred waves of Muslims to expropriate a vast expanse of lands and subdue millions of indigenous peoples Finally the book examines how jihad war as a permanent and uniquely Islamic institution ultimately regulates the relations of Muslims with non Muslims to this day Scholars educators and interested lay readers will find this collection an invaluable resource

Culture of Encounters Audrey Truschke,2016-03-01 Culture of Encounters documents the fascinating exchange between the Persian speaking Islamic elite of the Mughal Empire and traditional Sanskrit scholars which engendered a dynamic idea of Mughal rule essential to the empire s survival This history begins with the invitation of Brahman and Jain intellectuals to King Akbar s court in the 1560s then details the numerous Mughal backed texts they and their Mughal interlocutors produced under emperors Akbar Jahangir 1605 1627 and Shah Jahan 1628 1658 Many works including Sanskrit epics and historical texts were translated into Persian elevating the political position of Brahmans and Jains and cultivating a voracious appetite for Indian writings throughout the Mughal world The first book to read these Sanskrit and Persian works in tandem Culture of Encounters recasts the Mughal Empire as a polyglot polity that collaborated with its Indian subjects to envision its sovereignty The work also reframes the development of Brahman and Jain communities under Mughal rule which coalesced around carefully selected politically salient memories of imperial interaction Along with its groundbreaking findings Culture of Encounters certifies the critical role of the sociology of empire in building the Mughal polity which came to irrevocably shape the literary and ruling cultures of early modern India

A History of Christianity in India Stephen Neill,1984 Christians form the third largest religious community in India How has this come about There are many studies of separate groups but there has so far been no major history of the three large groups Roman Catholic Protestant and Thomas Christians Syrians This work attempts to meet the need for such a history It goes right back to the beginning and traces the story through the ups and downs of at least fifteen centuries It includes careful studies of the political and social background and of the non Christian reactions to the Christian message The narration is non technical and should present few difficulties to the thoughtful reader the more technical matters are dealt with in notes and appendices This book will be of interest to all students of Church History and will also prove fascinating to many who are concerned with the development of Christianity as a world religion and in the dialogue between different forms of faith Religion and Society in Arab Sind Derryl N. MacLean, 2023-10-20 Monographs and Theoretical Studies in Sociology and Anthropology in Honour of Nels Anderson was published between 1972 and 1989 Nels Anderson was a pioneer in the study of the homeless In the early 1920s Anderson combined his own experience on the bummary with his keen sociological insight to give voice to a largely ignored underclass He remains an extraordinary and underrated figure in the history of American sociology On Hobos and Homelessness includes Anderson's rich and vibrant ethnographic work of a world of homeless men The series was integrated in International Studies in Sociology and Social Anthropology in 1990 A Book of Conquest Manan Ahmed Asif, 2016-09-19 Manan Ahmed Asif shows that the Chachnama is a sophisticated work of political theory embedded in both the Indic and Islamic ethos His social and intellectual history of this text offers an important corrective to the divisions between Muslim and Hindu that so often define Pakistani and Indian politics today Encountering Buddhism and Islam in Premodern Central and South Asia Blain Auer, Ingo Strauch, 2019-08-19 This volume brings together a variety of historians epigraphists philologists art historians and archaeologists to address the understanding of the encounter between Buddhist and Muslim communities in South and Central Asia during the medieval period The articles collected here provoke a fresh look at the relevant sources The main areas touched by this new research can be divided into five broad categories deconstructing scholarship on Buddhist Muslim interactions cultural and religious exchanges perceptions of the other transmission of knowledge and trade and economics The subjects covered are wide ranging and demonstrate the vast challenges involved in dealing with historical social cultural and economic frameworks that span Central and South Asia of the premodern world We hope that the results show promise for future research produced on Buddhist and Muslim encounters The intended audience is specialists in Asian Studies Buddhist Studies and Islamic Studies Teaching the Global Middle Ages Geraldine Heng, 2022-10-28 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching literature and culture of the medieval world including legends about Alexander and Prester John and contact points such as the Silk Road and the Mongol Empire Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature history religion and languages Includes a list of resources A Synthesis of Time Konstantinos Retsikas, 2020-02-07 This book is an anthropological investigation into the different forms the economy assumes and the different purposes it serves when conceived from the perspective of Islamic micro finance as a field of everyday practice It is based on long term ethnographic research in Java Indonesia with Islamic foundations active in managing zakat and other charitable funds for purposes of poverty alleviation The book explores the social foundations of contemporary Islamic practices that strive to encompass the economic within an expanded domain of divine worship and elucidates the effects such encompassment has on time its fissure and synthesis In order to elaborate on the question of time the book looks beyond anthropology and Islamic studies engaging attentively critically and productively with the post structuralist work of G Deleuze M Foucault and J Derrida three of the most important figures of the temporal turn in contemporary philosophy

Domestic Nationalism Chiara Formichi, 2025-10-28 Chiara Formichi argues that Muslim women in Java and Sumatra from the late 1910s to the 1950s were central to Indonesia's progress as guardians and promoters of health and piety through gendered activities of care work While sidelined in the Dutch colonial project of hygienic modernity women's labor of social reproduction became increasingly visible Women from all walks of life were called upon to fulfill domestic and motherly roles for the production and socialization of laborers soldiers and citizens The medicalization of cleanliness intersecting with multiple patriarchal orders marginalized women's traditional influence and knowledge However leveraging the critical importance of infant care cleanliness and nutrition women pushed against the boundaries imposed on them by the colonial and postcolonial state Largely absent from government archives their words and acts are evident in vernacular magazines and visual sources drawn from official outreach news and lifestyle media and advertisements Women writers rearticulated scientific mothering nationalist maternalism and Islamic ideals of motherhood to create a public voice through gendered care work Domestic Nationalism proposes that as the modern Indonesian nation state took shape capitalizing on the public function of mothering so did homemaking become a crossroads of national and international approaches to development blurring nonaligned self reliance and global capitalist interests

History of Muslim Civilization in India and Pakistan Sheikh Mohamad Ikram, 1989 Islam and the Malay-Indonesian World Peter G. Riddell, 2001-09-30 This highly informative and insightful study opens numerous windows into the history of Islamic religious thought in the Malay Indonesian world from the thirteenth to the late twentieth century The author begins by addressing theological issues relevant to the wider Islamic world then examines Malay Indonesian Islamic thought in the pre twentieth century period and Islamic religious thought in Southeast Asia in the modern era

The Material With The Spiritual And Reach Out And Cement The Foundations Of Love And Mysticism That Ultimately Unite All Of Humanity Routledge Handbook of Freedom of Religion or Belief Silvio Ferrari, Mark Hill QC, Arif A Jamal, Rossella Bottoni, 2020-11-29 Freedom of religion is an issue of universal interest and scope However in the last two centuries at least the philosophical religious and legal terms of the question have been largely defined in the West In an increasingly global world widening our knowledge of this right s roots in different cultural and legal systems becomes a priority This Handbook seeks to attain this goal through a better understanding of the historical roots and expressions of the right to freedom of religion on the one hand and on the other of its theological background in different religious traditions History and theology provide the setting for the analysis of the politics of freedom of religion that is how this right is used in the context of the dialogue confrontation between countries placed in different cultural regions of the world and of the legal strategies and tools that have been developed and are employed to protect and foster the right to freedom of religion Behind these legal and political strategies there is an ongoing debate about the nature of this right whose main features are explored in the final section Global historical and interdisciplinary in approach this book studies the new relevance of freedom of religion worldwide and develops suitable categories to analyze and understand the role that freedom of religion can play in managing religious and cultural diversity in our societies Authored by experts through the contributions collected in these chapters scholars and students will be able to broaden and deepen their knowledge of the right to freedom of religion and to develop the ability to go beyond the borders of the different cultural environments in which this right took shape and developed Studies in Indo-Muslim History by S.H. Hodivala Shahpurshah Hormasji Hodivala, 2019 In the field of medieval Indian historiography an eight volume magnum opus History of India as Told by Its Own Historians by Sir Henry Myers Elliot 1808 53 and the editor compiler of his posthumous papers John Dowson 1820 81 was published from London between 1867 and 1877 These landmark volumes continue to retain their popularity even nearly hundred and fifty years later and scholars still learn from and conduct their research on the basis of this work However an enterprise of this scale and magnitude was bound to suffer from some serious shortcomings An eminent Indian scholar S H Hodivala undertook the daunting task of annotating Elliot and Dowson s volumes and worked through all the new material selecting or criticizing and adding his own suggestions where previous comments did not exist or appeared unsuitable The first volume of Hodivala s annotated Studies was published in 1939 while the second was published posthumously in 1957 Over the years while the work of Elliot and Dowson has seen many reprints and is even available online now Hodivala s volumes have receded into obscurity A new edition is presented here for the first time Hodivala also published critical commentaries on 238 of about 2000 entries included in another very famous work Hobson Jobson London 1886 by Sir Henry Yule 1820 89 and Arthur Coke Burnell 1840 82 These have also been included in the present edition These volumes are thus aimed at serving as an indispensable compendium of both Elliot and Dowson s and for Yule and Burnell s excellent contributions of colonial scholarship At the same time these would also serve as a guide for comparative studies and critical appreciation of historical texts Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
