Attention and Distraction in Modern German Literature, Thought, and Culture Carolin Duttlinger, 2022 This wide ranging interdisciplinary study traces the intertwined histories of attention and distraction from the eighteenth century to the present day

The Emergence of the Modern German Novel Claire Baldwin, 2002 The interpretations proceed from an analysis of the ways that reading and narration are represented in the novels and in their poetological prefaces to show that the texts take up challenge and contribute to contemporary literary and social theories of the novel

BOOK JACKET Imperiled Heritage: Tradition, History and Utopia in Early Modern German Literature Max Reinhart, 2017-03-02 The most prolific historian of early modern German literature in the twentieth century Klaus Garber has largely remained unknown to English language scholars The seven essays selected here are translated into English for the first time and represent the essence of Garber's work Central to Garber's outlook is a break with the traditional canonization of culture into national categories Moreover he argues that literary history consists not only of intellectual history but also political and social history As he states in his preface to this volume To bring Old Europe to life in all the variety of its cultural landscapes to hear across space and time the voices that praised this multiplicity as a valuable possession to be inspired by the past to respond to our own needs these tasks constitute the noblest goal of early modern literary studies

today     The Text and Its Context Nigel Harris, Joanne Sayner, 2008 This Festschrift for Ronald Speirs Professor of German at the University of Birmingham contains twenty four original essays by scholars from Great Britain Germany Austria and Norway Between them they encompass the entire modern period from the later eighteenth century onwards and focus on a wide range of German speaking environments Several essays throw new light on authors to whom Professor Speirs himself has devoted particular attention such as Brecht Thomas Mann Nietzsche and Fontane whilst others discuss writers such as Lenz Bchner Bhlau C F Meyer Keyserling Jahnn and Huch Above all however the contributions address the complexities of writing in ideologically diverse contexts including the Third Reich and the former German Democratic Republic This interplay between text and context is the cornerstone which links all the essays as it has consistently informed Ronald Speirs s own work which combines a scrupulous attention to textual detail with an acute awareness of the socio political milieu and philosophical influences that shape creative literature     Publications of the Members of the University, 1902-1916 University of Chicago. Committee of the Faculty, 1917     Modern German Thought from Kant to Habermas Henk de Berg, Duncan Large, 2012 The first book that presents key original texts from the modern German philosophical tradition to English language students and scholars of German with introductions commentaries and annotations that make them accessible     Handbook of Medieval Studies Albrecht Classen, 2010-11-29 This interdisciplinary handbook provides extensive information about research in medieval studies and its most important results over the last decades The handbook is a reference work which enables the readers to quickly and purposely gain insight into the important research discussions and to inform themselves about the current status of research in the field The handbook consists of four parts The first large section offers articles on all of the main disciplines and discussions of the field The second section presents articles on the key concepts of modern medieval studies and the debates therein The third section is a lexicon of the most important text genres of the Middle Ages The fourth section provides an international bio bibliographical lexicon of the most prominent medievalists in all disciplines A comprehensive bibliography rounds off the compendium The result is a reference work which exhaustively documents the current status of research in medieval studies and brings the disciplines and experts of the field together
