Baptista, Andreia S. Rauber, Michael A. Watkins, 2009-10-02 Recent Research in Second Language Phonetics Phonology Perception and Production reports the findings of seventeen interphonology studies on perception production of sounds by different first language speakers All the papers describe careful empirical research and as such will be of great interest to anyone working or intending to work in the specific field of second language phonological acquisition However given that speech production and perception are highly complex skills the research findings in this volume will also be relevant to those with a broader interest in language learning or cognition in general Linguistic Foundations of Narration in Spoken and Sign Languages Annika Hübl, Markus Steinbach, 2018-05-15 In recent years the focus of linguistic research has shifted from sentence to larger units such as text and discourse and accordingly from syntax to semantics and pragmatics This has led to the development and application of corresponding discourse semantic and pragmatic theories such as for instance S DRT Centering Theory Accessibility Theory QUD Generalized Conversational Implicatures Super Monsters and Gesture Semantics and new empirical approaches in the framework of experimental semantics and pragmatics or corpus linguistic discourse analysis The contributions to this collected volume build on these developments and investigate the linguistic foundations of narration from various perspectives The contributions address topics such as speech and thought representation free indirect speech information structure anaphora resolution co speech gestures classifier constructions as well as role shift and constructed action The volume provides new insights in the linguistic structures underlying narration in written spoken and sign languages from an experimental developmental historical typological and theoretical perspective The contributions will appeal to theoretical linguists sign language linguists typologists literary scholars psycholinguists and philosophers Awareness and Control in Sociolinguistic Research Anna Babel, 2016-07-21 This book investigates our awareness and control of sociolinguistic features as they are embedded in social and grammatical systems Mind as Machine Margaret A. Boden, 2008-06-19 Cognitive science is the project of understanding the mind by modeling its workings Its development is one of the most remarkable and fascinating intellectual achievements of the modern era Mind as Machine is a masterful history of cognitive science told by one of its most eminent practitioners Cultural Psychology Prof. Dr. Bilal Semih Bozdemir, The influence of culture on decision making and problem solving is profound and pervasive By recognizing and understanding the cultural factors that shape these cognitive processes individuals and organizations can navigate complex decisions more effectively As global interconnectedness continues to rise the ability to appreciate and utilize diverse cultural perspectives will be increasingly vital in fostering collaboration and innovation This chapter has elucidated the intricate ways in which culture impacts not only how decisions are made and problems are solved but also how individuals understand themselves within their cultural ecosystems In an era marked by rapid change and diversity engaging with these cultural influences will be indispensable in creating solutions that are both effective and sustainable

Crossing Boundaries in Science Teacher Education Klaus-Henning Hansen, Wolfgang Gräber, Manfred Lang, 2012 This book is based on the European Comenius project CROSSNET with eight case studies about innovation and science teacher education in six European countries Guiding questions were how teachers policy makers and teacher educators collaborate in the process of change and how local background projects respond to opportunities for the exchange of experiences and reflection in terms of a common theoretical framework of boundary crossing The case studies were conducted by local coordinators and contracted teachers They are supplemented by a cross case analysis of common and distinct features in the projects and an essay about the relationship between boundary crossing transformative learning and curriculum theory Main outcomes are about school based reform and collaboration for science education

Innovative Approaches to Research in Hispanic Linguistics Sara Fernández Cuenca, Tiffany Judy, Lauren Miller, 2023-06-15 This volume presents research from across the subdisciplines of Hispanic Linguistics in an attempt to showcase how new research methods together with a renewed focus on language variation have advanced our field This volume is divided into three sections of original research with the first describing regional variation of Spanish the second synchronic variation and the third learner profile variation Such nuanced descriptions and analyses would not be possible without new variationist research methods and big data techniques such as the use of online corpora and data reduction analyses These overarching themes represent a paradigm shift affecting the whole of Hispanic Linguistics and are therefore best appreciated in an edited volume composed of diverse manifestations of trends like those included herein The data from these submissions were originally presented at the Hispanic Linguistics Symposium hosted by Wake Forest University in 2021
