Studying Congregations Korean Version The Missional Church in Context Craig Van Gelder, 2007-10-26 The missional church conversation continues to make a vital contribution to thinking about congregations and their contexts addressing the essential question What does it really mean to be church This book offers substantial clarifying insights into that ongoing dialogue Contributors Mark Lau Branson James Tzu Kao Chai Mary Sue Dehmlow Dreier Terri Martinson Elton Scott Frederickson Joon Ho Lee Gary M Simpson Craig Van Gelder

Practicing Care in Rural Congregations and Communities Jeanne Hoeft, L. Shannon Jung, Joretta Marshall, 2013-07-01 Pastoral care in rural communities is different from care in other locales Despite these differences rural churches and communities also hold a particular wisdom from which the rest of the church might benefit Small towns and rural areas have particular challenges and in seeking to live out the Christian life in the midst of those local churches have unique and useful insights into what it means to care for one another

Finding Our Story Larry A. Golemon, 2010-01-31 Helping a community of faith re vision its personal and collective narratives is one of the greatest leadership challenges of the age In Finding Our Story Larry Golemon lead researcher of the Alban Institute s Narrative Leadership in Ministry project has assembled essays by congregational consultants who use the power of story to help congregations heal strengthen and reinvent themselves These consultants describe how narrative therapy works explore its promise and its challenges and share the practical wisdom of their own experiences along with their favorite models of narrative change to show how congregations can be transformed by reauthoring the operative stories they live by

Holy Conversations Gil Rendle, Alice Mann, 2003-11-01 Planning can be challenging in the contemporary congregation where people share a common faith and values but may have very different preferences and needs Much of the literature on congregational planning presents it as a technical process the leader serves as the chief problem solver and the goal is finding the solution to the problem Popular Alban consultants and authors Gil Rendle and Alice Mann cast planning as a holy conversation a congregational discernment process about three critical questions Who are we What has God called us to do or be Who is our neighbor Rendle and Mann equip congregational leaders with a broad and creative range of ideas pathways processes and tools for planning By choosing the resources that best suit their needs and context congregations will shape their own strengthening transforming holy conversation They will find a path that is faithful to their identity and their relationship with God Resource materials are available to purchasers of the book E mail resource material rowman com for more information

Congregations in Europe Christophe Monnot,Jörg Stolz,2018-05-14 This volume describes and maps congregations of Christian confessions and denominations as well as groups with Jewish Buddhist Muslim Hindu and various other spiritual faiths in different European countries Consisting of three parts it presents concrete sociological studies addressing how established and not established old and new congregations of various faiths create a new kind of religious diversity at the country level how religious congregations are challenged and thrive in large cities and how religious congregations change in the 21st century The book enlightens by its descriptive analysis and the theoretical questions it raises concerning the religious transformations happening all over Europe It addresses issues of religious diversity in the cities of Europe by presenting large studies conducted in cities such as Barcelona in Spain and Aarhus in Denmark By means of large scale censuses taken in areas such as North Rhine Westphalia in Germany and in countries like Switzerland and Italy the book shows how the historically established churches restructure their congregations and activities It clarifies for the new gatherers where and how a new diversity of religious congregations is in the process of being established Finally the book covers two important topical issues pluralisation and secularisation It provides new data on religious diversity painting a new picture of secularisation the impact and structural consequences of the long term decrease of membership in the established churches

How Am I Going to Grow Up? Enoch Wong,2022-01-04 Second generation Chinese Canadian evangelicals inhabit a complex liminal space positioned between the world of their parents and broader Canadian society In this study Dr Enoch Wong explores the silent exodus of these Canadian born Chinese from their parents churches tracing their journeys to negotiate their cultural ethnic and faith identities for themselves Utilizing both sociology of religion and leadership studies Wong s research engages Robert Greenleaf s concept of foresight in servant leadership to examine the role of church leaders in mediating or failing to mediate these transitions for children raised in immigrant churches This multi case inquiry offers insight into the concerns of Canadian born Chinese evangelicals and the cultural and generational conflicts that prompt them to search for new communities capable of understanding their identities and supporting their yearnings whether inside or outside of the church

The Stories Congregations Tell Joel Thiessen,Arch Chee Keen Wong,Mark D. Chapman,2024-11-26 Congregations are story telling communities The stories they tell which link a community s past present and future can play an important role in whether a congregation flourishes or not The Stories Congregations Tell features detailed case study research from seven dynamic Canadian congregations across theological traditions and geographical regions Readers will encounter narratives that congregations tell themselves through a myriad of congregational and social transitions accounts that shape how congregations interpret frame approach and ultimately flourish in ministry On the surface congregational descriptions appear specific to local contexts Yet cultural analysis reveals several commonalities across distinct congregational cultures that appear resilient in the face of challenge and change These factors include visionary leadership clear congregational identity rooted in spiritual formation hospitable community among members and intentional systems and structures oriented toward a congregation's mission This book offers social scientific analysis and theological reflection on the stories congregations tell and the function those stories play for a congregation's culture along with practical and hopeful applications to arise from this research Religion and Community in the New Urban America Paul D. Numrich, Elfriede Wedam, 2015-04-14 Through an in depth study of fifteen Chicago congregations Catholic parishes Protestant churches Jewish synagogues Muslim mosques and a Hindu temple city and suburban neighborhood based and commuter this book describes congregational life and measures the influences of those congregations on urban environments Practical Theology in Church and Society Joseph E. Bush, 2016-07-20 The church exists in the world and our ministry is inextricably social in nature Practical theology takes this seriously and asks us to reflect on our practice of ministry in both church and society This book attends to our practice as individuals in ministry to our corporate practice as congregations in ministry and to our practice as Christians within the wider social and natural world Practical Theology in Church and Society brings into sharper focus two perspectives on practical theology One is the view through the wide angle lens of justice oriented action which hopes for liberation This view encompasses a broad vista of social forces for justice and injustice when evaluating local movements and local ministries The other perspective takes the narrower focus of the action reflection model as it is used to zoom in on individual actions and particular practices of ministry such as pastoral care The purpose of the book is to integrate these two perspectives on practical theology It explicates a cyclical method for doing theology that has corollaries within the disciplines of practical theology liberation theology missiology congregation studies and ministerial leadership The volume provides resources for developing more socially and ecologically engaged ministries and it draws implications for ministerial education Shop Window, Flagship, Common Ground Judith A. Muskett, 2019-11-30 Shop window flagship common ground views the rich ministry and innovative mission of cathedrals through the novel lens of metaphor and it offers comparative insights on cathedrals and cathedral like churches

American Parishes Gary J. Adler, Tricia C. Bruce, Brian Starks, 2019-07-02 Parishes are the missing middle in studies of American Catholicism Between individual Catholics and a global institution the thousands of local parishes are where Catholicism gets remade American Parishes showcases what social forces shape parishes what parishes do how they do it and what this says about the future of Catholicism in the United States Expounding an embedded field approach this book displays the numerous forces currently reshaping American parishes It draws from sociology of religion culture organizations and race to illuminate basic parish processes like leadership and education and ongoing parish struggles like conflict and multiculturalism American Parishes brings together contemporary data methods and questions to establish a sociological re engagement with Catholic parishes and a Catholic re engagement with sociological analysis Contributions by leading social scientists highlight how community geography and authority intersect within parishes It illuminates and analyzes how growing racial diversity an aging religious population and neighborhood change affect the inner workings of parishes Contributors Gary J Adler Jr Nancy Ammerman Mary Jo Bane Tricia C Bruce John A Coleman S J Kathleen Garces Foley Mary Gray Brett Hoover Courtney Ann Irby Tia Noelle Pratt and Brian Starks The Church We Carry William H. Willimon,2025-08-05 Breaking faith finding grace wisdom for leading divided churches in divisive times Trusted and respected leader Will Willimon explores how failures in leadership and theological vision contributed to our current denominational crisis Through the lens of a South Carolina historic congregation this book offers a critical analysis that will enlighten today s congregational leaders on navigating the complexities of ministry in our uncertain future As a retired United Methodist bishop and expert in ordained leadership Willimon reflects on a simple to ask but complicated to answer question What has become of the church that shaped his faith Focusing on Buncombe Street Methodist Church he examines their journey through disaffiliation to shed light on leadership challenges within our denomination including his own role This insightful resource provides a candid exploration of the realities of ministry today inviting us to confront our grief and shortcomings while embracing our duty to serve Christ s church in the present moment Gain valuable insights from real life experiences learn from those labeled as schismatic and discover practical strategies for effective leadership in today s evolving church landscape Churches in the mirror Kobus Schoeman,2020-01-01 Ecclesiology is the study of the church and has two focal points the one is the historical and doctrinal perspective on the church and the other is the church as situated in a local context in the sense of the local practices of actual congregations The ecclesiology or more correctly the ecclesiologies of this volume mainly focuses on the second aspect i e understanding the local congregation or parish as a community of believers A congregation may firstly be described by posing a theological question What is the local missional church or congregation all about This question may be answered from different perspectives but it remains essential to answer it from a theological perspective The first five chapters in this book focus mainly on a theological understanding of the congregation This is done from different disciplines within the study field of theology Congregations are secondly social realities and should be described and analysed through an analytical or empirical lens or to answer the question attached to the first empirical descriptive task of practical theology What is going on The remaining chapters use a quantitative and qualitative lens and give an empirical analysis of the congregation The intention is to critically reflect on the church and congregations ecclesiology from a theological and analytical perspective with an emphasis on the South African context It wants to map markers for the development of contemporary ecclesiologies and the different chapters are meant as mirrors to look in and reflect on the theological and contextual relevance of denominations and congregations in South Africa Pastoral Leadership Won Sang Lee,2015-01-14 In ascending to heaven Jesus Christ gave the church the Great Commission to expand the gospel to all nations Despite this biblical commission it is still an unfinished task As leaders of local churches pastors play a crucial part in this endeavor Pastoral leadership principles have varied widely throughout history yet it is interesting to discover the similarities between pastoral leadership principles practiced by John Chrysostom AD 347 407 in Antioch and Constantinople and Won Sang Lee 1937 in Washington DC Despite ministering 1600 years apart both pastors share the same core values care for people Christ like character biblical preaching and world missions This suggests that continued emphasis on these principles will play a significant role in fulfilling the Great Commission independent of time and place

Evangelicalism and the Emerging Church Cory E. Labanow, 2016-04-22 With the Christian church in the west in decline some churches are undergoing difficult transitions as they seek to become relevant to both themselves and their surrounding cultures Evangelicalism and the Emerging Church details an ethnographic study of a Vineyard congregation making sense of their Vineyard roots and their growing relationship with the self proclaimed emerging church network Through a rich account of congregational life and tensions universal issues are raised such as relating to religious parentage creating safe places for spirituality Christian growth and maturity communication with contemporary culture and the challenges of identity reconstruction This book is the first to conduct an academic study of a Vineyard congregation in the United Kingdom

Sacred Assemblies and Civic Engagement Paul D Numrich, Fred Kniss, 2007-07-11 Immigration to the United States has been a major source of population growth and cultural change throughout much of America s history Currently about 40 percent of the nation s annual population growth comes from the influx of foreign born individuals and their children As these new voices enter America s public conversations they bring with them a new understanding of Buddhism Hinduism Islam Judaism and Christianity to a society that has been marked by religious variety Sacred Assemblies and Civic Engagement takes an in depth look at one particular urban area the Chicago metropolitan region and examines how religion affects the civic engagement of the nation s newest residents Chapters focus on important religious factors including sectarianism moral authority and moral projects on several areas of social life including economics education marriage and language where religion impacts civic engagement and on how notions of citizenship and community are influenced by sacred assemblies

Leadership Formation in the African Context Samuel Deressa, 2022-03-25 The teachings of Christian leadership have been dominated by a focus on the influence of a leader on its followers Samuel Deressa s new book Leadership Formation in the African Context highlights how an African concept of community and holistic approach to ministry provides a biblically sound approach to understanding leadership formation and practice in this new age This book links the issue of missional leadership with the life of the congregation It provides theological and practical insights into how we can understand leadership formation in contexts where churches are engaged in the Missio Dei as a community of believers
