Studies In Socialist Pedagogy:

The Struggle For Pedagogies Jennifer Gore, 2013-02-01 Jennifer M Gore examines analyses and offers directions for the debate between critical pedagogy and feminist pedagogy one of the fiercest within education theory Adult Education and Socialist Pedagogy Frank Youngman, 2018-11-12 Originally published in 1986 this book was written at a time of increasing pressure on traditional areas of secondary and higher education and changing employment patterns a situation which still exists today Then as now there is increased awareness that the continuing education of adults has a vital role to play in our society This volume develops a socialist pedagogy within adult education using a Marxist theoretical framework It proposes socialism as the radical form of change necessary to remove obstacles to greater social justice and educational equality and studies the implications of this political position for adult education Ideology, Culture & the Process of Schooling Henry A. Giroux, 1984-10 This book lays bare the ideological and political character of the positivist rationality that has been the primary theoretical underpinning of educational research in the United States These assumptions have expressed themselves in the form and content of curriculum classroom social relations classroom cultural artifacts and the experiences and beliefs of teachers and students Have existing radical critiques provided the theoretical building blocks for a new theory of pedagogy The author attempts to move beyond the abstract negative characteristics of many radical critiques which are often based on false dualisms that fail to link structure and intentionally content and process ideology and hegemony etc He also is critical of the over determined models of socialization and the abstract celebration of subjectivity that underlies much of the false utopianism of many radical perspectives Professor Giroux begins to lay the theoretical groundwork for developing a radical pedagogy that connects critical theory with the need for social action in the interest of individual freedom and social reconstruction Author note Henry A Giroux is Assistant Professor of Education at Boston University He is the co editor of Curriculum and Instruction Alternatives in Education and The Hidden Curriculum and Moral Education The Politics of the Textbook Michael Apple, Linda Christian-Smith, 2017-09-08 The Politics of the Textbook analyzes the factors that shape production distribution and reception of school texts through original essays which emphasize the double edged quality of textbooks Textbooks are viewed as systems of moral regulation in the struggle of powerful groups to build political and cultural accord They are also regarded as the site of popular resistance around dislodging the interest underlying school knowledge and incorporating alternative traditions

Marxism/Structuralism/Education (RLE Edu L) Madan Sarup, 2012-05-04 This interdisciplinary textbook provides an introduction to the many theoretical developments and controversies which took place in the sociology and politics of education during the 1970s and 80s The book Discusses the arguments concerning humanist and structuralist Marxism Provides a clear and concise introduction to structuralism and post structuralism work of Derrida Lacan and Foucault and theorises in the ways they contribute to Marxism or are subversive of it Relates these theoretical perspectives to education and the practice of teachers Studies in Social Psychology Theodore Mills Norton, Bertell Ollman, 1978 Radicalizing Learning Stephen D. Brookfield, John D. Holst, 2010-10-19 Radicalizing Learning calls for a total rethinking of what the field of adult education stands for and how adult educators should assess their effectiveness. Arguing that major changes in society are needed to create a more just world, the authors set out to show how educators can help learners envision and enact this radical transformation. Specifically, the book explores the areas of adult learning, training, teaching, facilitation, program development, and research. Each chapter provides a guide to the different paradigms and perspectives that prevail across the field of theory and practice. The authors then tie all of the themes into how adult learning for participatory democracy works in a diverse society.

Women Survivors, Psychological Trauma, and the Politics of Resistance Norma Jean Profitt, 2020-04-03 Understand how women survivors of abuse have become empowered to work for social change and help others. This one-of-a-kind book explores the processes through which women survivors of abuse can transform psychological trauma into a politics of resistance and become involved in collective action for social change. Women Survivors Psychological Trauma and the Politics of Resistance uses the powerful testimony of survivors to reveal the processes, factors, insights, and conditions that prompted these women to join in the collective struggle opposing violence against women and children. Unlike other books that only examine the empowerment strategies that women employ to leave abusive relationships, this essential book is a unique in-depth exploration of the social and psychological processes of survivors' empowerment. This book traces how these processes unfold, showing how women have made sense of their lives and become involved in action for social change. In this unique book, you will discover how the transition house movement came about and how its practices were conceived and shaped; how women survivors have learned to recognize invisible conflicts and contradictions in their lives; new directions for feminist social work research; the barriers that stand in the way of building communities dedicated to healing; action and change; how the involvement of survivors themselves can help to recreate shelters and women's organizations as settings for the collective struggle against violence; which currently used remedies for woman child abuse need to be reexamined; and much more. Containing qualitative studies of eleven women, analysis of their abusive experiences, and suggestions for new social work models to help survivors of abuse, Women Survivors Psychological Trauma and the Politics of Resistance will assist you in developing improved techniques from a feminist social work perspective to provide help to abused women.

Towards Successful Schooling (RLE Edu L Sociology of Education) Hugh Lauder, Cathy Wylie, 2012-05-23 The editors have compiled this critical and comparative study of changes which took place in the New Zealand education system in the second half of the twentieth century For other Western societies who have felt the impact of New Right policies the New Zealand case is interesting because it provides some indication of how policies of decentralization in education might be used to develop egalitarian and democratic educational policies In recent years there have been major changes to educational systems in the Western world Often these changes have been justified by reference to successful educational practices in other countries However it is not always possible simply to abstract educational practices from one context and apply them in another successfully Moreover claims that policies in one country are more successful than those in another have to be treated cautiously there are always problems in making valid comparisons between the educational performances of different countries It is important therefore that critical and comparative studies are made of educational systems which take full account of the contexts in which they are embedded
