Study Of Education And Art:

A History of Art Education Arthur D. Efland, 1990 Arthur Efland puts current debate and concerns in a well researched historical perspective He examines the institutional settings of art education throughout Western history the social forces that have shaped it and the evolution and impact of alternate streams of influence on present practice A History of Art Education is the first book to treat the visual arts in relation to developments in general education Particular emphasis is placed on the 19th and 20th centuries and on the social context that has affected our concept of art today This book will be useful as a main text in history of art education courses as a supplemental text in courses in art education methods and history of education and as a valuable resource for students professors and researchers The book should become a standard reference tool for art educators at all levels of the field The Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism Efland has filled a gap in historical research on art education and made an important contribution to scholarship in the field Studies in Art Education

The History of American Art Education Peter Smith, 1996-07-22 The ideas people and events that developed art education are described and analyzed so that art educators and educators in general will have a better understanding of what has happened and is happening to visual art in the schools Peter Smith raises the issue of art education s inordinate emphasis on Eurocentric art He challenges the often expressed notion that the field of education is the cause of art education s problems and proposes that confused conceptions within the art world are just as much a root of the difficulty No other book in art education history gives such close and analytical attention to the careers of women in the field The materials on Germanic cultural and historical influences are unequalled as is the scholarly treatment of Viktor Lowenfeld probably the most influential single figure in 20th century American art education The Study of Education and Art Dick Field, John Newick, 1973

The Sense of Art Ralph A. Smith, 2014-10-29 Ralph A Smith provides a theory of aesthetic education that addresses the need to revitalize the capacity for genuine judgment in society reaffirm the ideal of excellence in culture and reorder our thoughts about teaching the arts in schools The book presents an image of the curriculum as itinerary preparing the young to traverse the world of art with adroitness and sensitivity Art in American Life and Education National Society for the Study of Education. Committee on Art in American Life and Education, 1941 The Study of Education and Art Dick Field, John Newick, 1973-01-01 Art Education National Society for the Study of Education.
