Greeley, 2025-08-22 One of America s most beloved storytellers Father Andrew Greeley returns with an explosive novel about the corrosive political culture tearing apart America and one man s family Tommy Moran an Irish Catholic kid from the West Side of Chicago fights for the underprivileged on the floor of the United States Senate Swearing off negative attack ads Moran is determined to restore civility and compassion to American politics But his opponents don t share his scruples Almost from the beginning Tommy and his family find themselves besieged by vicious personal attacks false rumors and attempts at assassination As a freshman senator Tommy must also cope with the temptations both political and carnal regularly thrown his way The job takes its toll on him but at least he has the support and love of his devoted wife a daughter of Chicago s raucous O Malley family But the opposition that hits home the hardest comes from an unlikely source his own brother Father Tony Moran a conservative

Dick reveals in the first biography of this Golden Age star Forever Mame The Life of Rosalind Russell Drawing on personal interviews and information from the archives of Russell and her producer husband Frederick Brisson Dick begins with Russell's childhood in Waterbury Connecticut and chronicles her early attempts to achieve recognition after graduating from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts Frustrated by her inability to land a lead in a Broadway show she headed for Hollywood in 1934 and two years later played her first starring role the title character in Craig's Wife Dick discusses all of her films along with her triumphal return to Broadway first in the musical Wonderful Town and later in Auntie Mame Forever Mame details Russell's social circle of such stars as Loretta Young Cary Grant and Frank Sinatra It traces an extraordinary career ending with Russell's courageous battle against the two diseases that eventually caused her death rheumatoid arthritis and cancer Russell devoted her last years to campaigning for arthritis research So successful was she in her efforts to alert lawmakers to this crippling disease that a leading San Francisco research center is named after her A Woman's View Jeanine Basinger, 2013-09-04 Now Voyager Stella Dallas Leaver Her to Heaven Imitation of Life Mildred Pierce Gilda these are only a few of the hundreds of women's films that poured out of Hollywood during the thirties forties and fifties The films were widely disparate in subject sentiment and technique they nonetheless shared one dual purpose to provide the audience of women primarily with temporary liberation into a screen dream of romance sexuality luxury suffering or even wickedness and then send it home reminded of reassured by and resigned to the fact that no matter what else she might do a woman's most important job was to be a woman Now with boundless knowledge and infectious enthusiasm Jeanine Basinger illuminates the various surprising and subversive ways in which women's films delivered their message Basinger examines dozens of films exploring the seemingly intractable contradictions at the convoluted heart of the woman's genre among them the dilemma of the strong and glamorous woman who cedes her power when she feels it threatening her personal happiness and the self-abnegating woman whose selflessness is not always as noble as it appears Basinger looks at the stars who played these women and helps us understand the qualities the right off-screen personae the right on-screen attitudes the right faces that made them personify the woman's film and equipped them to make believable drama or comedy out of the crackpot plots the conflicting ideas and the exaggerations of real behavior that characterize these movies In each of the films the author discusses whether melodrama screwball comedy musical film noir western or biopic a woman occupies the center of her particular universe Her story in its endless variations of rags to riches boy meets girl battle of the sexes mother love doomed romance inevitably sends a highly potent mixed message Yes you women belong in your proper place that is content with the Big Three of the woman's film world men marriage and motherhood but meanwhile and paradoxically see what fun glamour and power you can enjoy along the way A Woman's View deepens our understanding of the times and circumstances and attitudes out of which these movies were created Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review, 1949 The Forum, 1909 Current political social scientific education and literary news written about by many famous authors and reform movements Billboard, 1946-11-30 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The Hired Wife/ the Moon in Eclipse Lynna Cooper, Rader, Claudia Slack, 1981-09-01 The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr Robert Benchley Gordon E.
