China's Christian Colleges Daniel Bays, Widmer, 2009-02-27 China's Christian Colleges explores the cross cultural dynamics that existed on the campuses of the Protestant Christian colleges in China during the first half of the twentieth century Focusing on two way cultural influences rather than on missionary efforts or Christianization these campuses most of which were American supported and had a distinctly American flavor were laboratories or incubators of mutual cultural interaction that has been very rare in modern Chinese history In this Sino foreign cultural territory the collaborative educational endeavor between Westerners and Chinese created a highly unusual degree of cultural hybridity in some Americans and Chinese The thirteen essays of the book provide concrete examples of why even today more than a half century after the colleges were taken over by the state long lasting cultural results of life in the colleges remain Keeping the Nation's House Helen M. Schneider, 2011-03-01 The term home economics often conjures images of sterile classrooms where girls learn to cook dinner and swaddle dolls far removed from the seats of power Helen Schneider unsettles this assumption by revealing how Chinese women helped to build a nation one family at a time From the 1920s to the early 1950s home economists transformed the most fundamental of political spaces the home by teaching women to nurture ideal families and manage projects of social reform Although their discipline came undone after 1949 it created a legacy of gendered professionalism and reinforced the idea that leaders should shape domestic rituals of the people The Quarterly Journal of Economics Charles Franklin Dunbar, Frank William Taussig, Abbott Payson Usher, Alvin Harvey Hansen, William Leonard Crum, Edward Chamberlin, Arthur Eli Monroe, 1929 Vols 1 22 include the section Recent publications upon economics

Rural Education in China's Social Transition Peggy A. Kong, Emily Hannum, Gerard A. Postiglione, 2020-12-17 In the first decade of the twenty first century the People's Republic of China experienced dramatic growth and expansion that altered the educational environment of children Rapid economic development increased prosperity and educational opportunities for children expanded in a wealthier society Yet a by product of rising wealth was rising inequality While the children of the emerging urban middle and elite classes enjoyed new prosperity the children of the persistently poor in rural communities continued to experience challenges such as food insecurity illness hardships of family separation and migrant life on the margins of the cities This time period saw a large resource gap emerge between the home conditions of poor rural children compared with those of their wealthier urban counterparts This book highlights the complexities China has experienced in seeking to extend full educational access to rural children including rural to urban migrant and ethnic minority children during a momentous period in China Chapters delve into the experiences perceptions strategies and difficulties of rural origin children and their families in the school system and lay bare the challenges of policy initiatives designed to support rural education We hope the experiences detailed here will be of interest to students and scholars of rural educational policy and practice in China and worldwide

The Family, 1929 Teaching and Learning English in East Asian Universities

Lan Li, David D. Qian, 2014-10-02 The 25 chapters contained in this book were all written by scholars working in the field of applied linguistics and English language teaching in various East Asian contexts East Asia is large and diverse in terms of socio economic linguistic and ethnic parameters Statistics alone cannot give a clear understanding of what goes on in rural and urban universities and what challenges English language teachers and learners face in those contexts To understand this wide gamut of issues in English language teaching in East Asia is thus a very large undertaking The book addresses some of these issues arranging its 25 chapters into five sections namely Assessing Language Performance Teaching English Writing Learner Autonomy Corpus and Discourse Research and Learning English in East Asian Contexts Many of the chapters in this volume concern familiar topics such as linking assessment to teaching learning and curriculum conducting assessment validation research examining meta cognitive strategies investigating teaching and learning English for academic purposes and profiling prevailing word lists for language learners Other chapters are on novel or lesser known topics such as non verbal delivery in speaking assessment the use of visualization as a reading strategy learner strategies in a Facebook corpus effects of discourse signaling cues and rate of speech and an ontogenetic analysis of college English textbooks Collectively these chapters showcase English language learning teaching and assessing in a range of contexts using a variety of methods and techniques to deal with issues relevant to East Asian teachers learners and researchers Dwelling in the World Elizabeth LaCouture, 2021-08-10 By the early twentieth century Chinese residents of the northern treaty port city of Tianjin were dwelling in the world Divided by nine foreign concessions Tianjin was one of the world's most colonized and cosmopolitan cities Residents could circle the globe in an afternoon strolling from a Chinese courtyard house through a Japanese garden past a French Beaux Arts bank to dine at a German caf and fall asleep in a British garden city style semi attached brick house Dwelling in the World considers family house and home in Tianjin to explore how tempos and structures of everyday life changed with the fall of the Qing Empire and the rise of a colonized city Elizabeth LaCouture argues that the intimate ideas and practices of the modern home were more important in shaping the gender and status identities of Tianjin's urban elites than the new public ideology of the nation Placing the Chinese home in a global context she challenges Euro American historical notions that the private sphere emerged from industrialization She argues that concepts of individual property rights that emerged during the Republican era became foundational to state society relations in early Communist housing reforms and in today's middle class real estate boom Drawing on diverse sources from municipal archives women's magazines and architectural field work to social surveys and colonial records Dwelling in the World recasts Chinese social and cultural history offering new perspectives on gender and class colonialism and empire visual and material culture and technology and everyday life Journal of Educational Method, 1929 Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
