Studies Voltaire 18th Century Volume 187:

Sensibility in the Early Modern Era Anik Waldow, 2018-02-02 Sensibility in the Early Modern Era investigates how the early modern characterisation of sensibility as a natural property of the body could give way to complex considerations about the importance of affect in morality What underlies this understanding of sensibility is the attempt to fuse Lockean sensationism with Scottish sentimentalism being able to have experiences of objects in the world is here seen as being grounded in the same principle that also enables us to feel moral sentiments Moral and epistemic ways of relating to the world thus blend into one another as both can be traced to the same capacity that enables us to affectively respond to stimuli that impinge on our perceptual apparatus This collection focuses on these connections by offering reflections on the role of sensibility in the early modern attempt to think of the human being as a special kind of sensitive machine and affectively responsive animal Humans as they are understood in this context relate to themselves by sensing themselves and perpetually refining their intellectual and moral capacities in response to the way the world affects them Responding to the world here refers to the manner in which both natural and man made influences impact on our ability to conceptualise the animate and inanimate world and our place within that world This book was originally published as a special issue of the Intellectual History Review

Self and Sensibility Udo Thiel, 2024-12-02 This volume collects 19 of the author's essays on eighteenth century accounts of self consciousness personal identity and related issues covering over a hundred years of a philosophical debate that has shaped the way in which these topics are discussed today After a detailed analysis of the seventeenth century background the essays analyze and critically evaluate French British and German contributions ranging from Claude Buffier early in the century to Kant and aspects of the Post Kantian debate The essays deal with a large number of diverse sources including the views and arguments of well known philosophers such as Hume and Kant as well as lesser known thinkers such as LeLarge de Lignac and Thomas Cooper organized around four partly overlapping main themes a the self and its identity as a matter of a special feeling sentiment intime Selbstgef hl in thinkers such as Condillac Rousseau and Feder b materialist treatments of these issues in for example Priestley and Hi mann c Scottish Common Sense accounts with a special focus on Reid and d Kant's analysis and the philosophical context in which it was developed with a particular emphasis on the German debate Wolff and his critics Lossius Tetens and others

Pierre Simon Laplace, 1749-1827 Roger Hahn, 2005 Often called the Newton of France Pierre Simon Laplace has been called the greatest scientist of the late 18th and early 19th centuries In this compact biography Hahn illuminates the man in his historical setting This book reflects a lifetime of thinking and research on a singularly important figure in the annals of Enlightenment science

The Age of Minerva, Volume 1 Paul Ilie, 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press's distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas The Supplément to the Encyclopédie Kathleen Hardesty, 2012-12-06 Rationalism and Anti-rationalism in the Origins of Economics William Oliver Coleman, 1995 This major new study of the philosophical roots of economics examines the impact on eighteenth century economic thought of the rivalry between two opposing philosophical outlooks rationalism and anti rationalism The economic thought of this period William Coleman argues was a synthesis of these two outlooks Rationalism and Anti Rationalism in the Origins of Economics examines the history of this key intellectual debate from Locke Leibniz and Mandeville to Hume Condillac Turgot and Smith This authoritative study offers new insights on the work of the eighteenth century rationalists and anti rationalists and the impact they had on the development of economic thought and analysis Dr Coleman s book addresses an intellectual conflict which remains relevant today Neoclassical economics is frequently criticized because some of its assumptions such as those concerning optimization rationality and equilibrium are rationalist in character This important book explores the intellectual archaeology of this continuing controversy over neoclassical economics and offers new perspectives drawn from the lessons of the past Myth in the Modern Novel Liisa Steinby, 2023-03-20 Myth in the Modern Novel Imagining the Absolute posits a twofold thesis First although Modernity is regarded as an era dominated by science and rational thought it has in fact not relinquished the hold of myth a more primitive form of thought which is difficult to reconcile with modern rationality Second some of the most important statements as to the reconcilability of myth and Modernity are found in the work of certain prominent novelists This book offers a close examination of the work of eleven writers from the late eighteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first representing German French American Czech and Swedish literature The analyses of individual novels reveal a variety of intriguing views of myth in Modernity and offer an insight into the modernizing transformations myth has undergone when applied in the modern novel The study shows the presence of the subconscious the mythic layer in modern western culture and how this has been dealt with in novelistic literature A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V4 18th C , A Critical History of French Children's Literature Penelope E. Brown, 2008-03-25 This two volume critical history of French children s literature from 1600 to the present helps bring awareness of the range quality and importance of French children s literature to a wider audience A History of Russian Literature Andrew Kahn, Mark Naumovich Lipovet[с]kiĭ, Irina Reyfman, Stephanie Sandler, 2018 Russia possesses one of the richest and most admired literatures of Europe reaching back to the eleventh century A History of Russian Literature provides a comprehensive account of Russian writing from its earliest origins in the monastic works of Kiev up to the present day still rife with the creative experiments of post Soviet literary life The volume proceeds chronologically in five parts extending from Kievan Rus in the 11th century to the present day The coverage strikes a balance between extensive overview and in depth thematic focus Parts are organized thematically in chapters which a number of keywords that are important literary concepts that can serve as connecting motifs and case studies in depth discussions of writers institutions and texts that take the reader up close and Visual material also underscores the interrelation of the word and image at a number of points particularly significant in the medieval period and twentieth century The History addresses major continuities and discontinuities in the history of Russian literature across all periods and in particular bring out trans historical features that contribute to the notion of a national literature The volume s time range has the merit of identifying from the early modern period a vital set of national stereotypes and popular folklore about boundaries space Holy Russia and the charismatic king that offers culturally relevant material to later writers This volume delivers a fresh view on a series of key questions about Russia s literary history by providing new mappings of literary history and a narrative that pursues key concepts rather more than individual authorial careers This holistic narrative underscores the ways in which context and text are densely woven in Russian literature and demonstrates that the most exciting way to understand the canon and the development of tradition is through a discussion of the interrelation of major and minor figures historical events and literary politics literary theory and literary innovation

The History of the Book in the West: 1700-1800 Eleanor F. Shevlin, 2017-03-02 Influenced by Enlightenment principles and commercial transformations the history of the book in the eighteenth century witnessed not only the final decades of the hand press era but also developments and practices that pointed to its future the foundations of modern copyright a rapid growth in the publication circulation and reading of periodicals the promotion of niche marketing alterations to distribution networks and the emergence of the publisher as a central figure in the book trade to name a few The pace and extent of these changes varied greatly within the different sociopolitical contexts across the western world The volume s twenty four articles many of which proffer broader theoretical implications beyond their specific focus highlight the era s range of developments Complementing these articles the introductory essay provides an overview of the eighteenth century book and milestones in its history during this period while simultaneously identifying potential directions for new scholarship

Visions of World Community Jens Bartelson, 2009-10-01 Throughout the history of Western political thought the creation of a world community has been seen as a way of overcoming discord between political communities without imposing sovereign authority from above Jens Bartelson argues that a paradox lies at the centre of discussions of world community The very same division of mankind into distinct peoples living in different places which makes the idea of a world community morally compelling has also been the main obstacle to its successful realization His book offers a philosophical and historical analysis of the idea of world community by exploring the relationship between theories of world community and changing cosmological beliefs from the late Middle Ages to the present

The Autocritique of Enlightenment Mark Hulliung, 2017-09-29 Of all the critiques of the Enlightenment the most telling may be found in the life and writings of Jean Jacques Rousseau This searching long overlooked auto critique receives its first full treatment by Mark Hulliung Here he restores Rousseau to his historical context the world of the philosophes and shows how he employed the arsenal of Voltaire Diderot and others to launch a powerful attack on their version of the Enlightenment With great intellectual skill and rhetorical force Rousseau exposed the inconsistencies and shortcomings of the Enlightenment the psychology of Locke the genre of philosophical and conjectural history the latest applications of science to the study of society and politics and the growing interest in materialist modes of thought As the century moved on Hulliung shows the most advanced philosophes found themselves drawn to conclusions that paralleled Rousseau's an agreement that went unacknowledged at the time The Enlightenment that emerges here is richer more nuanced and more self critical than the one reflected in many interpretations By extracting Rousseau from personal entanglements that stymied debate in his time and that mislead critics to this day Hulliung reveals the remarkable and remarkably unacknowledged force of Rousseau's accomplishment This edition includes a brilliant new introduction by the author

From Sin to Insanity Jeffrey Watt, 2018-09-05 In the broadest treatment yet of suicide in Europe during the period 1500-1800 11 authors combine elements of social cultural legal and intellectual history to trace important changes in the ways Europeans experienced and understood voluntary death Well into the seventeenth century Europeans viewed suicide as a terrible crime and an unforgivable sin resulting from demonic temptation By the late eighteenth century however suicide was rarely subject to judicial penalties and society tended to blame self-inflicted death on insanity rather than on the devil From Sin to Insanity shows that early modern Europe witnessed nothing less than the birth of modern suicide increasing in frequency self-inflicted death became decriminalized secularized and medicalized viewed as a regrettable but not shameful result of reversals in fortune or physical or mental infirmity The ten chapters focus on suicide cases and attitudes toward self-murder from the fifteenth to the early nineteenth centuries in geographical settings as diverse as Scandinavia and Hungary France and Germany England and Switzerland Spain and the Netherlands

The Sum of All Heresies Frederick Quinn, 2008 Quinn traces the Western image of Islam from its earliest days to recent times It establishes four basic themes around which the image of Islam gravitates throughout history in this portrayal of Islam in literature art music and popular culture

National Identity and the Agrarian Republic Manuela Albertone, 2016-04-22 With a few exceptions historiography has paid little attention to the impact of French economic thought during the American Revolution focusing instead on the Revolution's links with Britain This book outlines how from the mid-eighteenth to the early nineteenth century the political and social dimension of French economic thought and particularly of Physiocracy spurred American Republicans to a radical shaping of American agrarian ideology Such a perspective allows for a reconsideration of several questions that lie at the heart of contemporary historiographic debate the connection between politics and economics the meaning of republicanism the foundations of representation the role of Europe in the Atlantic world and the interaction between national histories and global context In particular the research methodology adopted here makes it possible to reconstruct how American national identity conceived as an expression of society in economic terms emerged through a cosmopolitan way of thinking focused on the uniqueness of the new state

The Enlightenment Ryan Patrick

Hanley, Darrin M. McMahon, 2010 More than any earlier period of European intellectual history the age of Enlightenment infused the republic of letters with social and political significance this long awaited new collection from Routledge brings together in five volumes the very best scholarship on the period and its legacy It also incorporates historical and critical essays addressed to the Enlightenment's alleged responsibility for institutions or policies prevalent in the twentieth century including economic globalization and the Holocaust North America's Indian Trade in European Commerce and Imagination, 1580-1850 George Colpitts, 2013-11-29 In North America's Indian Trade in European Commerce and Imagination Colpitts offers new perspectives on Europe's contact with America by examining the ideas debates and questions arising in the trading that linked newcomers with Native people European capitalization of the Indian Trade beginning in the 16th century forced newcomers to confront the meaning and legitimacy of traditional gift economies and assess the vice and virtue of the commerce they pursued in the New World Making use of French and English colonization texts published narratives and state colonial papers the author explores how European capital investments credit profits and commercial linkages elaborated and complicated understandings of North American people in the period of colonization Hospitality and World Politics Gideon Baker, 2013-02-07 A long neglected concept in the field of international relations and political theory hospitality provides a new framework for analysing many of the challenges in world politics today from the search for peaceable relations between states to asylum and refugee crises
