ideological age Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 14 Ralph L. Piedmont, David O. Moberg, 2021-10-01 Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion RSSSR publishes reports of innovative studies that pertain empirically or theoretically to the scientific study of religion including spirituality regardless of their academic discipline or professional orientation It is academically eclectic not restricted to any one particular theoretical orientation or research method Most articles report the findings of quantitative or qualitative investigations but some deal with methodology theory or applications of social science studies in the field of religion With Wisdom Seeking God Una Agnew, Bernadette Flanagan, Greg Heylin, 2008 The distinctiveness of this volume is its European texture derived from papers delivered at the first European Spirituality Conference held at Milltown Institute Dublin Ireland in June 2004 Its aim is to extend the horizons of understanding of the discipline of Spirituality as it is being mapped by some of the most experienced voices in the field The idea for the conference drew inspiration from the work of the US founded Society for the Study of Christian Spirituality whose recent President Dr Stephanie Paulsell delivered the keynote address Among the features of this three part publication is an exploration of methodologies for the study of Christian spirituality interdisciplinary conversations with scholars from varied fields of scholarship and topics which demonstrate how Spirituality is applied in a variety of situations and locations Along with the well known voices of Philip Sheldrake Kees Waaijman Dominique Salin SJ and Leif Gunner Engedal a number of prominent Irish voices in the field of spirituality are given an international forum for the first time A Sociology of Spirituality Kieran Flanagan, Peter C. Jupp, 2007-01-01 The emergence of spirituality in contemporary culture in holistic forms suggests that organised religions have failed This thesis is explored and disputed in this book in ways that mark important critical divisions This is the first collection of essays to assess the significance of spirituality in the sociology of religion The authors explore the relationship of spirituality to the visual individualism gender identity politics education and cultural capital The relationship between secularisation and spirituality is examined and consideration is given to the significance of Simmel in relation to a sociology of spirituality Problems of defining spirituality are debated with reference to its expression in the UK the USA France and Holland This timely original and well structured volume provides undergraduates postgraduates and researchers with a scholarly appraisal of a phenomenon that can only increase in sociological significance Situating Spirituality Brian Steensland, Jaime Kucinkas, Anna Sun, 2021-11-22 The essays collected in Situating Spirituality Context Practice and Power examine not only individual engagements with spirituality but they show how seemingly personal facets of spirituality as well as definitions of spirituality itself are deeply shaped by religious cultural and political contexts Subversive Spirituality L Paul Jensen, 2011-06-30 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture's increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen's model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed
