X-Risk Thomas Moynihan, 2020-10-20 How humanity came to contemplate its possible extinction From forecasts of disastrous climate change to prophecies of evil AI superintelligences and the impending perils of genome editing our species is increasingly concerned with the prospects of its own extinction With humanity's future on this planet seeming more insecure by the day in the twenty first century existential risk has become the object of a growing field of serious scientific inquiry But as Thomas Moynihan shows in X Risk this preoccupation is not exclusive to the post atomic age of global warming and synthetic biology Our growing concern with human extinction itself has a history Tracing this untold story Moynihan revisits the pioneers who first contemplated the possibility of human extinction and stages the historical drama of this momentous discovery He shows how far from being a secular reprise of religious prophecies of apocalypse existential risk is a thoroughly modern idea made possible by the burgeoning sciences and philosophical tumult of the Enlightenment era In recollecting how we first came to care for our extinction Moynihan reveals how today's attempts to measure and mitigate existential threats are the continuation of a project initiated over two centuries ago which concerns the very vocation of the human as a rational responsible and future oriented being

Scientific History Elena Aronova, 2021-04-02 Increasingly scholars in the humanities are calling for a reengagement with the natural sciences Taking their cues from recent breakthroughs in genetics and the neurosciences advocates of big history are reassessing long held assumptions about the very definition of history its methods and its evidentiary base In Scientific History Elena Aronova maps out historians' continuous engagement with the methods tools values and scale of the natural sciences by examining several waves of their experimentation that surged highest at perceived times of trouble from the crisis ridden decades of the early twentieth century to the ruptures of the Cold War The book explores the intertwined trajectories of six intellectuals and the larger programs they set in motion Henri Berr 1863 1954 Nikolai Bukharin 1888 1938 Lucien Febvre 1878 1956 Nikolai Vavilov 1887 1943 Julian Huxley 1887 1975 and John Desmond Bernal 1901 1971 Though they held different political views spoke different languages and pursued different goals these thinkers are representative of a larger motley crew who joined the techniques approaches and values of science with the writing of history and who created powerful institutions and networks to support their projects In tracing these submerged stories Aronova reveals encounters that profoundly shaped our knowledge of the past reminding us that it is often the forgotten parts of history that are the most revealing of human civilizations Contained in two volumes D C Somervell s abridgement of this magnificent enterprise preserves the method atmosphere texture and in many instances the very words of the original A Study of History Arnold Toynbee,1962 The Jewish Quarterly Review ,1965 The Ethical Society William T. Carruthers,2021-08-19 How is it that we know we are headed for destruction as a species and yet are unable to effect the necessary changes needed for survival We know from history that our current thinking and values will not lead to a peaceful sustainable future It is more crucial now than ever that we learn to break the cycle so that we can create a global community that balances diversity and individuality with integration and harmony The answer lies in how we think We are trapped in social systems based on power structures designed to keep us divided in antagonistic and non viable behaviors We have divorced how we understand the world through science with how we find meaning in our lives through religion alienating us from the world and each other To overcome these challenges we need to focus our thinking on the global community by giving priority to universal ethical values With ethical priority we can shift power interests from a tribal to a human perspective and reconnect understanding with meaning We can reduce alienation and improve harmony around the world In The Ethical Society William Carruthers provides the roadmap for us to finally achieve that peaceful sustainable world The Persian Presence in the Islamic World Richard G. Hovannisian,Georges Sabagh,1998-11-19 The thirteenth volume based on the Giorgio Levi Della Vida conference reassesses the role of the Iranian peoples in the development and consolidation of Islamic civilization In his key essay Ehsan Yarshater casts fresh light on that role challenging the view that after reaching a climax in Baghdad in the ninth century Islamic culture entered a period of decline In fact he maintains a new and remarkably creative phase began in Khurasan and Transoxania symbolized by the adoption of Persian as a medium of literary expression By the mid sixteenth century Persian literary and intellectual paradigms had spread from Anatolia to India encompassing the greater part of the Islamic world Yarshater also challenges traditional assumptions about the Islamization of Persia In the essays which follow six distinguished scholars consider the historical cultural and religious aspects of the Persian presence in the Islamic world
