Studies On Arabia In Honour Of G Rex Smith:

Studies on Arabia in Honour of Professor G. Rex Smith John F. Healey, Venetia Porter, 2002 A collection of essays written in honour of Professor G Rex Smith arabist historian and scholar of the medieval history of the Yemen on aspects of the pre Islamic and Islamic history of Arabia and the Yemen written by a group of international scholars A Traveller in Thirteenth-Century Arabia / Ibn al-Mujawir's Tarikh al-Mustabsir G. Rex Smith, 2017-05-15 This is the first English translation of the Tarikh al Mustabsir written in the early quarter of the thirteenth century by Ibn al Mujawir The text is a fascinating account of the western and southern areas of the Arabian Peninsula by a man from the east of the Islamic world probably from Khurasan in Iran Ibn al Mujawir was a man who in all probability followed the age old Islamic practice of making the pilgrimage to Mecca and thereafter travelling in the area to further his business interests His route began in Mecca and essentially ran south through the Red Sea coastal plain Tihamah down into the Yemen and along the southern coast of the peninsula He paused long in Aden where he observed closely the activities of the port to report at some length on its administration its taxes its markets its currency its weights and measures and the like His route then continued along the southern coast of Arabia into the Gulf and he presumably returned home to the east via Iraq The author is a wonderful observer of people their buildings their dress their customs their agriculture their food and their history This book is a unique source for the social and economic history of thirteenth century south Arabia written with a humour and wit otherwise unknown in the writings of medieval Islam The text is of major linguistic importance too written as it is in a far from classical Arabic This translation is fully annotated with an introduction appendices glossary and full index and contains maps and illustrations Islam in Yemen: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Oxford University Press, 2010-05-01 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of Islamic studies find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated related A reader will discover for instance the most reliable introductions and overviews to the topic and the most important publications on various areas of scholarly interest within this topic In Islamic studies as in other disciplines researchers at all levels are drowning in potentially useful scholarly information and this guide has been created as a tool for cutting through that material to find the exact source you need This ebook is a static version of an article from Oxford Bibliographies Online Islamic Studies a dynamic continuously updated online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through scholarship and other materials relevant to the study of the Islamic religion and Muslim cultures Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www.oxfordbibliographies.com

A Cultural History of Aramaic Holger Gzella, 2015-01-08 Aramaic is a constant thread running through the various civilizations of the Near East ancient and modern from 1000 BCE to the present and has been the language of small principalities world empires and a fair share of the Jewish Christian tradition Holger Gzella describes its cultural and linguistic history as a continuous evolution from its beginnings to the advent of Islam For the first time the individual phases of the language their socio historical underpinnings and the textual sources are discussed comprehensively in light of the latest linguistic and historical research and with ample attention to scribal traditions multilingualism and language as a marker of cultural self awareness Many new observations on Aramaic are thereby integrated into a coherent historical framework

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies

Before Orthodoxy Shahab Ahmed, 2017-04-24 The most systematic critical study of an especially important tradition from early Islamic history the so called incident of the Satanic verses Choice One of the most controversial episodes in the life of the Prophet Muhammad concerns an incident in which he allegedly mistook words suggested by Satan as divine revelation Known as the Satanic verses these praises to the pagan deities contradict the Islamic belief that Allah is one and absolute Muslims today of all sects deny that the incident of the Satanic verses took place But as Shahab Ahmed explains Muslims did not always hold this view Before Orthodoxy wrestles with the question of how religions establish truth especially religions such as Islam that lack a centralized authority to codify beliefs Taking the now universally rejected incident of the Satanic verses as a case study in the formation of Islamic orthodoxy Ahmed shows that early Muslims circa 632 to 800 CE held the exact opposite belief For them the Satanic verses were an established fact in the history of the Prophet Ahmed offers a detailed account of the attitudes of Muslims to the Satanic verses in the first two centuries of Islam and traces the chains of transmission in the historical reports known as riwayat Touching directly on the nature of Muhammad s prophetic visions the interpretation of the Satanic verses incident is a question of profound importance in Islam one that plays a role in defining the limits of what Muslims may legitimately say and do issues crucial to understanding the contemporary Islamic world

New Researches on the Quran: Why and How Two Versions of Islam Entered the History of Mankind Dr. Seyed Mostafa Azmayesh, 2015 This book focuses on the time before the Quran and the emergence of Islam The research delves into the origin of the Quran using its verses alongside investigative works which support various new theories The Quran is a written document which according to recent discoveries such as the recently discovered world s oldest Quran manuscript at the University of Birmingham can be traced to the lifetime of Prophet Mohammad It focuses on the time preceding Islam and highlights the relationships that are pivotal for understanding the development of Islam The danger posed by false interpretations of the Quran has become increasingly more serious from first appearance of Islam until today the result of which we can see clearly in our current world Hence the Quran itself is the most important document to be researched and studied for resolving the problems caused by its false interpretation Imperial Horizons of the Silk Roads Branka Franicevic, Marie Nicole Pareja, 2023-07-20 This volume centres on how the exchange routes transformed the frontier regions of the Silk Road In doing so it utilises a range of methods to reach an archaeological interpretation of the factors that linked people with the environment movements settlements and beliefs The Tropical Turn Sureshkumar Muthukumar, 2023-03-14 This book chronicles the earliest histories of familiar tropical Asian crops in the ancient Middle East and the Mediterranean from rice and cotton to citrus and cucumbers Drawing on archaeological materials and textual sources in over seven ancient languages The Tropical Turn unravels the breathtaking anthropogenic peregrinations of these familiar crops from their homelands in tropical and subtropical Asia to the Middle East and the Mediterranean showing the significant impact South Asia had on the ecologies dietary habits and cultural identities of peoples across the ancient world In the process Sureshkumar Muthukumar offers a fresh narrative history of human connectivity across Afro Eurasia from the Bronze Age to the late centuries BCE Women, Writing and the Iraqi Ba'thist State Hawraa Al-Hassan, 2020-09-04 This title explores discourses on gender and representations of women in modern Iraqi fiction By exploring discourses on gender in both propaganda and high art fictional writings by Iraqis this book offers an alternative narrative of the literary and cultural history of Iraq British Diplomacy and the Descent into Chaos J. Fisher, 2011-12-13 Recreating the diplomatic career of Jack Garnett from 1902 1919 John Fisher reveals a fascinating individual as well as contextualizing his story with regard to British policy in the countries to which he was posted in Europe Asia Africa and South America during a period of rapid change in international politics and in Britain's world role Arabic in the Fray Yasir Suleiman, 2013-07-22 The pre modern period saw a background of inter ethnic strife among Arabs and non Arabs mainly Persians Starting from the symbolic and cognitive roles of language Yasir Suleiman shows how discussions about the inimitability and untranslatability of the Quran in this period were at some deep level concerned with issues of ethnic election In this respect theology and ethnicity emerge as partners in theorising language Staying within the symbolic role of language Suleiman goes on to investigate the role of paratexts and literary production in disseminating language ideologies and in cultural contestation He shows how language symbolism is relevant to ideological debates about hybrid and cross national literary production in the Arab milieu In fact language ideology appears to be everywhere and a whole chapter is devoted to discussions of the cognitive role of language in linking thought to reality Arabic Poetics Lara Harb, 2020-05-14 What makes language beautiful Arabic Poetics offers an answer to what this pertinent question looked like at the height of the Islamic civilization In this novel argument Lara Harb suggests that literary quality depended on the ability of linguistic expression to produce an experience of discovery and wonder in the listener Analysing theories of how rhetorical figures simile metaphor and sentence construction are able to achieve this effect of wonder Harb shows how this aesthetic theory first articulated at the turn of the 11th century CE represented a major paradigm shift from earlier Arabic criticism which based its judgement on criteria of truthfulness and naturalness In doing so this study poses a major challenge to the misconception in modern scholarship that Arabic criticism was traditionalist or static exposing an elegant widespread conceptual framework of literary beauty in the post 10th century Islamicate world which is central to poetic criticism the interpretation of Aristotle's Poetics in Arabic philosophy and the rationale underlying discussions about the inimitability of the Quran How to Read Islamic Calligraphy Maryam D. Ekhtiar, 2018-09-03 For centuries Islamic calligraphy has mesmerized viewers with its beauty sophistication and seemingly endless variety of styles How to Read Islamic Calligraphy offers new perspectives on this distinctive art form using examples from The Met's superlative collections to explore the enduring preeminence of the written word as a means of creative expression throughout the Islamic world Combining engaging accessible texts with stunning new photography How to Read Islamic Calligraphy introduces readers to the major Islamic script types and explains the various contexts whether secular or sacred in which each one came to be used Beauty and brilliance emerge in equal measure from works of every medium from lavishly illuminated Qur'an manuscripts to glassware etched with poetic verses to ceramic tiles brushed with benedictions The sheer breadth of objects illustrated in these pages exemplifies the ubiquity of calligraphy and provides a compelling introduction to this unique art form Publisher's description British Diplomacy in

Turkey, 1583 to the present Geoffrey R. Berridge, 2009-07-31 Since the early twentieth century the resident embassy has been supposed to be living on borrowed time By means of an exhaustive historical account of the contribution of the British Embassy in Turkey to Britain's diplomatic relationship with that state this book shows this to be false Part A analyses the evolution of the embassy as a working unit up to the First World War the buildings diplomats dragomans consular network and communications Part B examines how without any radical changes except in its communications it successfully met the heavy demands made on it in the following century for example by playing a key role in a multitude of bilateral negotiations and providing cover to secret agents and drugs liaison officers Histories of the Middle East Margariti Eleni Roxani, Adam

Sabra, Petra M. Sijpesteijn, 2010-12-20 For four decades Abraham L Udovitch has been a leading scholar of the medieval Islamic world its economic institutions social structures and legal theory and practice In pursuing his quest to understand and explain the complex phenomena that these broad rubrics entail he has published widely collaborated internationally with other leading scholars of the Middle East and medieval history and most saliently for the purposes of this volume taught several cohorts of students at Princeton University This volume is therefore dedicated to his intellectual legacy from a uniquely revealing angle the current work of his former students The papers in this volume range chronologically from the period preceding the rise of Islam in Arabia to the Mamluk era geographically from the Western Mediterranean to the

Western Indian Ocean and thematically from the political negotiations of Christian and Islamic Mediterranean sovereigns to the historiography of Western Indian Ocean port cities

Historical Aspects of Standard Negation in Semitic Ambjörn Sjörs, 2018-01-09 In Historical Aspects of Standard Negation in Semitic Ambjörn Sjörs investigates the grammar of standard negation in a wide selection of Semitic languages The bulk of the investigation consists of a detailed analysis of negative constructions and is based on a first hand examination of the examples in context The main issues that are investigated in the book relate to the historical change of the expression of verbal negation in Semitic and the reconstruction of the genealogical relationship of negative constructions It shows how negation is constantly renewed from the reanalysis of emphatic negative constructions and how structural asymmetries between negative constructions and the corresponding affirmative constructions arise from the linguistically conservative nature of negative vis vis affirmative clauses

Made for the Eye of One Who Sees Marcus Milwright, Evanthis Baboula, 2022-09-10 Canada has seen the study of Islamic art and archeology grow steadily over the last five decades with growth in research and teaching across numerous Canadian universities as well as important collections of Islamic art and archaeological materials most notably at the Royal Ontario Museum and the Aga Khan Museum Made for the Eye of One Who Sees uncovers the contributions of scholars and museum curators at Canadian institutions to current scholarship on Islamic art Employing a wide range of approaches and theoretical perspectives contributors cover topics from across the Islamic world dating from the eighth century to the present Subjects include the iconography of architectural design and decoration the role of Qur'anic inscriptions the representation of symbolic animals in sculpture and the interpretation of Persian manuscript painting The book also juxtaposes modern and contemporary worlds providing insightful reflections on the early history of the Islamic collections at the Royal Ontario Museum Matisse's creative encounter with Byzantine and Islamic visual culture and the ongoing dialogue between new media and the traditional concepts underpinning Islamic art Bringing together recent scholarship on Islamic art architecture and archaeology Made for the Eye of One Who Sees provides an overview of the important contributions Canada is making to this rich and evolving field of study

Aramaic Inscriptions and Documents of the Roman Period John F. Healey, 2009-10-29 In the first centuries AD although much of the Near East was ruled by Rome the main local language was Aramaic and the people who lived inside or on the fringes of the area controlled by the Romans frequently wrote their inscriptions and legal documents in their own local dialects of this language This book introduces these fascinating early texts to a wider audience by presenting a representative sample comprising eighty inscriptions and documents in the following dialects Nabataean Jewish Palmyrene Syriac and Hatran Detailed commentaries on the texts are preceded by chapters on history and culture and on epigraphy and language The linguistic commentaries will help readers who have a knowledge of Hebrew or Arabic or one of the Aramaic dialects to understand the difficulties involved in interpreting such materials The translations and more general comments will be of great interest to classicists and ancient historians

Islamic Gardens and Landscapes D. Fairchild

Ruggles, 2011-12-30 Western admirers have long seen the Islamic garden as an earthly reflection of the paradise said to await the faithful. However, such simplification Ruggles contends, denies the sophistication and diversity of the art form. Islamic Gardens and Landscapes immerses the reader in the world of the architects of the great gardens of the Islamic world from medieval Morocco to contemporary India. Just as Islamic culture is historically dense, sophisticated and complex, so too is the history of its built landscapes. Islamic gardens began from the practical need to organize the surrounding space of human civilization: tame nature, enhance the earth's yield and create a legible map on which to distribute natural resources. Ruggles follows the evolution of these early farming efforts to their aristocratic apex in famous formal gardens of the Alhambra in Spain and the Taj Mahal in Agra. Whether in a humble city home or a royal courtyard, the garden has several defining characteristics which Ruggles discusses. Most notable is an enclosed space divided into four equal parts surrounding a central design element. The traditional Islamic garden is inwardly focused, usually surrounded by buildings or in the form of a courtyard. Water provides a counterpoint to the portioned green sections. Ranging across poetry, court documents, agronomy manuals and early garden representations, and richly illustrated with pictures and site plans, Islamic Gardens and Landscapes is a book of impressive scope, sure to interest scholars and enthusiasts alike.
