Christianity in Northeast India Chongpongmeren Jamir, 2020-04-22 This book examines the distinctive formation of Christianity in Nagaland Northeast India since 1947 It argues that an understanding of the history of Christianity in the region can be found in its cultural milieu and the changing political social and religious environment In Nagaland almost 90 per cent of the population are Christians This book shows that segmentation as a cultural characteristic of Naga society inspired both unity and divisiveness in the Naga churches which subsequently shaped the beliefs and practices of the churches in the region

Using the methodology of cultural history the author examines ecclesiastical events and suggests that the history of Christianity should be examined in the light of its interaction with its cultural context rather than as an isolated phenomenon. The book demonstrates that the ethnic status which the Christian faith assumed the extent of its identification with the local culture and the scope of the mission of the Naga churches as key stakeholders in society offers a new angle on the history of Christianity in India. through triumphant song an atmosphere is sustained for people to experience anew and again the reality of salvation holiness charismata wholeness and hope Such a revival will be biblically based rationally sound traditionally accurate and experientially real Spirit Empowered Christianity in the 21st Century is an authoritative compilation of the presentations from thirty leaders in the Charismatic Pentecostal movement given at the Empowered 21 Conference in Tulsa OK in April 2010 These chapters share emerging insights on how the next generation will handle the profound issues facing Christians within the Charismatic Pentecostal movement in the 21st century For example one portion covers the topic of the 21st century renewal while another discusses how we can protect our Charismatic distinctive Another portion will highlight Charismatic adaptations for reaching this present age discussing issues of social and economic justice prosperity and suffering challenges to urban ministry the future of the next generation Oneness Pentecostalism and missiological aims in North America

The Harvard-Yenching Institute and Cultural Engineering Shuhua Fan, 2014-08-21 Through an empirical multi archival study of a transnational foundation the Harvard Yenching Institute HYI from the 1920s to the early 1950s this book presents the story of transplanting Western American humanities scholarship into Asia China and addresses central questions in U S China relations This book focuses on the HYI s programs in teaching research and publication of Chinese humanities within China to the early 1950s and to a lesser extent its activities at Harvard that had close ties with its China side Through the HYI story the author examines in depth the cooperation tensions adaptation and integration in the operation management and governance of the HYI s programs on both sides of the Pacific and the complex multi layered interactions between American educators and their Chinese partners treating each side sympathetically but without losing sight of the big picture As the first comprehensive study on the subject the book adopts a concept of cultural engineering which is defined as a conscious design to use cultural heritage to recreate culture in order to promote a society s development to look at key issues in a way which accounts for interactions and initiatives on both sides and shows the difficult path toward developing common interests without neglecting tensions and conflicts thus going beyond the various one sided historiographies which pit Chinese against Americans or nativist rejection of modernity against cultural imperialism The HYI experience in China from the 1920s to the early 1950s resonates down to the present day in American relations with the world The United States faces many similar challenges in the Middle East Asia Africa and Latin America today as in revolutionary China of the 1920s to 1950s Therefore this study offers a window onto many issues relating to cross cultural interactions today especially between the United States and non Western nations

Nation Building, State Building, and Economic Development Sarah C.M. Paine, 2015-01-28 Why do some countries remain poor and dysfunctional while others thrive and become affluent

The expert contributors to this volume seek to identify reasons why prosperity has increased rapidly in some countries but not others by constructing and comparing cases. The case studies focus on the processes of nation building, state building, and economic development in comparably situated countries over the past hundred years. Part I considers the colonial legacy of India, Algeria, the Philippines, and Manchuria. In Part II, the analysis shifts to the anticolonial development strategies of Soviet Russia, Atatürk's Turkey, Mao's China, and Nasser's Egypt. Part III is devoted to paired cases in which ostensibly similar environments yielded very different outcomes: Haiti and the Dominican Republic; Jordan and Israel; the Republic of the Congo and neighboring Gabon; North Korea and South Korea; and Papua New Guinea and Indonesia. All the studies examine the combined constraints and opportunities facing policy makers, their policy objectives, and the effectiveness of their strategies. The concluding chapter distills what these cases can tell us about successful development, with findings that do not validate the conventional wisdom.
