under the pretext of preserving purity of doctrine and obedience to the church Pope Gregory ix appointed a commission to exercise the inquisitorial functions in several convents throughout the kingdom 4 The Inquisition of Rome is composed of twelve cardinals and some other officers over which the pope presides in person These cardinals assume to themselves the title of Inquisitors General throughout the Christian world but they have no jurisdiction in France and some other Roman Catholic countries They are empowered to deprive or remove all inferior inquisitors Popes Innocent Alexander Urban Clement and their successors used their most endeavours but to no purpose to prevail with the Venetians to follow the example of the other states of Italy in this particular The conduct of the Inquisitors was adduced by the republic of Venice as a reason for refusing admission to that tribunal into its territories for they were guilty of great disorders preached seditious sermons and upon any caprice published crusades against the heretics and appeared to be more disposed to revenge themselves
